The following communication was read and referred to the Committee on Streets and Landings:

SURVEYOR'S DEPARTMENT, CITY HALL, New Orleans, June 5, 1860.

To the Honorable the Common Council, Board of Assistant Aldermen:

Gentlemen—I have the honor to report that the following petitions for improvements to streets have been published as required by the new city charter, and that no opposition has been made to the same. I therefore respectfully recommend that the sale of the contracts for the performance of the work be ordered by the Honorable the Common Council as soon as practicable, to wit:

1. Of property-holders on the northwest side of Franklin street, from Calliope to Erato street, asking that brick sidewalks, bordered by curbstones and wooden gutters, be constructed on said street.

2. Of property-holders on Tonti street, from Bayou Road to Ursulines street, asking that said street be paved with round stones.

The petition of property-holders on Richard street, from Tchoupitoulas to Annunciation street, asking that said street be paved with square blocks, has also been published according to the city charter, but a majority having opposed the same, the improvement is lost.

It becomes my duty to report that the contract with Mr. John [illegible] for running the draining machine of the Third Section, [illegible], has expired on the 31st of May, ultimo, and that I have made an arrangement with said contractor to continue, at the contract price, until action be taken by the Honorable the Common Council.

I remain, respectfully, your obedient servant,

LOUIS H. PILIÉ, City Surveyor.

CHEROKEE REMEDY—

ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES, —VERSUS— NAUSEOUS DRUGS AND POISONOUS MINERALS.

We ask the afflicted of either sex, which do you prefer? A pleasant and delicious syrup, compounded from Nature's own Remedies—one which will speedily and permanently cure you; or the vile compounds heretofore used, with all their nauseous and debilitating effect, together with the loathsome disease many times following the use of Mineral Poisons.

The "Cherokee Remedy" is nature's own specific for Gonorrhea, Gleet, Gravel, Stricture, Fluor Albus, (Whites, in Females) and all diseases of the Urinary Organs; curing these diseases by natural laws, after all other preparations have failed; and is one of Heaven's best mercies to offending man: instances could be produced of its effects, which would stagger credulity. The nauseous preparations heretofore used have failed, but this has never in one instance been known to fail. Happily for mankind, the governor of the world is a Father who afflicts, not to kill, but to cure.

In mercy he has appointed Medicines for those dreadful diseases, which when taken, quickly flies to all parts of the system, attacks the disease at every post, and with a fidelity and courage truly admirable, never gives it rest until it has completely expelled it from the body, and restores the unfortunate patient to former health and vigor.

This "Remedy" strikes at the very root of the disease; its tendency is not simply to suspend the poison, but to remove the cause on which it depends.

And what enhances its value is the entire absence of all nauseous taste or smell. It can lay in the counting room, or on the toilet table, without ever being suspected as a "Remedy" for secret diseases.

A treatise on Venereal disease, with full directions for their permanent cure accompany each bottle.

Sold by J. WRIGHT & CO., Nos. 21 and 151 Chartres street, New Orleans, and by all respectable Druggists and dealers in medicines.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR THE CONTRACTS for the construction of all new bridges, and the repairs and keeping in repair of all the bridges of the city.

CONTRACTS.

First Contract—All the bridges of the First District.
Second Contract—All the bridges of the Second District.
Third Contract—All the bridges of the Third District.
Fourth Contract—All the bridges of the Fourth District.

REPAIRS.—All the bridges now in existence in the several districts of the city shall be delivered to the contractors in whatever condition they may be on the day of the signing of the contracts, and it shall be the duty of said contractors to have the said bridges put in good order and condition, within thirty days after; to always keep the same in good repair and condition during the continuance of their contracts, and at the expiration of the said contracts to return the same to the city in perfect good order and condition, and to the entire satisfaction of the Street Commissioner and of the Chairmen of the Committee on Streets and Landings of the Common Council.

Whenever any part or the whole of the bridges at the intersections of streets and over the draining canals of the city, now in existence or which may hereafter be built, shall be so rotten and decayed as to require to be built anew, the contractors shall be bound to build the same anew without extra compensation and in the manner here below explained for the construction of new bridges.

In many of the bridges now in existence, as there are no iron bars, and as the tops are not properly fastened, and as in many others where iron bars exist said bars are so decayed as to render them too weak, the contractors shall be bound whenever a new top or part of a top shall be wanted, in the first instance, to take out the all wooden bars, and substitute in their stead iron bars of the same dimensions and in the same manner as hereafter explained for the construction of new bridges; in the second instance, to take out all iron bars so decayed as to render them too weak, and substitute in their stead iron bars of the same dimensions and in the same manner as hereafter explained for the construction of new bridges; and in both instances, to secure and fasten all top planks of said bridges in the same manner as hereafter explained for the building of new bridges, so that they may not be carried away by overflows from heavy rains.

