ALFRED NOYES TELLS OF IRISH TROUBLE

Says Americans Have Wrong Impression of Rebellion In Ireland.

IS A FAMOUS POET

Writer Makes Personal Investigation—Uses Roger Casement's Diary.

Believing the American people have a wrong impression of the Irish rebellion and the British government's attitude thereto Mr. Noyes after a personal investigation and a perusal of Sir Roger Casement's personal diary, offers this message to all Americans. Mr. Noyes holds the chair of English Literature at Prince and has spoken in more than 300 American cities as a poet and publicist.—London Bureau, United Press.

By ALFRED NOYES,

(Written for the United Press)
(Copyright, 1916, by United Press)
(Copyrighted in Great Britain.)

Certain features of the Irish rebellion have been overlooked by many friends of the Allies' cause in the United States.

In this particular matter—whatever the blunders of England may have been in the past—it is possible that her moderate estimate of her own case in the Irish rebellion may eventually redound to her credit as did her first moderate estimate of the Jutland Battle.

Neither Ireland nor Irish-Americans desire to make martyrs of men who, by the sudden publication of certain records—quite unconnected with politics—may make every Irishman ashamed of the day on which he helped to canonize them.

The cry "God Help Ireland" will take on a new significance if Irishmen begin to think that any political injustice done to them in the past allows them—for instance— to murder their own countrymen indiscriminately. And these rbels, beyond the shadow of a doubt, did murder, ruthlessly, deliberately and indiscriminately, men, women and children, their own kindred, without even the slightest attempt to discover whether their victims were in political agreement with them or not.

New Method to Tyranny.

This new method, devised by Irishmen of the very lowest and vicious personal character, was a criminal tyranny of a kind that has been unknown anywhere in civilized Europe, even in Germany, probably even in Turkey, for over two hundred years.

Even the Germans do not exercise their "frightfulness" indiscriminately against their own people. They do not shoot Herr Dernberg in cold blood because they see him posting a letter in Berlin. Nor do they massacre their own wounded soldiers for riding on top of a 'bus. Nor do they shoot their own women and children for the mere fact that they happened to be alive. Nor do they fire on ambulances, carrying their own wounded; and every one of these things the Irish rebels were convicted of doing ,overan d over again.

I ask these persons in America who accuse England of "ruthlessness," what steps she should have taken, under the existing machinery of law, to deal with certain cold blooded murders that had no relation of any kind either to politics or to nationality? "God Help Ireland" indeed if her friends can look through a mist of romance at the spectacle of Irish criminals deliberately firing on the women who were attending the wounded.

Romance and beauty and sorrow have clothed Ireland like a garment in the past; but there is not a ribbon, not even a red one, to be added by those men who, fully armed, approached the unarmed Irish constable at the castle gate and shot him, without warning, through the heart.

Shot 18-Year-Old Girl.

It was a daughter of Ireland—only eighteen years of age—that another felon shot, in the name of Irish Freedom, outside the Dublin Post Office, for no crime but that she was young and helpless. If this be a subject for the harp of Erin, the sooner that every string be broken and every echo of it dead, the better.

When the rebellion began, it took the unpredecented form of an attack by armed men in the streets of Dublin upon the crowds of absolutely unarmed people. None of the soldiers, none of the police were armed. The Sinn Feiners deliberately fired on wounded and crippled men, home from the front.

A poor carter was shot dead in St. Stephens Green because he did not at once hand over his master's to a Sinn Feiner. Does any true Irishman glorify this?

At Castle Bellingham, a young man motoring through the town was made to stand against the roadside with an unarmed policeman. The Sinn Feiners, without even the court martial neutrals have characterized as "ruthless" when held by England, shot the policeman dead and the young man through the lungs.

Killed and Wounded 400.

We might of course, have sent those who killed and wounded 400 of our soldiers a handsome invitation to the funerals, with an emerald ribbon attached.

One Irish soldier in a London hospital on hearing of it, cried, "By God, it's the Irish themselves are shooting men and women now for the wearing of the green."

