AMERICAN AROMATIC BITTER CORDIAL,
—AND—
TONIC AROMATIC BITTERS.

A Cordial for Ladies, Aged Persons, etc.

Of these two varieties of Bitters, the first is to be taken mixed with any agreeable drink; the second may be taken pure, or both may be mingled together, forming a bitter of greater or less intensity, so as to please every taste. The aroma and delicious flavor these Bitters possess have induced the finest judges to pronounce them superior to any hitherto manufactured. They are particularly efficacious in restoring health, and reestablishing impaired digestion, that fruitful source of diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Nervous and Liver Affections, General Weakness, etc., all of which render life a burden. In any fever, followed by protracted convalescence, and consequent weakness, no remedy is better adapted to restore strength and hasten the complete return of health.

☞N. B. The American Bitters may likewise be taken pure. They do not contain much spirits. The strong flavor they possess arises from the aroma, the predominance of a bitter principle, both of which are, however, highly agreeable. Sold Bitters have been introduced into general use in the principal coffee-houses, hotels, clubs, etc.

SIX LOTS OF GROUND, together with all the buildings and improvements thereon, situate in Hickerville, city and parish of Jefferson, in this State, and designated by the Nos. 18, 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23, square No. 17, which is bounded by Fitzmont, Magazine, Locust and Live Oak streets, as per plan drawn by Benjamin Buisson and William Thornton Thompson, Surveyors, on the 24d of March, 1849, and deposited in the office of J. R. Beard, a Notary Public, for reference. Lots Nos. 18, 19 and 20 measure each thirty-one feet front on Magazine street, by one hundred and twenty feet in depth, and 31 feet in the rear, on the corner of Magazine and Locust streets, and measures thirty feet and two inches front on the former, by one hundred and twenty feet in depth front on the latter, and face Nos. 22 and 23 on an alley thirty feet front on Locust street, by one hundred and thirty nine feet and one inch in depth, all having parallel lines, American measure.

The improvements consist of a large frame house, occupying the whole front of the property on Magazine street, and having eight different tenements containing each two rooms, held in good materials, and with a small outlay might be made to bring a revenue of at least fifty dollars a month.

Also, a lot of Household Furniture, consisting of Bed and Bedding, Chairs, Tables, etc., as per inventory on file in the Clerk's Office.

☞TERMS OF SALE.—For the Real Estate, one-third cash and the balance in two and 12 months, for notes secured by mortgage on said property, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent, payable from date until maturity, and after maturity, in case of non-payment, to bear interest at the rate of 8 per cent, per annum until final payment. For the movables, Cash.

Act of Sale before Ernest Cammagere, Parish Recorder, at the expense of the purchaser. m27 1t