The contractors shall also be bound to keep in good repair and condition all the bridges with iron tops, making anew the sides and bottoms when decayed, placing and fastening in a workmanlike manner all cast-iron bridge plates which may be displaced by any cause whatever, and furnishing and placing new plates wherever the ones now in existence may be worn out or broken.

Whenever it shall be necessary to alter the position of a bridge, or widen the same, the necessary ditch and work shall be done by the contractors, the additional width shall be paid for at the same rates as new bridges, and the contractors shall fill up at the sides so as to restore the grade of the street, and shall repair the paving whenever disturbed by them.

The contractors shall also keep in repair all the wooden crossings across the streets, and the plank crossings over the gutters, now existing, or which may hereafter be constructed at the intersections of all the streets.

At the expirations of their contracts, the contractors shall be bound to return to the city all the bridges, and crossings and crossing steps, in perfect good order and condition; otherwise the Street Commissioner shall retain the last certificate and the reserved per centage hereinafter provided for, until the same be repaired, and if not repaired within thirty days, the last certificate and the said per centage shall be forfeited for the use of the city.

NEW BRIDGES.—All new bridges shall be constructed in accordance with the directions of the Street Commissioner, and the lines and levels and of the widths to be given by the City Surveyor, and in the following manner, to wit:

All the lumber of the sides, wings, bottoms, and cross-pieces to support the sides and bottoms, shall be of either cypress or yellow pine of the best quality, free from sap, splits, bad knots, and other defects calculated to impair its strength and durability; and the lumber for the tops shall be of yellow pine of the best quality, free from sap, splits, bad knots, and other defects calculated to impair its strength and durability. The iron bars shall be of the best wrought iron, four inches wide by one inch thick. The lumber for the sides shall be five inches thick, and of suitable lengths and depths to suit the widths of the streets and the depths of the gutters. The bottom planks shall be one and a half inch thick, and of suitable lengths and widths to suit the length and width of the bridges. The top planks shall be four inches thick and not less than twelve inches wide.

The wings shall be 5 inches thick, 25 feet long, 8 inches wide at one end and 24 inches at the other; and all the sides, as well as the top planks, shall be of the lengths of the bridges, except in cases where the bridges shall be more than 30 feet long—in such cases they shall be in two lengths. The cross pieces shall be 3 inches thick by 12 inches wide, shall be laid flat on the solid ground, shall extend at least 1 foot on the outside of the sides, and shall be placed at distances of 5 feet from centers, and closer if required. The sides shall rest on the cross pieces, and shall be strongly planed, at distances of 5 feet, with oak pins of 2 inches in diameter, driven through suitable auger holes in the sides, and entering at least 3 feet into the ground. The wings shall be planed in the same manner, and shall be well fastened with the sides in the usual way and in the best workmanlike manner. The iron bars shall rest on the sides, at distances of 5 feet from centers, and shall be sunk the depth of their whole thickness into the sides. The top planks shall rest on the iron bars, and shall be fastened to the sides with 7½ inch pressed spikes and to the bars with iron cramps, the whole in the best workmanlike manner. The two center top planks shall be left loose, in order to allow the trunk of the bridges to be cleaned, but said two planks shall be fastened at the end with the two side planks by means of eye-bolts driven into the planks, and by 1 inch iron bolts passing through said eye-bolts. The said bolts shall be fastened to one of the side planks with a piece of chain of suitable length. The whole as per plan of the City Surveyor. The bottom planks shall be well nailed to the cross pieces with 4 inch cut nails. All trenches required in the construction of the bridges shall be dug by the contractors, without extra compensation, and all filling required between and on the sides of the bridges, including the whole extent of the wings, to elevate the streets to the hight of said bridges and wings, shall also be done by the contractors without extra compensation.

By "New Bridges" it must be understood all bridges to be made where there is now none in existence, as all other bridges now existing are included in the section relative to repairs, and are to be paid by the year.

CROSSINGS.—The crossings and crossing-steps shall be of yellow pine of the best quality, and shall measure twenty-four inches wide by four inches thick and of such lengths as to correspond with the width of the streets between curbstones. They shall be firmly bedded and well secured with oak pins of two inches in diameter, driven at least two feet into the ground, and shall be laid according to the levels and directions to be given by the City Surveyor, and in such places as the Street Commissioner may require.

GENERAL CLAUSES.—All the materials shall be of the best quality, and shall be furnished by the contractors as well as the labor.