And the chief leader of these rebels—I cannot print his own written confessions about himself, for they are filthy beyond all description. But I have seen and read them; and they touch the lowest depths that degredation ever touched. Page after page of his diary would be an insult to a pig's trough to let the foul record touch it. The Irish will canonize these things to their own peril

Let not Ireland be "too late" in recognizing the burning fidelity to their true cause in what Mr. Redmond has told them of the nature of this foul blow—not at England—but at Belgium, at France, and at Freedom herself; for it was delivered in collusion with the most sinister enemies of all that Ireland professes to believe in.

SOUTH AMERICA IS THE REAL QUESTION

At Least That's What Margaret Mason, Writer of Fashions Says.

By United Press.

ABOARD S. S. VERDI, BOUND FOR BAHIA, RIO DE JANEIRO AND BUENOS AIRES (by mail) Aug. 1.—With the closer union of North and South America, our getting together with our South American cousins, we in Oshkosh, Seattle, Miama, Buffalo, and Topeka are much concerned.

The cracker barrel oracle at the corner grocery has settled the Mexican question and the European horror, but is all fussed up over the interesting possibility of Brazilian and Argentinians and Chileans getting right pally with New Yorkers and Hoosiers and Kentuckians. The dames in the Ventura Club are all agog about "Ress on South of Panama" and at 42nd and Broadway a discussion of the drama in Rio and Buenos Aires has "When I was with Southern and Marlowe" pushed clear into the last trench. No wonder that my natural woman's curiosity is awakened,(not that it ever snoozes) and that I have decided to see for myself or, in more expressive parlando, to give our South American cousin the once over before we get all chummed up.

Consequently I told the passport man my right name, the color of my hair in the original, the number of my chins and the date of my birth—but why go further. Take it from me, you need a four season repertoire of clothes, a bathing suit, a mackintosh and a bottle of Mothersils if you contemplate a trip down this way. Food for thought and also for the fishes is the ncessity for Motherils.

Heavy Garment Needed.

Heavy garments are essential because June, July and August are the winter months in Buenos Aires, and brides and roses bloom contrariwise in December. Thin clothes are needed because Rio has a tropical climate, snuggling as it does just within the torrid zone. A mackintosh comes in handy because as you sail near the equator, where often the coldest weather of the trip is encountered, the showers, as frequent as any of our April best. As for the bathing suit, it is indispensable, first of all because of the advent on board of Neptune and his daughter Aphrodite. They appear as the equator is crossed and initiate into the mysteries of Neptune's court all those innocents who never have crossed the line before. They cross the line but they do not draw the line; and no mere sex will gain you exemption from the rites. Neptune's vigilant police are no respectors of fine apparel and though you duck and run in all the granduer of your festive togs, they trail you to your stateroom's lair and lead you to be ducked again 'Tis a neat and simple service:

First You Say "Howdy."

You first say "howdy" to Neptune and Aphrodite. Aye, then comes the rub. You are smeared with lather of flour and water and shaved by Neptune's own barber and then promptly ducked in the canvas swimming pool set up on the lower deck. After being duly ducked you are handed an elaborately engraved certificate signed by Neptune Rex ,the skipper and divers lesser official lights, which entitles you to cross the Equator unmolested for the rest of your days. I for one emerged strong for preparedness and convinced that a bathing suit in time saves nine tenths the wear of a salt water dip on a perfectly good dinner gown. Your bathing suit comes in handy yet again to be donned when masticating mangoes, which are purchased in great abundance and juiciness at Bahia, Brazil, the first port of call. When eating this tropical fruit you are bound to be covered both with embarrasment and mango.

