The Only Preparation

—That has—

STOOD THE TEST OF YEARS,

And grows more and more Popular every day!

And testimonials now, and almost without number, might be given from ladies and gentlemen in all grades of society, whose united testimony none could refute, that Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will restore the bald and gray, and preserve the hair of the youth to old age, in all its youthful beauty.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Dec. 21, 1859.

Prof. Wood: Three years ago last spring I noticed that the hair on my head, all fell off over twenty years ago, caused by a complicated chronic disease, attended with an eruption on the head. A constant course of suffering through life having reduced me to a state of dependence, I have not been able to obtain a staff for cane, rather than I been able to do them up, in consequence of which my head has suffered excessively from cold. This induced me to pay Briggs & Hodges almost the last cent I had on earth for a two dollar bottle of the Hair Restorative, about the first of last August. I have faithfully followed the directions, and the bald spot is now covered with hair thick and black, though short; it is also coming in all over my head. Feeling confident that another bottle would restore it entirely and permanently, I feel anxious to persevere in its use, and being destitute of means to procure it, my mind would ask that if the wonderful not be willing to send me an order on the agents for a bottle, and receive in thankful compensation—the prayer of the widow and the fatherless.

SUSANNAH KIRBY.

Try it!

LEXINGTON, Noble county, Ind., Feb. 8, 1859.

Prof. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—In the latter part of the year 1857, while attending the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was almost entirely bereft of its covering, and from a thick, flowing head of hair, the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return home in the State of Indiana, my most casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances were to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, not resolving to resort to wigs, when that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until, fortunately, in the latter part of the year 1857, your Restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time, I have used seven dollars worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy.

As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have unceasingly recommended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances, who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect.

Very respectfully, yours,

A. M. LATTA,

Attorney and Counselor-at-Law.

CRESCENT CITY YACHT CLUB.

CHALLENGE PRIZE RACE.

The annual sailing match for the Challenge Prize of the Crescent City Yacht Club took place yesterday at the lake end of the new shell road. There was a fresh breeze from the East, accompanied with some rain, but not enough to interfere with the race.

The following were the entries:

The Adeona, entered by Commodore J. O. Nixon, measuring 22 feet.

The Fanny, entered by Vice-Commodore Dan Peters, measuring 21 feet 10½ inches.

The T. Bailey was on hand, prepared to run for the prize, but her owner stated that on measuring his yacht he found her four inches over the measurement recognized by the club, consequently she could not run for the challenge prize; but as she was ready to start, some gentlemen thought it a pity that she should not have an opportunity to show her mettle, and proposed that she should start with the two contestants, promising that if she came in first she should have a prize equal in value to the challenge prize.

JUDGES.—J. M. Vandergrift, J. B. Prague, and Thomas E. Adams.

The first gun was fired at a quarter before one o'clock, when the yachts took their positions, the Adeona first, the Fanny second, and the T. Bailey third.

The Bailey capsized at starting, but the yawl of the Grey Cloud went to the assistance of her crew, together with a boat sent out by the club. One of the crew, Mr. J. Kelley, swam from the capsized boat to the Bath House on the upper side of the canal, a distance of about six hundred yards, with the incumbrance of all his clothes except his coat.

At ten minutes past 1, the Fanny and Adeona got off in fine style, with a stiff breeze, the latter taking the lead, with the veteran yachtsman, C. Bralsted, at the helm. The first stake was passed at 1:30, the Adeona ahead, but the Fanny close in her wake. The second stake was rounded at 2 o'clock precisely, and the home stake at 2:12, the Fanny coming in the canal and thus giving up the race.

The Adeona now had it all to herself, but a squall coming up she was compelled to anchor. Riding out the gale, she took a fresh start, and came home in gallant style, Capt. Bralsted jumping overboard and swimming ashore in the canal to receive the congratulations of the club and the spectators.

During the latter part of the race it rained "considerable if not more," and only those who were in the club house at the end of the pier could fully appreciate the beauty of the thing. The race over, all assembled at the Lake House, where the prize was duly presented, and, as a matter of course, some champagne and some speeches were successfully got off. The result of the day's sport is found in the following.

