VICTOR HUGO'S GREAT NOVEL.
COMPLETE IN FIVE VOLUMES.
CARLETON'S EDITION.
LES MISERABLES—VALJEAN.

The FIFTH PART and last of HUGO'S Great Novel is now ready.
The parts are:
PART I.—FANTINE. PART II.—COSETTE.
PART III.—MARIUS. PART IV.—ST. DENIS.
PART V.—VALJEAN.

Such works as this appear but once in a century. "Les Miserables" is too humbly designated a novel by its author, for the novel is but a screen behind which the master sits proclaiming as with authority the grandest and most vital truths. The Parables of Christ have had in essence and purpose no more successful imitator. Victor Hugo is in the decline of life: he has been an author of mark for more than a quarter of a century: he is an exile and outlaw because he is a republican and will not abjure his faith; yet not a trace of bitterness, of narrowness, deforms these august volumes. Royalist, imperialist, aristocrat, conservative, may peruse them without aversion, for their author has risen through observation, reflection, experience, suffering, to that serene light whence is comprehended the good in evil, the truth in seeming falsehood, and the benignant uses which Omniscient Wisdom extracts from human frailty, hypocrisy, bigotry and crime.

THE BATTLE-CRY OF FREEDOM.
SONG AND CHORUS.
By Geo. F. Root.

We are springing to the call of our brothers gone before,
Shouting the battle-cry of Freedom;
And we'll fill the vacant ranks with a million freemen more,
Shouting the battle-cry of Freedom.

CHORUS—The Union forever! Hurrah, boys, hurrah!
Down with the traitors! Up with the Stars!
While we rally round the flag, boys—rally once, once again,
Shouting the battle-cry of Freedom.

Above is one stanza of a song that has created an unprecedented enthusiasm wherever heard. It should be on the lips of all true patriots at this time.
Price 25 cents. For sale at the Music Stores.

New Publications.

TO BOOK SELLERS AND BOOK-READERS.

THE PUBLISHER OF "LES MISERABLES" regrets being obliged to announce that he has just discovered that a Spurious Cloth Edition of the book has been produced by another party, by binding the thin-paper-cover edition in cloth covers, in imitation of Carleton's binding, and foisting it off upon the public as Carleton's cloth edition.

The paper for the genuine cloth edition costs 90 per cent more than the paper of the paper-cover edition, and the genuine book is nearly twice as thick and handsome as the spurious.
