CHARTER

OF AMERICAN MOLASSO MEAL COMPANY, INC.

United States of America, State of Louisiana, Parish of Orleans, City of New Orleans.

Be it known, That on this 8th day of the month of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fortieth, before me, Frederic Charles Marx, a Notary Public, duly commissioned and qualified, in and for the Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana, therein residing, and in the presence of the witnesses hereinafter named and undersigned, personally came and appeared the several persons whose names are hereunto subscribed, who declared that availing themselves of the provisions of the general laws of this State relative to the organization of corporations, they have covenanted and agreed and do by these presents covenant and agree, bind, form and constitute themselves, as well as such persons as may hereafter join or become associated with them, into a corporation and body politic in law for the objects and purposes and under the agreements and stipulations following, to-wit:

Article I.—The name of this corporation shall be "American Molasso Meal Company, Incorporated," under which name it shall exist for a period of ninety-nine (99) years from the date of this act, and shall have and enjoy all the power and authority conferred by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Louisiana upon corporations formed for the purpose of engaging in the business hereinafter stated, as well as the power to purchase, sell, mortgage and pledge property, movable and immovable, for the purpose and requirements of their business.

Article II.—The domicile of this corporation shall be in the city of New Orleans, Parish of Orleans, State of Louisiana. All citations and other legal papers shall be served on the President of the Company, and in his absence on the Vice President or Secretary-Treasurer.

Article III.—The purposes for which this corporation is formed are to conduct the business of dealing in, buying and selling at wholesale and retail of food and feedstuffs and all materials necessary for manufacturing feed and to mix and manufacture feeding materials for cattle and stock, and shall have authority to do business throughout the United States and foreign countries, and to buy and sell real estate, machinery, patents, patented processes and patent rights and all other necessities having such purposes in view, and to enter into all contracts and agreements necessary or expedient for the carrying out of the business of this corporation.

Article IV.—The capital stock of this corporation is fixed at the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), divided equally in preferred and common stock. Two hundred and fifty (250) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each shall be non-assessable, cumulative, eight per cent (8%) per annum preferred stock, divided into two classes: Class "A" and Class "B." Each class shall comprise one hundred and twenty-five (125) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each. Both classes shall receive eight per cent (8%) per annum dividends, cumulative and preferred, payable at the office of the Company on the first (1st) day of August each year. Class "B" of said preferred stock will only receive a dividend of eight per cent (8%) per annum and an allowance of one dollar ($1.00) per ton on each and every ton of feed bought from the Company by the original holder of Class "B" stock or their legal heirs or assigns, which shall be paid unto such stockholder until the total allowance paid on each share of said stock shall equal the par value thereof, after which time said Class "B" stock shall only receive eight per cent (8%) per annum dividends and shall not participate in any additional dividends which may be declared. A special record shall be kept by the Secretary-Treasurer of such payments, which payments shall also be endorsed on the certificate of Class "B" stock and credited at the time such feed is paid for. Two hundred and fifty (250) shares of the par value of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each shall constitute the common stock of this corporation, but the common stock shall not participate in any dividends until after the profits of this Company, whether used for improvements or extensions of plant, or retained as surplus, shall exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00), whether earned in one or more years. The certificate of stock shall be signed by the President and by the Secretary-Treasurer, or in the absence or inability to act of the President by the Vice President and Secretary and Treasurer. Said stock shall be transferable only on the books of the Company, and on the surrender or due proof of loss of the original certificate. The capital stock may be increased to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00). All subscriptions shall be paid for in cash, property or service, at such time that the Board of Directors shall require, and the laws of this State provide. The corporation shall begin to do business when twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) of the capital stock has been subscribed for, fifty per cent (50%) thereof has been paid for and the remainder of the authorized stock shall be issued at such time, and upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall determine. The stock issued by this Company may be voted cumulatively by the holder thereof as provided by Act No. 267 of 1914.

Article V.—All the powers of this corporation shall be vested in and expressed by a board of five directors, each of whom shall own at least one share of the capital stock of this Company and three to constitute a quorum.

