THE CELEBRATED
ARGYLE BITTERS
—Will Effectually Cure—
DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISORDERED STOMACH, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FEVERS, ARTHURN, LOSS OF APPETITE, GENERAL DEBILITY,
—And—
PROSTRATION OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM.—
These elegant Bitters are peculiarly adapted for a warm climate, and every person desiring health, strength, and protection from the diseases incident to the climate, should use them.
Persons advanced in life, and feeling the hand of Time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of the Bitters an Elixir that will instil new life into their veins; restore, in a measure, the energy and ardor of early youth; fill days; build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.
It is a well established fact, that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health, or to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of invalids, these Bitters are especially recommended. Their genuine tonic and invigorating properties render them invaluable in such cases.
Persons visiting distress harassed annually with Fever and Ague, or any Fever of a bilious nature, will find that by the timely use of one or two bottles they will not in one instance take the disease, as the Bitters will renovate and strengthen the system, and carry the blight of disease completely off.

Dr. Browning's Fever and Ague Mixture.
Numerous remedies of more or less power to cure, have long been offered to the public, but in nearly every instance they have proved ineffectual or injurious in their effects upon the system.
Our wide-spread and long acquaintance with the Southern country, has demonstrated to us the absolute want of a safe and certain cure for
FEVER AND AGUE.
Quinine, although the great remedy which is relied upon for this complaint, frequently produces disastrous effects, and thereby injures the health of the patient.
Our mixture, while it never disappoints, it only alleviates the disease, and does but little towards a radical and permanent cure.
We feel confident in recommending it as a vastly better remedy; it contains no deleterious ingredients, and invariably cures
FEVER AND AGUE,
GIL INTERMITTENT FEVER,
REMITTENT FEVER,
BILIOUS FEVER,
AND DUMB AGUE.
All of which originate from nearly the same cause, namely, the miasmatic effluvia which arises from decaying vegetation in water or moist earth. It is an exceedingly subtle and insidious poison, absorbed into the blood, and in many cases is accumulated in the system a long time before it shows its presence in the form of Fever and Ague.
This remedy cures the Fever and Ague in this way—it at once attacks the poison in the system by stimulating the liver and expelling the virus impurities from the system.

Browning's Balsamic Expectorant.
This valuable and unfailing remedy, after having been used with unparalleled success for many years in a very extensive private practice, is now offered to the public in such a manner as to be within the reach of all, and will be found a safe and speedy cure of
COUGHS,
COLDS,
ASTHMA,
BRONCHITIS,
PAINS IN THE SIDE,
SPITTING OF BLOOD,
AND ALL DISEASES OF THE PULMONARY ORGANS.
It is prepared exclusively from vegetable extractives, known to exercise a soothing influence on the lungs, and can be given with perfect safety to the youngest child.
Every one should be impressed with the necessity of attending in time to a slight cold; from the neglect of it, how many thousands have been hurried into an early grave by that dreadful disease, consumption, who by taking the proper remedy, at the proper time, might have lived a long and happy life.

Browning's Balsamic Expectorant
Is pronounced to be the proper remedy for all diseases of the pulmonary organs; its preparation is no secret, the manner and materials of its composition being at the command of any of the faculty, who apply for it, and they invariably recommend it to their practice, in preference to anything else.
Certificates from the highest authorities accompany each bottle.