The contractors shall comply immediately with all verbal or written orders from the Street Commissioner and his deputies, or from the Chairmen of the Committees on Streets and Landings, relative to the work to be done by them, under a penalty of ten dollars for each neglect, and a further penalty of the amount of doing the work so neglected by the contractors, in which cases the Street Commissioner shall be bound to do or cause to be done at whatever cost he may be able to obtain the necessary materials and labor.

The amount of the fine, the wages of the workmen and the cost of the materials shall be deducted out of any of the monthly payments to be made to said contractors.

The contractors shall be bound to call at the Street Commissioner's office once on each and every day at 12 o'clock M., to receive orders relative to the work to be done by them, and all orders written in the order book in said office shall be considered equivalent to written orders served upon the contractors in person, at the dates thereof.

The contractors shall be responsible for all damages that may be obtained against the city by parties who shall have sustained any loss through the neglect of the contractors.

All old lumber taken off the bridges when new lumber is substituted by the contractors, shall belong to and be removed and hauled away by them.

Each of the contractors shall furnish good and solvent security in the sum of five thousand dollars to guarantee the faithful performance of the contracts.

The contracts shall be adjudicated, each, for a term of one year, to begin from the date of the signing of the contracts before the City Notary.

The whole work shall be performed to the entire satisfaction of the Street Commissioner, jointly with the Chairmen of the Committees on Streets and Landings.

Payments shall be made monthly on the certificates of the Street Commissioner, and said Street Commissioner, in obedience to city ordinance No. 2333, to issue no certificates to the contractors until the same be submitted for the approval of the Committees on Streets and Landings, and the City Treasurer to retain in guarantee, until the expiration of the contracts, ten per cent. of the amount of each and every monthly certificate.

It is well understood that in case of failure by the contractors to begin or finish the work or any part thereof within the period fixed, or in case the Council be dissatisfied with the manner in which the work is being executed, the Council shall have the right to annul the contract without putting the contractors in default, as required by article 1905 of the Civil Code, and without applying to a court of justice to annul the same and without indemnity; and it is also well understood that in case the contractors shall at any time abandon the work or not finish and complete the same in conformity with their contracts, the said contractors shall forfeit all claims they may have for any part of the work done by them up to the date of the abandonment, and that the city shall be thereby discharged from any and all liability therefor; and it is also well understood that in case the contracts be resold, the contractors and their securities shall be held and bound, in solido, to pay unto the city all loss or difference between the prices at which the contractors originally contracted to perform the work and the prices at which they may be adjudicated at a resale or readjudication.

Bids to be so much per annum for repairing and keeping all the bridges and crossings; so much per foot, board measure, for new bridges complete, as well as new crossings complete.

CONTRACTS.

First contract—The sidewalks on both sides of First street, from Water to Apollo streets, to be ten feet in width.

Second contract—The sidewalks around Macarty square to be ten feet in width.

CURBSTONES.—Hewed and dressed curbstones shall line the sidewalks, of North river blue stones, or other stones of equally good quality with them, beveled-dressed on the top to answer the slope of the sides from three to six feet long, from twenty to thirty inches wide, and four inches thick. They shall be well set in good joints and in a workmanlike manner, and shall end with apertures sleeve cut through the same, where required for draining lots. They shall be duly interspersed in lengths of from three to six feet throughout the work, according to the directions and levels which will be given by the Surveyor; and each curbstone shall have a slope of three inches for every foot of its hight towards the line of the adjoining houses; shall also be solidly fixed and backed in the most approved manner, to prevent crevice wash and sinking of bricks, usually experienced from negligence in this respect; and no curbstones less than four inches, or shorter than three feet, and having in no case less than six inches below the upper surface of the adjoining gutter, shall be admitted in the work.

WOODEN GUTTERS.—The gutters shall be made of the best saw-mill cypress, twelve inches wide by four inches thick, in lengths of not less than twenty feet, (except in cases where shorter lengths are necessary) halved and scarfed ten inches at the joinings, pinned there, and at every intermediate space of five feet, with oak pins not less than four feet long by two inches in diameter, driven through suitable auger holes in the gutter plank, pierced slanting. The edge of the planks nearest the curbstone shall be beveled to suit, and on the other or outside edge it is to have notches of eight inches long by two inches deep, cut out at every eight feet thereof, and in these cypress braces of not less than four feet long by eight inches wide and two inches thick, pointed at the end which enters the ground, will be firmly driven down and spiked with said gutter, with at least three of five inch cut spikes to each brace; and over this there will be a verge or facia of cypress sunk, of ten inches wide by two and a half inches thick, well nailed to the gutter plank aforesaid with six inch cut spikes. The gutter bottoming shall be of dry river sand, four inches thick and solidly bedded before the pins are driven. The top edge of the facing board shall project one and a half inch above the surface of the gutter plank, and the latter shall be laid with a slope of one inch towards the curbstones. Wooden boxed gutters for draining lots shall be built by the contractor. They shall be four inches wide by eight inches deep, and shall be made of one and a half inch cypress plank for the sides and bottom, with two by four inches cross-pieces on the top, to keep the sides from being displaced, and said gutters shall run through the whole width of the sidewalk.

