OFFICE OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, No. 84 Common street, New Orleans, Dec. 31, 1859.

☞ 1. The stock-books of the Company were closed on the 10th inst., under five distinct and distinguishing positions for the purchase of the whole stock of the Company remaining unsold by its agents on that day.

2. The propositions before me will be submitted to the Company, and if approved, will fully consummate the contract on the 1st February next. The terms of the sale are "par," with satisfactory payments, conditioned that the proceeds thereof shall be invested in labor to build the road.

3. All stockholders "cut off" by the sale of the road and franchises of the Company, on the 5th of October, 1859—constituting only of those stockholders who have lost, or, by the unpaid instalments, under what is styled "The New Policy" of the Company, adopted in April last—will have an opportunity of presenting all the facts in their respective cases, at the office of the Company, in 120 days, during this week, from 12 M. to 2 P. M., and from 3 to 5 P. M.

The prospects of the Company more never so promising as now. The new organization is expected to be consummated at an early day. It will give the enterprise the character, influence and experience of the Hon. J. Edgar Thompson, of Pennsylvania, associated with Hon. Y. K. Stevenson and Col. Samuel Tate, of Tennessee, men who have made the most valuable and successful railway managers ever have before united in the prosecution of any railroad enterprise in the Union.

I shall be glad to furnish full information to any stockholder or other public spirited citizen who feels an interest in this great national highway.

J. FOWLKES, President.

THE CELEBRATED

ARGYLE BITTERS

Will Effectually Cure—

DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISORDERED STOMACH, DISGUST FOR FOOD, HEARTBERN, LOSS OF APPETITE, GENERAL DEBILITY,

—AND—

PROSTRATION OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM.

They are entirely vegetable, and free from all injurious ingredients. They are pleasant to taste, and mild in their effects, keeping the bowels gently acted upon, and will remove all impurities from the stomach.

These elegant Bitters are peculiarly adapted for a warm climate; and every person desiring health, strength, and protection from the diseases incident to the climate, should use them.

Persons exhausted in life and feeling the load of Time weighing heavily upon them, will find in Argyle Bitters, the true cordial for the decaying powers of life, that will cast new life into their veins; rouse, in a measure, the energy and vigor of more youthful days; build up their shattered forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

It is a well established fact, that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of invalids, these Bitters are especially recommended. Their peculiar tonic and invigorating properties render them invaluable in such cases.

Persons visiting districts harassed annually with Fever and Ague, or any Fever of a bilious nature, will find that to the timid, one of these Bitters taken before they will sensibly impair the disease, as the Bitters will renovate and strengthen the system, and carry the life of its material channel.

Dr. Browning's Fever and Ague Mixture.

Numerous remedies of more or less power to cure, have long since been offered to the public, but in nearly every instance they have proved ineffectual or injurious in their effects upon the system.

Our long, wide spread and long acquaintance with the Southern country, has demonstrated to us the absolute want of a safe and certain cure for

FEVER AND AGUE.

Quinine, although the great remedy which is relied upon for this complaint, frequently produces disastrous effects, and thereby injures the health and constitution.

As a general rule, it not alleviates the disease, and does but little towards a radical and permanent cure.

We feel confident we are offering the community a better remedy. It contains no deleterious ingredients, and invariably cures

FEVER AND AGUE,

OR, INTERMITTENT FEVER,
REMITTENT FEVER,
BILIOUS FEVER,

—AND—

BILIOUS FEVER, ACCOMPANIED WITH DUMB AGUE.

All of which originate from nearly the same cause, namely, the miasmatic effluvia which arises from decaying vegetation in the warm weather, and is taken into the lungs and bowels, and poisons absorbed into the blood, and in many cases is accumulated in the system a long time before it shows its presence in the form of Fever and Ague.

This remedy cures the Fever and Ague in this way—it at once attacks the malaria in the system by stimulating the liver and expelling the virus impurities from the blood.

Browning's Balsamic Expectorant.

This valuable and unfailing remedy, after having been used with unparalleled success for many years in a very extensive private practice, is now offered to the public in such a manner as to be within the reach of all, and will be found a safe and speedy cure for

COUGHS,
COLDS,
ASTHMA,
BRONCHITIS,
SPITTING OF BLOOD,
PAINS IN THE SIDE,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS.

It is prepared exclusively from vegetable substances known to exercise a soothing influence on the lungs, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.

Every one should be satisfied with the necessity of attending in time to a slight cold; from the neglect of it, how many thousands have been hurried into an early grave by that dreary of the human race. Consumption. This may be kept in proper remedy, at the proper time, might have lived a long and happy life.

Browning's Balsamic Expectorant

is pronounced to be the proper remedy for all diseases of the pulmonary organs; its preparation is no secret, the manner and materials of its composition being at the command of any of the faculty, who apply for it, and they invariably recommend it to their practice, in preference to anything else.

Directions and full directions accompany each bottle.