Dora E. Burnett ---------- Plaintiff, against (24600)

Theodore Hudson, Mont Hudson, John Hudson, James Hudson, Hiram Hudson, Maude Sampson, Gertrude Little, John Duane, Emma Browning, Clara Holt, Louis Duane, Henry Duane, Albert Duane, Sherman Duane, Arthur Duane, Pearl Duane, Table Duane, Janie Duane, Ed Duane, S. F. Conley, Administrator of the estate of James D. Duane, deceased, and the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, immediate, mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of Tom Duane and of Robert Duane, deceased ---------- Defendants,

THE STATE OF MISSOURI, to the above named unknown parties, and to defendants Emma Browning, Clara Holt, Table Duane, Janie Duane, Henry Duane, and Ed Duane, GREETING:—

Now on this the 14th day of August, 1916, in vacation before the October Term, 1916, of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, comes the plaintiff, by her attorneys, and files her petition in suit herein, duly verified by the affidavit of M. R. Conley, agent and attorney for the plaintiff, and in said petition states, among other things, that the defendants Emma Browning, Clara Holt, Table Duane, Janie Duane, Henry Duane and Ed Duane are non-residents of the State of Missouri and that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon them in this state. And plaintiff further states in said petition that one James D. Duane died in Boone County, Missouri, on April 18th, 1916, intestate, possessed of the real estate hereinafter described, and that he left surviving him a number of heirs whose names are set out in said petition. And plaintiff states that there are and that she verily believes there are other persons interested in the subject matter of the petition, whose names she cannot insert in said petition for the reason that they are wholly unknown to her; that the interests of such persons herein and the manner in which such interests are derived and in what proportions in so far as plaintiff's knowledge extends is as follows: that such unknown persons would derive their interest from the above named Tom Duane and Robert Duane, brothers of said James D. Duane and who have long since died intestate leaving such unknown defendants and the defendants Louis, Henry, Albert, Arthur and Pearl Duane, children of Tom Duane, and the defendants Table, Janie and Ed Duane, children of Robert Duane, as their only heirs at law, but in what proportions said unknown defendants would be interested in the subject matter of the petition is wholly unknown to plaintiff but that whatever interests they have would be derived to them by reason of their being children or descendants of the above named Tom Duane and Robert Duane and would be derived to them by inheritance from said James D. Duane, brother of said Tom and Robert Duane.

It is therefore ordered by the clerk of said court, in vacation, that the said defendants be notified by publication that the plaintiff, by petition herein filed, of date August 14th, 1916, has commenced against them, and the other defendants herein, in the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, an action in equity, for the specific performance of a certain contract which plaintiff alleges was entered into between the plaintiff and said James D. Duane, in the year 1905, whereby in consideration of plaintiff looking after said James D. Duane and performing such services as he required when he was sick and performing such other services as he required when he was well and looking after his burial when he died, he, the said James D. Duane undertook and agreed by his last will and testament to devise and bequeath to plaintiff all of the property of which he died seized, and particularly a house and lot in the city of Ashland, Boone County, Missouri, described as Lot Number One (1) in Block Number Eleven (11) of the town of Ashland, and by which said action plaintiff seeks to have the court decree that after the payment of all of the just debts and funeral expenses of said deceased that the balance of his estate aforesaid be adjudged to belong to the plaintiff and that said defendants have no interest therein.

It is further ordered that said defendants be and appear in this court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be holden at the court house in the city of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on Monday, October 2nd, 1916, to answer or plead to said petition, or in default therein said petition will be taken as confessed, and judgment by default will be rendered against them, in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's petition.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published at least once a week for four weeks successively, in the University Missourian, a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in Boone County, Missouri; the last insertion of said order of publication in said newspaper to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next term of said court.

David C. Kling, deceased ---- Defendants.

