STANLEY'S EASTERN CHURCH.
Published This Day by C. SCRIBNER, No. 124 Grand-st., N. Y.
LECTURES ON THE HISTORY OF THE EASTERN CHURCH. With an Introduction on the Study of Ecclesiastical History. By A. P. STANLEY, D. D., Author of "Life of Dr. Arnold," "Sinai and Palestine," &c. From the second revised London Edition. Elegantly printed, at the Riverside Press, on laid tinted paper, in one volume, octavo, with Map of the Eastern Churches, cloth gilt. Price $2 50.
The great division of Ecclesiastical History, which is the subject-matter of the present volume, has never been thoroughly discussed by any English Historian. Dr. Stanley brings to the task a perfect knowledge of the author ties, a personal acquaintance with the East, and a power of word-painting that give a charm to his work perfectly unique and unexampled by any previous volume on Ecclesiastical History. The great Epoch of Eastern Christian Life—the Council of Nice, the Conversion and Causes of Conversion, the Rise of Mahomet and his Religion, the Progress and Establishment of Christianity among the Russians and Wild Tribes of the North—are all presented with the vividness of a succession of actual pictures that charm the reader, and introduce him to a field of study almost entirely new.

In regard to the Cheap Gold Pens, he begs leave to say that, previous to operating his New and Patented Machines, he could not have made as Good Writing and Durable Pens, for the price, had the Gold been furnished gratuitously.
Parties ordering must in all instances specify the "Number" and "Quality" of the Pens wanted, and be particular to describe the kind of Pens they prefer—whether stiff or limber, coarse or fine.