SUMMARY:

Lake End of the New Shell Road, Oct. 1.—Annual sailing match for the Crescent City Yacht Club Challenge Prize. Course, triangular, 1½ miles, in angles of 2½ miles, twice round.

J. O. Nixon's Adeona, Capt. C. Bralsted	1
Dan. Peter's Fanny, Capt. Peters	dis.

INDIAN BATTLE—Omaha City, Sept. 25.—It is rumored here that the Pawnee and Sioux Indians have had another fight near the Pawnee Reserve. Thirteen Sioux and one Pawnee are reported killed. Agent Gillis has gone out to quell the disturbance.

WRIGHT OF MASSACHUSETTS MEN AND WOMEN. There have been weighed at the Mechanics' Fair in Boston, in seven days, 9837 persons—5468 were females, whose average weights were 116 pounds 14 ounces; 4369 were men, whose average weights were 146 pounds 13 ounces.

DIRECT TRADE WITH EUROPE.—The Memphis Enquirer learns that very flattering tidings have been received from Mr. Barbiere, who is now traveling in Germany, in reference to the opening of direct trade with Memphis. His mission has received much favor at the hands of Belgium manufacturers, all of whom are anxious to engage in the enterprise. Already a ship has been chartered and is loading for Savannah, from which point she will go to Memphis. It is stated, among other things, that excellent brick of Belgian manufacture can be landed at Memphis at $8 per thousand.

According to an exchange the craftiest old "rat" in Syria is Dass Agha, of Jerud. He is a border chieftain, whose duty it is to protect some province. But the recent plunder of Damascus was too strong a temptation for Dass to resist. He was too cunning to enter the city himself, and so lay in wait with his men outside the walls and plundered the plunderers. He "lifted" the loot which the "fellahin" were carrying off to their villages. Shortly after Fuad Pacha's arrival at Damascus, Dass Agha was imprisoned, and the probabilities were in favor of his being hung.

CUPID'S LOVE AFFAIR.—The Fall River Press relates an odd affaire du cœur which lately occurred in that city. Two young ladies fell equally and deeply in love with a gentleman who visited them very frequently. Being mutually acquainted with each other's passion, and being withal strong friends, they romantically resolved to draw lots to decide which should have him. The fortunate one lost no time in making known to him the result of the drawing, and he then informed her that he was already engaged to a third lady.

THE FIG CROP IN PORTUGAL.—An official document published by the Portuguese Government, shows that the annual production of figs in the province of Algarve averages 11,238 tons, of which 2430 are consumed in the country, chiefly in making brandy, and the rest exported. The price varies from 10fr. 30c. to 27fr. 10c. in French money, the 100 kilogs. (about two cwt.) The exportation is principally made to France, Holland and Belgium.

A submarine cable has been successfully laid between Marseilles, Corsica and Algiers, so that the Emperor during his present visit can communicate directly with Paris. The cost of the cable and the laying down is 1,000,000f.

The London correspondent of the Scottish Guardian says:

To show how London example and influence act, I may mention that there is now a ragged school to be established at Cairo, in Egypt, for Moslem children.

A ladies' Garibaldi Fund has recently been started in England, with the Countess of Shaftesbury as directress. A similar association is in course of formation in this country, under the auspices of some of the most distinguished ladies of America. We hope that the efforts of the association will be crowned with success. The ladies of America should not remain behind their sisters of England in their appreciation of the heroism, the statesmanship, the tender humanity and the genius of the illustrious deliverer of Italy.

A New York policeman, a few evenings since, discovered a well-dressed woman promenading the streets and sporting quite an extended train, of which she seemed entirely unaware. The officer apprised the lady of her misfortune, and assisted her in the adjustment of her dress. When this delicate operation had been completed, it was found that the train consisted of an entire piece of silk, valued at $90, which had been stolen from a dry goods store but a few minutes before.

An unsuccessful attempt was made, on the 15th ult., to fire Buffalo bridge, on the Brunswick and Florida railroad. President Wheeler offers $500 reward for the detection of the incendiary.

Local Intelligence.