The said directors shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the shareholders, under the supervision of two commissioners appointed by the Board of Directors, which meeting shall be held on the third (3rd) Monday of January of each year, after due notice given to the stockholders by the Secretary by mail at least fifteen days prior to the date of such election. At all meetings of the shareholders each shareholder shall be entitled to cast one vote, in person or by proxy, on each share of stock held by him, but no person shall vote any stock transferred within ten days prior to the holding of such meeting. At all elections it shall require a majority of the votes cast to elect. At any meeting of the Board of Directors any director absent from said meeting may be represented by another director, who may cast the vote of said absent director according to the written instructions of said absent director. The Board of Directors shall have the power by two-thirds vote of all the directors to lease, sell, mortgage or pledge any and all of the property, movable and immovable, belonging to the corporation, without reference to the shareholders for power to do so, and they may also purchase for cash, or on credit, property of any kind required for any of the purposes of this corporation, without authority from the shareholders. The Board of Directors shall have the power to issue or confer general power or special power on the President to issue promissory notes and other negotiable paper.

Until the next general meeting to be held under this charter, viz., on the third Monday of January, 1916, the Board of Directors of this Company shall be composed of Chas. H. O'Rourke, 1212 Peniston street, New Orleans, La.; Anthony Vizard, Jr., Reeves, La.; James M. Myatt, 6020 Camp street, New Orleans, La.; E. M. Williams, Vinton, La., and Roy P. Standefer, 993 Calder avenue, Beaumont, Texas, with Chas. H. O'Rourke as President, and Anthony Vizard, Jr., as Vice President, and James M. Myatt, Secretary-Treasurer. In case of any vacancy either in the above named Board of Directors, or in any other, the remaining members shall have the power to fill the vacancies; and all directors and officers of the Company shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified. Failure to hold the annual meeting shall not dissolve the corporation, but the meeting shall be held as soon as possible after the regular date.

Article VI.—This act of incorporation may be changed, altered or modified, or the capital stock may be increased or decreased, with the assent of two-thirds of its stock, at a meeting duly called for that purpose after ten days' due advertisement in one of the daily newspapers of this city, and after written notice mailed to each stockholder at his last known address; provided, however, that the objects and purposes of incorporation shall not be changed, and the capital stock shall not be increased to more than the maximum permitted in the original act of incorporation, nor decreased to an amount less than the corporate indebtedness. A change in objects and purposes may, however, be voted by all stock thereto before issued and an increase of all the capital stock in excess of the amount originally named as the sum to which the capital may be increased may be made by three-fourths of all its outstanding stock.

Article VII.—No stockholder shall ever be held liable or responsible for the contracts or faults of said corporation in any further sum than the unpaid balance due on the shares of stock owned by him; nor shall any mere informality in organization have the effect of rendering this charter null or exposing a stockholder to any liability beyond the amount of his unpaid stock; nor shall any informality or irregularity in organization ever have the effect of rendering any stockholder liable as a partner.

Article VIII.—Whenever this corporation is dissolved, either by limitation of time or by the determination of the stockholders, its affairs shall be liquidated under the supervision of two liquidators to be appointed for that purpose at a general meeting of the stockholders convened after ten days' notice, which shall have been sent by mail to the addresses of all the stockholders, whose addresses shall be known to, or who shall have left their address with the Secretary, and shall be published for fifteen (15) days in one of the daily newspapers published in this city.

At such meeting to consider the liquidation of the corporation, the result shall be determined by the consent of two-thirds of all the outstanding stock, present or represented at such meeting. In case of the death or inability of one of the liquidators, the survivor shall act alone.

Article IX.—The names and postoffice addresses of the subscribers to the stock of this corporation and the number of shares subscribed for by each of them are as follows: Chas. H. O'Rourke, 1212 Peniston street, New Orleans, La., 250 shares common stock; Chas. H. O'Rourke, 1212 Peniston street, New Orleans, La., 10 shares Class "A;" Anthony Vizard, Jr., Reeves, La., 5 shares Class "A;" James M. Myatt, 6020 Camp street, New Orleans, La., 10 shares Class "A;" Roy P. Standefer, 993 Calder avenue, Beaumont, Texas, 10 shares Class "A;" E. M. Williams, Vinton, La., 10 shares Class "A;" E. M. Williams, Vinton, La., 10 shares Class "B." Total number of shares subscribed for, 55.