BRICK PAVEMENT.—The walk pavement shall be laid with lake bricks of the best quality, in herring-bone on a bed of lake sand or other sand of equally good quality with it, or on gas ashes, generally called "blue billy." The joints between the bricks shall be well filled with sharp sand, and a coating of ½ half an inch thick spread over the whole surface of the bricking. Prior to laying the bricks, the earth or ground shall be cut up, broken and well rammed, and made level and graded smoothly, with a declivity or slope toward the centre of one-half an inch per foot. The ground where too low shall be filled up by the contractor at his own expense, and well rammed until completely solid. There shall be a bedding of one-half of an inch of sharp sand or "blue billy" under the bricks, and said bricks shall be properly bedded therein in herring-bone regularly laid in close joints without any rugged or hollow places, so that the pavement will bear a straight edge, otherwise it shall be rejected.

GENERAL CLAUSES.—The whole work shall be executed to the entire satisfaction of the City Surveyor, who will be the sole judge of the quality of the work.

All the materials shall be of the best quality, and shall be furnished by the contractors, as well as the labor.

The contractors shall be bound to begin the work in the ten days following the approval of the adjudication by the Common Council, and to complete the same as follows, to-wit: the contractor for the first contract in the six months, and the contractor for the second contract in the four months following the approval of the adjudications, under a penalty, each, of ten dollars per day for each and every day thereafter the same is not completed.

Good and solvent security in the sum of $3000 shall be required from the contractor for the first contract; in the sum of $1000 from the contractor of the second contract.

Payments to be made on the completion of the work on each and every three or more squares, and acceptance of the same by the City Surveyor, as follows, to-wit: the proportion to be paid by the city in cash, and the proportion to be paid by the property-holders in bills against said property-holders, to be made by the City Surveyor in conformity with section 119 of the new City Charter; said bills to be collected by the contractors, who shall be subrogated to all the rights of the city to sue and seize the property in case of non-payment of any or all of said bills, and the city of New Orleans not to be held liable or responsible for any of said bills should the same not be paid.

The contractors shall pay into the City Treasury, prior to receiving their certificates and bills the cost of publication of the petitions of the property-holders; it being well understood that said contractors shall have the right of demanding of said petitioners the reimbursement of said cost of publication.

It is well understood that in case of failure by the contractors to begin or finish the work or any part thereof within the period fixed, or in case the Council be dissatisfied with the manner in which the work is being executed, the Council shall have the right to annul the contract without putting the contractors in default, as required by article 1905 of the Civil Code, and without applying to a court of justice to annul the same and without indemnity; and it is also well understood that in case the contractors shall at any time abandon the work or not finish and complete the same in conformity with their contracts the said contractors shall forfeit all claims they may have for any part of the work done by them up to the date of the abandonment, and that the city shall be thereby discharged from any and all liability therefor; and it is also well understood that in case the contracts be resold, the contractors and their securities shall be held and bound, in solido, to pay unto the city all loss or difference between the price on which the contractors originally contracted to perform the work and the price at which it may be adjudicated at a resale or readjudication.

Bids to be per running foot of sidewalks complete, including the turning of the corners.

New Orleans, May 19, 1860.

[Signed] LOUIS H. PILIÉ, City Surveyor.

VIRGINIA CANNEL COAL, AT GREATLY REDUCED PRICES!

We have just received, direct from the mines, and now discharging, 50,000 barrels of the above superior Coal, and for want of storage room, we will deliver, direct from the levee, ten or fifteen thousand barrels at the low rate of seventy-five cents per barrel.

This Coal is from the celebrated Peyton Mines, in the mountains of Western Virginia, and for all domestic uses combined is unequaled. For the parlor it equals the best English Cannel, and is more economical, as it has more weight and greater durability; and for the kitchen, for cooking purposes, it is superior to any known coal in this country. In burning it leaves a coal as from hard wood, and answers all its purposes, and at the present price now offered, is at least 20 per cent. cheaper than wood. To families wishing to lay in their year's supply, at about one-half the price it will probably sell for in winter, this offers a rare opportunity.