RAIN came along yesterday in very liberal quantities; in fact, it fell in perfect cataracts, both afternoon and night. It was much needed, for the dust had absolutely become terrible.

MORTUARY.—There were no reports made last week to the Board of Health from the Odd Fellows' Rest, Charity Hospital, Greenwood and Cypress Grove Cemeteries. In the other cemeteries, the interments numbered 109.

ST. CHARLES STREET.—The opening of the Academy of Music last night gave St. Charles street its first regular flash of life and gaiety. The opening of Sam's, across the street, was another event which added to the general excitement. The street is beginning to be itself again.

EVERETT RANGERS.—This club (of the Third Ward) had a large and enthusiastic meeting last night at the Carrollton Railroad depot. Able addresses were made by Messrs. S. J. N. Smith and T. G. Noel, and Col. White of Jefferson City. Among the resolutions adopted was one making it the duty of every member to canvass the square on which he resides, to see that no Bell and Everett voter misses registering himself before the November election. This is right. It is a first-rate idea.

UNION GUARD, SECOND DISTRICT.—This body meets this evening at the Orleans Ball Room, to transact general business and to receive a banner from the ladies. There will certainly be a great crowd present.

THE CRICKET MATCH.—The return match of the Crescent City and Pelican Clubs is to come off to-morrow at the Delachaise ground; the game beginning at 11 o'clock. We are indebted to the officers of the Crescent City Club for an invitation to be present.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Hunt.—This Court opened yesterday, for the preliminary business of the season.

F. L. Newland was sworn in as Deputy Sheriff, and a draft of one hundred additional jurors was ordered.

District Attorney Bradford filed thirty-six informations for assault and battery, twenty-eight for larceny, six for carrying concealed weapons, one for stabbing with intent to murder, one for shooting with intent to murder, and one for shooting with intent to kill.

The Court adjourned to Friday.

THE CASINO AFFAIR.—We are requested by a friend to state that the lawyer whom we yesterday reported as having been cuffed by an officer of Recorder Blache's Court, was not cuffed but struck with the fist, and that he defended himself with his fist; further, that the said lawyer made no affidavit against the officer. This conflicts very flatly with what we conceived to be reliable information, and we publish it as a matter of accommodation to the friend who makes the request. We forbear further remark on the subject, as we learn that the two gentlemen intend settling the matter to-day, outside of town, with colcheminardes or small-swords.

MORE OF IT RECOVERED.—Five boxes more of the goods stolen by Grand from Mouton & Co.'s store, were yesterday found by Officer Berhachanx, in a coffeehouse kept by one Auguste, at the corner of Bourbon and Toulouse streets.

LOOK OUT, DARKIES!—The 9 o'clock bells, to a little Irish, rang last night at 8 o'clock.

ACCIDENT.—A young man residing in Maine street, between Marais and Villeré streets, who is subject to fits, was standing near a well in his yard yesterday morning, when he was taken by a sudden attack and fell headlong into the well, which is deep and wide, and has a very low guard around it. A woman in the yard saw the accident, and her dreadful cries soon brought a crowd of people running in. The young man, after sinking, came up right side up, thanks to the width of the well—and a black woman caught his hand, just as he came up to the surface, and with the assistance of others pulled him out.

INSANE ATTEMPT AT DROWNING.—Mathilde Francoise, f. w. c., attempted to drown herself on Sunday evening in the gutter at the corner of St. Louis and Robertson streets. She was laboring under temporary insanity. A policeman rescued her and took her to the lock-up.

ATTEMPT TO KILL.—Rafael Purgaron was arrested on Sunday night in the Third District, by citizen F. G. N. Bernard and Lieut. Mazerat, for assaulting and attempting to kill an unknown man. Stephen Jacquet was arrested as an accessory. Purgaron was held to bail in the sum of $1000.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—Recorder Blache yesterday examined and sent to the First District Court the following parties:

Henry Landrum, for stealing a vest pattern worth $2 from Adolphe Schubert, at No. 56 St. Philip street.

John Joyce and James Scott, for stealing a sack of potatoes from Boulanger's store on the levee.

Serafin Gostron, for stealing a lot of jewelry from Mrs. Foucher, f. w. c., he having pawned some of the jewelry and offered the rest for sale.

