DEMOCRATIC TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS OVER THE COUNTRY

BIG MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORAL VOTES IS FOR WILSON

Carried at Least 32 States, with 354 Votes in the Electoral College--Congress is Democratic

New York, Nov. 6.—Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, swept the country yesterday. Returns early today showed that the predictions that the Democratic party would be put in control in the nation were well founded.

A popular as well as an electoral plurality was insured for Wilson by a united party in every state of the union. He carried 32 states with a total vote in the electoral college of 354 out of 531 votes.

He carried his own state of New Jersey. He wrested from President Taft his native state of Ohio, and from Colonel Roosevelt his home commonwealth of New York.

Not alone that, but for the first time since the organization of the Republican party, a Democratic candidate will get the electoral vote of Maine.

Wilson goes into office with a heavy Democratic congress behind him and assurances that the next senate will be made up of men of his party faith. He will be able to force through the measures to which he is pledged.

Wilson carried with him to victory Democratic senators and congressmen everywhere. He carried through enough members of legislatures to insure the retirement of Senator Briggs to private life and the elevation to the senate of former Congressman William Hughes, in whose behalf Wilson stumped the state during the last few days.

Wilson carried the following states, all of which were carried by Bryan four years ago: Alabama, Kentucky, Nebraska, South Carolina, Arkansas, Louisiana, Nevada, Tennessee, Florida, Maryland, North Carolina, Texas, Georgia, Mississippi, Oklahoma and Virginia.

In addition he took from Mr. Taft the following states which the president carried four years ago: Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Montana, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, South Dakota, West Virginia and Wisconsin. He also carried Arizona and New Mexico, territories four years ago. He was leading in and it was claimed had carried Iowa and California.

RESULT IN IDAHO WILL NOT BE KNOWN FOR SEVERAL DAYS

All Three of the Candidates for Governor are in the Race--Martin Carries Ada County

With complete returns from not a single county in the state and with several counties with no returns at all up to midnight and from others nothing but estimates in which no figures are given and in which it is declared figures will not be available before tomorrow, it looks very much at a late hour this morning as if it were anybody's fight for governor.

Martin has carried the southwest by a big lead over Haines, with Hawley a second. Haines has beaten Martin badly in the southeast with Hawley again a second. If Hawley should lead either of the others in the north, or if either of the others should lead Hawley in that section, that would determine who should be elected.

Each side is claiming a victory with just grounds for the claim. If Martin comes down from the north with the vote he claimed he would win. If Haines should come down with the vote he claimed, he would win, and if Hawley received the vote there he claimed, he will win, and there are not enough returns to show which will get it.

It looks at this time as if an exact reproduction of the direct primary situation were to be re-enacted

Any claim of advantage made upon returns received last night is merely a claim based upon prejudice or upon a mere hope that the later retuhns would favor the candidate in whose behalf such claims were made.

The southeast has gone overwhelmingly for Haines and Taft, according to reports received in which, however, few figures are given.

Martin has carried Ada county by 2000 over Haines and he has carried Canyon county by a much larger figure than that. Haines gets it back on his in the southeast, while Hawley seems to have the best of it in Lincoln, Blaine, Custer and Elmore.

The Capital News refrains from making any claims for the very good reason that there are insufficient figures upon which to base intelligent claims until fuller returns are received.
