Comparative Value of Fruits.

The season for ripening fruits is now rapidly drawing near; and judging from all accounts, it is destined to be unrivaled in productiveness. Every year, new varieties are advertised and sold, as surpassing everything before known. Now we have been, at trouble and expense testing these new things; and while we urge the production of seedlings, we at the same time have become a little cautious and skeptical as to the advertised value of everything new. As before remarked, the present promises to a be a season of great productiveness in the way of fruits, and during it why would it not be well for our Horticultural Societies to institute some method of interchange, and organize committees especially for careful examination and comparison of varieties, and then let them in their reports give us reason as well as rhyme for their decisions.

If those of our friends who have fruit, will send us samples, from time to time, with the name under which they grow them, we will be happy to receive them, and make our notes on them, which at the close of the season, we will arrange and publish. The close of the season we will terminate with the season for each variety; thus the strawberry season will close about middle of July; cherry, the first of August.

Liquid Manure for Celery.

Those who are about to grow celery, will find that manure, applied in the liquid form, will give more rapid growth to the plant, cause it to be more tender, and by the exclusion of particles of manure in the soil, prevent any liability to rust by such particles getting near the stalks when earthing up to blanch. We have practised it, and think we have found our profit in so doing. We set up the leach of manure much in the same manner as is usually done with wood ashes for lye in making soap, and make our first application in the bottom of the trench four to six days before setting our plants; afterwards, we apply once in seven to ten days or ten days or two weeks, according as the plants seem to need it.

Keep all Clean.

The sap vessels of trees as well as the pores of the human body, become clogged and the system unhealthy, unless cleanliness is mainted by frequent rubbing, washing, etc. Now is a good time to apply a wash of weak lye water to the bodies of all young or old fruit trees. Clear away all the grass around the roots, dig out the worms, and make all clean, so that the tree can grow now in the growing season. If you wait until June is past you have lost all the benefit, for the year; for by that time, most all trees have made their annual growth in length, and only ripen wood and fruits, during the remainder of the season.

Care of Budded Trees.

It is now time to cut back the stems of trees into which buds have been inserted in order to change the variety. The operator should place the knife on the opposite side from that in which the bud has been set, and about six inches above it; then, with a sloping cut upward, make a clean and smooth divisions, leaving this six inches of seeding, for the purpose of tying the young growth from the bud to, some three weeks hence. Rub off all natural buds upon the stocks, leaving the entire strength and flow of sap to nourish the artificially inserted germ.

Dividing Monthly Roses.

All the Bourbon, Noisette, China, and Tea Roses, are the better for being occasionally taken up, divided, and re-planted. The earlier this is done in spring, the better; but if many, even now, be done successfully. The operator should after digging the roots from the ground, separate by cutting with a sharp knife every piece or stem that has root attached; then cut the top all off, except just two buds, cut off all bunches or exercise upon the roots; smo th the ends, and replant in rich, fresh loamy soil, dug up at least twenty inches deep.

Time for Pruning Peach Trees.

Now, when the young leaves are just pushing out, is a good time to cut back, say one half the length of the rank shoots of last year's growth in the peach trees, cut away, also all weak, sickly shoots, give the tree a round, regular shape, by carefully cutting in the straggling branches. The result will be that peaches will be large, better flavored, and the tree not become broken down, as is the case when trees are left neglected in the matter of pruning, and allowed to mature all the fruit they set.

Tomatoes.

Tomatoes should be planted in good, strong land, well manured, and care should be taken that the plants are not stunted in growth. One of our most successful raisers of garden stuff plants his tomatoes from five to six feet apart each way, and obtains a large crop than when set closer. The vines have a better chance to grow, and they do not exhaust the ground so much as if set nearer each other. Large plants will produce finer specimes of fruit than the small ones.

Sweet Pitatoes.

Plant sweet potatoes immediately. The best soil is a dry sandy loam, that is not too rich. In very rich land, or such as has been recently manured, the plants produce an a undance of vines, but few potatoes. A great many people are in their method of cultivating this root. They should be kept clean, the land well drained, and the hills high enough. Gravelly soils are not favorable for this potato, but are better than stiff clay ones.

Cutter's Seeding Strawberrys.

This is another variety of the strawberry, recently brought into notice, by our Eastern fruit-men. It claims to have originated in the grounds of B. F. Cutter of Pelham, N. H., about ten years ago. It is described as hardy; very productive, and remaining longer in bearing than any other variety. The fruit is large, conical, with a neck, light scarlet and with flavor like the wild or native berry.

DR. A. G. WALLACE,
THE MEDICAL REVOLUTIONIST and HYGIENIC PHYSICIAN, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, (formerly of New York City,) will be at the American House, Circleville, May 18.
Tallmadge House, Lancaster, May 19.
New Lexington, Monday, May 21.
Dr. Wallace will visit the above places, professionally every month.

Dr. Wallace has spared no pains nor expense in making himself familiar with the theories of each and all the medical systems now practised; and the reason why he does not practice any of the systems now in common vogue, is, because he understands them, and knows them to be injurious in their effects.