A LARGE ISLAND RISING FROM THE SEA.—The captain of the Chilian brig Tubal Cain, arrived in Africa, has made an affidavit that, during his voyage from the port of Valparaiso to Africa, in latitude 31 49 S., longitude 73 25 W., he found himself alongside an island extending N. and S. about 25 teen miles, and from two hundred to two hundred and fifty feet high; that the island appeared to have been recently thrown up, and was of a whitish appearance. He furthermore stated that the water all about was very much discolored. They sighted the island early in the morning, and were in sight of it until night.

Charles Dickens has written a positive endorsement of Worcester's Unabridged Dictionary. He bestows upon it the most unqualified praise, and his testimony will have great effect in England towards upholding it the standard authority.

GREAT DESTRUCTION OF LITERARY TREASURES.—On the 27th of August, at Gotha, the Castle of Friedenstein was discovered to be in flames, and about 4 o'clock had to be battered down with cannon. The castle contained a church, with a vaulted burial place for royal persons, a theater, halls of session for the holding of councils, a museum, with a library of 200,000 volumes, a cabinet of coins, a collection of pictures and prints, a cabinet of art, a collection of objects in natural history, a Chinese collection, and another of casts from antique statues.

NEGRO "WIDE-AWAKES."—A negro "Wide-Awake" club was formed in Boston on Wednesday last. The Bee (Rep.) says it "will doubtless do efficient service for the Republicans during the campaign."

AN EMPRESS AT THE LOOM.—During the visit of Louis Napoleon and the Empress at Lyons, they visited the weaving establishment. The Empress, when near one of the looms, was invited to take the shuttle and throw it a few times. Her Majesty complied, and the implement thrown by the Imperial hand passed rapidly to and fro between the warp. The staff was then unrolled, and the Empress then read on the staff, "Vive par sa Majesté l'Impératrice, à Lyon, le 25 Aout, 1860." After having read the above phrase Her Majesty is said to have exclaimed, in the words of Moliere, "Il pourait que je fais de la prose sans le savoir." After the departure of their Majesties from the room the young workwoman who showed Her Majesty what to do, being asked whether she had not been intimidated by the Imperial presence, naively replied, "Oh no, not much; the Empress is so affable, and then she threw the shuttle so well! It is a pity she is Empress; she would make a first-rate silk weaver."

The Mobile Register notices the fact that the thermometer stood at 50° on Saturday last, in that city.

ANOTHER SPEECH FROM COUNT PERSIGNY.—Upon the occasion of the laying of the corner-stone of a new church at Roanne, Count Persigny delivered a speech in which he announced that Louis Napoleon is devoted to the Catholic Church. He further remarked, that after the Romagnas had been lost to the Holy See, the Emperor stipulated for an immense advantage for the Pope, for in exchange for the sacrifices which his Holiness was to make in giving up the Romagnas, the Emperor offered him a guarantee for his remaining possessions by all Europe, or, at least, on the part of all the Catholic powers. Had this offer been accepted, Italy would at this hour have been at peace, and the Court of Rome freed from all dangers. Count P. reminded his audience that it was the Emperor who restored the Pope to Rome, and who to this hour keeps him there by the sword of France, and added that the devotedness of the Emperor for the church is so great, that it can afford to despise that immense injustice which lately alarmed Catholicism and astonished the world.

An organ has been constructed at Vienna for the Sultan, which is the great wonder of the day. It cost fourteen thousand florins, and is a complete orchestra of fifty musicians, equal to the same in power and expression.

Printers in California.

The San Francisco correspondent of the New York Times writes of the compositors in a newspaper office in his city:

In a little office where they employ but fourteen men, I paused the other day, while the foreman, himself an ex-publisher of a fine family of ladies, pointed out his famous MOR.

That stout man was a lieutenant in Stevenson's regiment. He was a printer of a paper in this town before the gold discovery was made, and used to go fishing with Gen. Vallejo.

That one owns a fine ranche on the Sacramento river, on which there is this year a noble crop of squatters. He was formerly partner on one of our papers here, for which Broderick offered $30,000. He is fabulously old, but he made twenty-six hours' work and wages not long since, in twenty-four consecutive hours.