THE STATE OF MISSOURI, to the above named defendants, GREETING:—

Now on this the 27th day of July, 1916, in vacation before the October Term, 1916, of the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, come the plaintiffs herein, by their attorney, and file their petition in suit herein, duly verified by the affidavit of C. B. Sebastian, agent and attorney for the plaintiffs, and in said petition state that they verily believe that there are persons who are interested in the subject matter of this suit whose names plaintiff cannot insert in said petition for the reason that they are wholly unknown to them, and whom they cannot further describe than as being the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, alienees or immediate, mesne or remote voluntary or involuntary grantees of Angus L. Langham, deceased, and of Elias Langham, deceased, and of John F. Darby, deceased, and of Mary M. Darby deceased, and of America Symmes, deceased, and of the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, alienees or immediate, mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees or successors of John K. Tiffany, deceased, surviving trustee of the estate of John F. Darby, bankrupt, and also of the unknown heirs, consorts, devisees, alienees, or immediate, mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of David C. Kling, deceased; that said unknown parties derive or claim to derive their title or claims as heirs, devisees, consorts, alenees or immediate, mesne or remote, voluntary or involuntary grantees of said deceased persons, respectively; that the interests of the defendants herein, so far as plaintiffs are able to ascertain and know, are derived from and made apparent by the following facts and defects in the record title to the real estate hereinafter described, to-wit:—

That the title to the real estate hereinafter described emanated from the United States Government by patent on August 21, 1821, to one Angus L. Langham, but that said Angus L. Langham does not appear from the records to have ever conveyed said land, but it does appear that Elias Langham by deed dated May 15, 1854, and recorded in Book W Page 555 conveyed said land to John F. Darby, and it further appears that John F. Darby and Mary F. Darby, his wife, by deed dated October 29, 1858, and recorded in Book 28 at page 453, conveyed said land to America Symmes, but it does not appear of record that she ever conveyed said land to anyone. It further appears that John F. Darby was on the 12th day of July, 1869, adjudged bankrupt and that afterwards John K. Tiffany and Andrew Park were chosen Trustees; that afterwards the said Park died and that John K. Tiffany as surviving trustee sold said lands to Henry T. Mudd and conveyed the same to him by deed dated May 24, 1881, and that the same was recorded in the Recorders Office of Boone County, Missouri, in Book 71 at Page 81, on the 30th day of August, 1888. That afterwards on the 12th day of March, 1887, the said Henry T. Mudd and Catherine E. Mudd, his wife, by their deed of that date conveyed an undivided one fourth interest in said land to David C. Kling; that said deed was recorded in the Recorders Office of Boone County, Missouri, on August 30th, 1888, in Book 71, page 85, but that it does not appear from said records that said David C. Kling ever conveyed his interest in said land.

It is therefore ordered by the clerk of said court, in vacation, that the defendants be notified by publication that the plaintiffs, by petition herein filed of date July 27th, 1916, have commenced against them in the Circuit Court of Boone County, Missouri, an action for the purpose of trying, determining, settling, defining and quieting the title to the following described real estate, lying, being and situate in Boone County, Missouri, to-wit: All that part of the east half of the northwest quarter of section five (5) township forty eight (48) range eleven (11) lying south of the St. Charles road containing 82 acres more or less, except that part of the east half of the northwest quarter of section five (5) township forty eight (48) range eleven (11) described as follows, beginning at the half mile corner on the north side of said section five (5) thence south with the north and south sub-division line of said section ninety (90) links to a point of beginning, thence south with said line 12.07 chains to a stone from which an elm four inches in diameter stands S. 39 1-2 feet thence south 89 degrees 25 minutes W. 18.65 chains to a stone thence North 6.03 chains to a stone thence N. 86 1-2 degrees East 1.94 chains thence North 80 1-2 degrees east 8.94 chains, thence North 89 degrees 25 minutes E. 11.45 chains to the beginning, containing 20 acres. Being 65 acres more or less, covered by the petition in this case, and by which said action plaintiffs seek to forever bar and preclude the said defendants, and each of them, from setting up or claiming any interest in and to said real estate adversely to the plaintiffs.

It is further ordered that said defendants be and appear in this court, on the first day of the next term thereof to be holden at the court house in the City of Columbia, Boone County, Missouri, on Monday, October 2nd, 1916, to answer or plead to said petition, or in default therein said petition will be taken as confessed, and judgment by default will be rendered against them, in accordance with the prayer of plaintiffs' petition.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be duly published at least once a week for four weeks successively in the University Missourian, a daily newspaper printed, published and circulated in said Boone County, and designated by plaintiffs' attorney as most likely to give notice to said defendants, the last insertion of said order of publication in said newspaper to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next term of said court.