The subscribers to this act of incorporation have also written opposite their names, respectively, the amount of stock of this corporation subscribed for by each of them, so that this charter may also serve as the original subscription list of said corporation, and they have also attached hereto a description of the property to be transferred to said corporation in payment of stock subscribed for, together with the valuation placed thereon by the Board of Directors, named in the charter.

Thus done and passed at the city of New Orleans, on the day, month and year hereinbefore first written, in the presence of Louis R. Hoover and Edward S. Spiro, competent witnesses, who hereto sign their names with the said appearers and me, Notary, after due reading of the whole.

Woman's Greater Courage.

Men have offered up their lives by the thousands upon the field of battle, but in the struggle for existence woman is continually offering up her life for man. If there is a mission of mercy to perform she undertakes it. If there is suffering or distress to succor, her willing hand is always ready. If wretchedness and misery need a comforter she is present. She suffers herself without a murmur or complaint, and the man that would in the slightest degree add to it and increase the anguish that it is her lot to bear is beneath the level of the brute. If she should happen to possess defects and faults, which every human being has in a greater or less degree, let him compare them with her virtues, and especially with his vices, and every impulse of his better being will prompt him to overlook them and make due allowance therefor.—Isidor Rayner.

Article V.—I. The corporate powers of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors to be composed of three directors, two of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, to be elected by the stockholders at a general meeting to be held on the fourth Monday in June, in each year. Notice of all stock meetings, except the organization meeting, shall be given to each stockholder, in writing, delivered personally or by depositing in the post office, addressed to the last known address, at least fifteen days before the meeting.

2. At all meetings of elections of this corporation, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock standing in his name on the books of the company, which vote shall be cast in person or by written proxy.

3. The Board of Directors shall have the power to make all by-laws, rules and regulations necessary for the conduct of the business affairs of said corporation; shall elect from their number a president, vice-president and a secretary-treasurer, the latter of whom shall give such bond and security as the board of directors may require.

4. The first board of directors shall be elected at a meeting of the subscribers to the capital stock to be held at the domicile of the corporation, on the 15th day of August, 1915, and, when elected, such directors shall hold office until the fourth Monday in June, 1916, or until their successors have been elected and qualified.

Article VI.—The capital stock of this corporation may be increased to one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00) at any time, in the discretion of the board of directors, and in accordance with the laws of this state. This charter may be amended, altered or modified, or the corporation dissolved, by a vote of two-thirds of the stockholders voting by shares, at a meeting convened for that purpose.

Article VII.—No stockholder of this corporation shall ever be held liable for any of the indebtedness, contracts or faults thereof, in any further sum than the unpaid balance due the corporation on the shares owned by him nor shall any informality in the organization have the effect of rendering this charter null, or of exposing a shareholder to any liability whatever.

Article VIII.—A failure at any time to hold meetings or elect directors or officers as herein provided shall not work a forfeiture of this charter, or dissolve the corporation, but the existing board of directors and officers shall continue in office until their successors have been elected, which election shall be held as soon as possible.

Article IX.—At the expiration of this charter, unless sooner dissolved, its affairs shall be liquidated by one or more commissioners to be appointed by the stockholders in meeting assembled for that purpose and who are invested with full power to sell all the assets and property, real or personal, of this corporation, and to convey a full and complete title thereto, and to do and perform all acts essential to a full and complete liquidation of the affairs of this corporation, and to distribute the proceeds, if any, in accordance with law.

Thus done and passed, at my office, in the city of New Orleans, on the day and date first above written, in the presence of Messrs. Esmond Phelps and Charles E. Dunbar, Jr., competent witnesses, whose names are hereunto subscribed, together with the said appearers and me, notary, after due reading of the whole.