There is one who was partner in the State printing which for setting Spanish copy the Legislature allowed double price; and never discovered that the State printers, with a generous construction, took double wages for Spanish press-work also.

The next man is the worthy brother of a member of Congress from close by New York city, who has made a good deal of noise during the last four years. He was formerly engaged in publishing a daily that still lives here.

The next is a doctor, and was a partner on the Chronicle when it was worth $75,000.

The next is a judge from one of our Western States. He has a shingle up and does some law, but likes type-setting better, and suits his fancy with either, as either business presses most and pays best.

And so they go. I expect you to reach this conclusion: that with such men to set type, and forty-two papers to be supported, and no news to put in them, ours must be a reading people, from long and irrepressible habit.

A STRAW AS IS A STRAW.—On the 27th a gentleman of Louisiana traveling on the Tennessee and Virginia railroad took the political sense of the crowd of his fellow-passengers, the following telling vote being the result:

Douglas	29
Breckinridge	28

All the bad failures are not in this country. A shoe manufacturer of London failed a few weeks ago, when his liabilities were found to be a quarter of a million dollars, and his assets eleven thousand dollars.

The Prussian Government has relieved Jewish students in the University of Konigsberg from taking the oath upon the Holy Scriptures, which has hitherto prevented them from obtaining their diplomas.

An exchange paper intimates that the new name Mr. Douglas has lately taken to himself—the "Little Sucker"—accounts for his urgent desire to see his mother.

Soulouque, the ex-Emperor of Hayti, lives in in the city of Kingston, Jamaica, in a style of mean and wretched poverty, and spends most of his time in gambling with a few low Haytien renegades.

A small brass cannon has been found at the bottom of a deep well of the Castle de Cluey, in France, with the date of 1258 upon it. The date of the invention of cannon has historically been assigned to the year 1324—66 years later.

Several thousand Polish Jews have recently passed through Posen on their way to the United States via Berlin and Hamburg. The German papers say that such an exodus of the children of Israel has not been witnessed since that out of Egypt.

The banks of South Carolina have a circulation of over $3,000,000, with an aggregate capital of $14,982,000.

The loss by abrasion of gold coin is estimated at about one-twentieth of one per cent. per annum, so that of every $1000 coined, over $950 of real value would still remain at the end of one hundred years.

So in two thousand years there would be none left at such rate of loss.

The population of London increases at the rate of 1000 a week, one-half by birth and one half by immigration.

The crop of hops in many parts of England, owing to ungenial weather, is a total failure.

The sum of $8244 have been contributed by the Catholic churches of New York for the relief of the Pope.

COURT-HOUSE BURNED.—The Court-House in Lake City, Fla., was entirely consumed by fire on the 21st ult. All the books, papers and records in the building were lost. It was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

George W. Lively was killed at Grantville, Ga., on the 20th ult., in attempting to get on the cars while they were in motion. He was a resident of Columbus in the same State.

EXTENSION OF THE SOUTHERN RAILROAD TO NEWTON.—The Vicksburg Whig of the 29th ult. announces that the Southern Railroad will be regularly opened to-day for transportation of passengers and freight between Vicksburg and Newton. This finishes the road to within 30 miles of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, and that gap is expected to be closed by the 15th of November next. Trains now leave Vicksburg at 8 o'clock in the morning, and arrive at 10:45.

Gov. Moore of Alabama, has appointed Colonel N. W. Cooke, of Montgomery, to fill the vacancy of the office of Chancellor of the Southern Division of that State, caused by the resignation of Chancellor Saffold.

Some meddlesome person has shocked the illustrious aristocrats of Gotham, by reminding them that if the only costume which gentlemen will be allowed to wear at the ball given to the Prince be black coats and pants, white vests, cravats and gloves, how will it be possible to distinguish them from the waiters, as that is always their costume at codfish balls in New York. Good Gwashus!!

The Atlanta Locomotive learns that at the last term of the Superior court of Taliaferro county, a man was fined two hundred dollars and sentenced to thirty days' imprisonment for selling one drink of liquor to a negro.