Dr Wallace does not use Drug remedies of any kind, and yet he treats successfully all diseases with which mankind is afflicted. Dyspepsia, the opprobrium of the profession, and all diseases arising from indigestion, he has never failed to cure permanently, in from one to six months. He makes a speciality of these diseases and particularly solicits cases of this kind.

Dr. Wallace has left a few of his circulars at our post office for gratuitous distribution. Please call and get one for further particulars regarding his new system of practice.

BELLEFONTAINE, OHIO, April 2, 1860.

I had been afflicted with Liver Complaint, Kidney Affections, Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility for about three year; had failed to get any permanent relief by the use of several different Physicians treatment before I applied to Dr. Wallace. I have been using Dr. Wallace's new, or Hygienic method of curing diseases, the past five months, and my great gratification at the result, is truly beyond expression. I am now well! And for the benefit of invalids, as well as to give testimony to Dr. Wallace's efficient treatment, I desire to recommend him as a Physician of extraordinary skill and capacity; who can permanently cure all of the above named diseases, and many others which have come under my personal observation.—For further particulars regarding my case, and Dr. Wallace's singular success, address

HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold, but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a God-send to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

The reason why, is that by Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray, supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching, and heat from the scalp, quiets and tone up the nerves; and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling out, makes it soft, glossy, healthy and beautiful, and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fail or become grayy then reader, read the following and judge for yourselves.

NEW YORK, January 8, 1856.

Messrs. O. J. Wood & Co.:—Gentlemen: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray. I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudices which I, in common with a great many persons had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so satisfactory that I am very glad I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration. I write you this letter, which you may show to any such; and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am yours respectfully, HENRY JENKINS,
Corner of Columbia and Carroll streets, Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Alabama, February 14, 1858.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done as much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy. You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, &c.,

S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, September 9, 1857.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact bald. I have used but 2 half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well stubbed with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many other to try it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine Street.

The Restorative is put in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds a pint, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large bottle holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for three dollars.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chesnut Grove Whiskey, which proves to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whiskey is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it.

DR. MORSE'S
INDIAN ROOT PILLS.

DR. MORSE, the inventor of MORSE'S INDIAN ROOT PILLS, has spent the greater part of his life in travelling, having visited Europe, Asia and Africa, as well as North America—has spent these years among the Indians of our Western country—was in this way that the Indian Root Pills were first discovered. Dr. Morse was the first man to establish the fact that all diseases arise from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD—that our strength, health and life depended upon this vital fluid.

The reason why people are so distressed when sick, and why so many die, is because they do not give a medicine which will pass to the afflicted parts, and which will open the natural passages for the disease to be cast out hence, a large quantity of food and other matter is lodged, & the stomach & intestines are literally overflowing with the corrupted mass; thus undergoing disagreeable fermentation, constantly mixing with the blood, which throws the corrupted matter through every vein and artery, until it is taken from the body by disease. Dr. Morse's PILLS have added to themselves victory upon victory, by restoring millions of the sick to blooming health and happiness. Yes, thousands who have been racked or tormented with sickness, pain and anguish, and whose feeble frames have been scorched by the burning elements of raging fever, and who have been brought, as it were, within a step of the silent grave, now stand ready to testify that they would have been numbered with the dead, had it not been for this great and wonderful medicine, Morse's Indian Root Pills. After one or two doses had been taken, they were astonished, and absolutely surprised, in witnessing their charming effects. Not only do they give immediate ease and strength, and take away all sickness, pain and anguish, but they at once go to work at the foundation of the disease, which is the blood. Therefore, it will be shown, especially by those who use the Pills, that they will so cleanse and purify, that disease—that deadly enemy—will take its flight, and the flush of youth and beauty will again return, and the prospect of a long and happy life will cherish and brighten your days.

CAUTION:—Merchants and Traders will be on their guard and not be imposed upon by a Counterfeit of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, signed A. B. Moore. All genuine Pills will hereafter have the name and signature of B. LAKE JUDSON, (successor to A. J. White & Co.,) on each box.

All orders and letters relating to said Pills must be addressed to B. LAKE JUDSON, 50 Leonard Street, New York, sole proprietor of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, or WM. MUDGE & CO., Earlville, Madison county, New York.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Agents wanted in every town, village and hamlet in the land. Parties desiring the agency will address as above for terms. Price 25 cents per box, five boxes will be sent on receipt of $1, postage paid.

Sold by KAUFFMAN & CO., Lancaster; F. J. Moller, Somerset; E. Kalb, Rushville; Abbott and son, Clearport; B. Kieferber, Oakland; Druggists and Merchants generally through the country.

LINDSAY'S IMPROVED
☞ BLOOD SEARCHER ☜
A STANDRAD MEDICINE
For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY of the BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, Pimples in the Face, old stubborn ulcers, tetters affections of dyspepsia, jaundice, mercurial diseases, liver complaint, low spirits, cancerous formations, Erysipelas, Boils, sore eyes, scald head, Rheumatic disorders, costiveness, salt rheum, general debility, loss of appetite, foul stomach.

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their original in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreery, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley, that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford county, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of