A SISTER OF THE GOLDEN BRIDE MARRIED.—The New York papers notice the marriage, during last week, in Jersey City, of a sister of the Miss Bartlet, whose golden wedding was so rich a theme for the Jenkinses last year. This last wedding was allowed to pass off without any attempt at display. Perhaps experience had learned the father of the brides some common sense, or—what is more likely—there was no Count in the case this time.

THE POPULATION OF PHILADELPHIA.—The population of Philadelphia is shown by the census returns to be 580,077, being an increase of 173,678, since 1850, when it was 408,000. Truly a great and growing city.

The Union Guard is the name of a new Bell and Everett journal at St. Louis. Sol Smith, Esq., the eccentric ex-comedian, is one of the editors.

Two hundred and fifty Bell and Everett clubs have been formed in Massachusetts, and additions are being every week made to the number.

The population of Indiana will be but little short of a million and a half, as shown by the census of 1860.

Why is the best article of malt liquor like the last song in a concert programme? Because it is the pale ale.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY IN TENNESSEE.—A correspondent of the Nashville Banner, writing from Fosterville, Rutherford county, Tennessee, under date of September 23d, gives the particulars of one of the most horrible murders committed in that neighborhood that has ever occurred in any civilized land. The letter says:

Mr. Merritt Stovall, residing two miles from this depot and twelve miles from Murfreesboro, returned home from work at one of the neighbors, and during the night murdered his family, (except one son) consisting of his wife and four children, and then cut his own throat and jumped into a sink containing water and finished himself by drowning. He murdered his family by knocking some of their heads open, and afterward cutting their throats with a razor. It is thought that all that saved the life of the remaining boy was his being absent at the time. The cause for this horrible deed is thought to be insanity. He seemed to think his family were going to starve, although he was quite able to support them. He had been heard to express himself to the amount that he would rather see them dead than suffer. He had an interesting family, and seemed to love them. He was a man of excellent reputation, and nothing could make those well acquainted with him believe him guilty of a deed so horrible but the evidence of their own eyes.

THE WAY THE QUEEN TRAVELS INCOG.—On Tuesday forenoon, says the Inverness (Scotland) Courier, a gentleman drove to the door of the comfortable inn or hotel known as the Grant's Arms, in the center of the open square which constitutes the village of Grantown, the capital of Strathspey. He obtained audience of the landlady, Mrs. Glass, and said he wished to engage the whole house that night for a newly-married couple and their suite. The worthy hostess demurred, as she might thus exclude some of her best customers; but the applicant was very civil as well as urgent, and gave assurance that the party was "highly respectable." There was no difference as to terms, and Mrs. Glass was told that she would be glad afterwards to know that she had stretched a point to accommodate the party. In these circumstances an arrangement was come to, and the occupants of the house at the time were politely requested to board out for the night. The principals arrived in the evening—apparently quiet people, satisfied with everything and everybody about them. In a newly-married couple such equanimity might have been expected, but this part of the affair was evidently a hoax, and had only the effect of raising conjectures as to who the party might be; but on this point all the attendants were dumb. Next morning at 10 o'clock the carriages were at the door, and the strangers took their seats. All being ready to start, Mrs. Glass was called for, and Lord Churchill complimented her on the cleanliness and order of her establishment. The strangers, he said, had been very comfortable, and the lady said she had never slept more soundly in her life. "I may now tell you," said his lordship, as the principal carriage drove away, "that you have been entertaining her most gracious Majesty the Queen and the Prince Consort. They do not wish to be known, however, until about 10 minutes after they have left." The royal party then drove toward Castle Grant, the residence of the Earl of Seafield, who, however, is at present at Balmacaan, in Glen-Urquhart.

GARIBALDI'S WIFE.—A letter from Marseilles, of the 27th inst., says:

The wife of General Garibaldi has been in this city for the last two days. She appears to have given up the idea of embarking in the Pausilippe steam packet, which leaves this evening for Civita Vecchia and Naples, and probably will wait for some Garibaldian vessel, which frequently arrive here. The departure of the wife of the Dictator leads to the supposition that a reconciliation had been brought about between them. It
