Super Figs are this season!—A gentleman of this city, well known for his amateur devotion to horticulture and arboriculture, yesterday presented us with an abundant specimen of ripe figs fresh plucked from his trees. What the variety is called we do not know, but it is a black fig of large size and very delicious flavor. The condition and growth of the fruit, and of the fresh, green verdure of the tree, were uninjured by the late severe and frosty weather. This hardy variety of the fig ought to be generally cultivated.

Gorgeous.—Major J. M. C. Brady, who was put down as one of the Vice-presidents at the Douglas mass meeting at Claiborne market, requests us to say that he is an old line Whig, and intends to vote for Bell and Everett.

☞List of Letters to-morrow.☜

Have Yourself Registered.—The office of the Registrar will be closed three days before the election. Those, therefore, who have not registered had better do so at once, and thus avoid the crowd of the last few days before the election. The Registrar's office is in the basement of the City Hall.

The Constitution Club.—We are authoritatively informed that the Constitution Club have changed their place of meeting, and that their hall will hereafter be at the corner of St. Louis street and Exchange Alley.

Sweet Knights.—The weekly meeting of the Everett Knights' club will take place at their room, 82 Camp street, at 7 o'clock this evening, as per official notice published.

First Ward Bell Ringers.—A meeting of the First Ward Bell Ringers at Eagle Hall, is called for to-morrow evening, at 7½ o'clock. Important business will come up.

Meeting of the Constitution Club.—A special meeting of the Constitution Club, to be held at their hall, corner of St. Louis and Exchange alley, is called for 7 o'clock this evening.

The Live Hippopotamus.—To Dr. Spalding's enterprise the Orleanians are to be indebted for the first peep at the first genuine African river-horse ever brought to America. This hippopotamus was caught in Egypt two years ago, was purchased for $20,000 by Col. Quick, and engaged for a Southern tour by Dr. Spalding immediately on its arrival in New York. The creature was shipped on the De Soto for this city on the 22d, and his Egyptian hippopotamuship will be on exhibition at the Museum next week, if a safe voyage from New York is achieved.

Pontchartrain R. R. Winter Arrangement. See corrected schedule of the winter arrangement for operating the Pontchartrain Railroad, published by Mr. G. Pandelly, Superintendent.

The St. Charles.—The Original Campbell Minstrels offer a choicely-selected bill to-night, comprising gems of song, characteristic delineation and burlesque.

The Academy of Music.—See advertisement of the Rainey & Newcombs, who will be on hand to-night with their admirable cerne-dispelling doings, in the way of the most mellifluous music and the most comical divertisements.

New Grocery Store.—At 108 Camp street, Henry Forwood & Gribble have established a new grocery store which, from its location and the complete and extensive style in which it is stocked, must take a position in the front rank of the finely appointed establishments of the city. We do not believe in say that they have now in store as choice a selection of the best descriptions of grocery merchandise for the family demand as was ever offered in this city or any other. The goods are selected with all the judgment and discretion suggested by long experience and intimate knowledge of the demands of the trade, and they are all perfectly fresh and nice. A series of these are catalogued in a lengthy advertisement to be found in our columns, and our readers who are in need of family supplies should inspect the assortment of Messrs. Forwood & Gribble. They will find it quite of the up-plus order of thing. Please refer to forwood advertisement.

A Magnificent Stock of Clothing is now on hand and for sale at the spacious and elegantly arranged Southern clothing establishment of Messrs. L. W. Lyons & Co., Nos. 26, 28 and 30 St. Charles street. There is no mistake about this enterprising one of the "Sons" among the mercantile concerns of the city, for the stock is as extensive as the store is, and varied by every phase of assortment in size and quality of goods and material. They are now ready for their fall and winter wholesale and retail trade, and are prepared to offer satisfactory inducements to both dealers in and wearers of clothing. We ask the attention of the city and country trade to advertisements of Messrs. L. W. Lyons & Co.

M. Jouvin & Co. Kid Gloves.—A simon pure, genuine, unimpeached, unexpected, but not unlimited, though an essentially limitable article, are offered for sale by Mr. S. N. Moody, the proprietor of the great furnishing goods and shirt emporium, corner of Canal and Royal streets, with the facts of which every body in the United States is familiar. But our business is not with Mr. Moody's item but with his gloves, of the genuine make of M. Jouvin & Co., of which he has an immense stock for the wear of both ladies and gentlemen. Those wishing kids should examine the admirable goods of Mr. Moody, as whose advertisement we refer.

The Phœnix Saloon and Restaurant.—It is needless that we should refer to the fast and enterprise which are displayed in the management of the well-known Phœnix saloon and restaurant of David Bidwell. Everybody in the city knows all about his matter, and knows that the establishment is one of the chief central points of business in its line. A free lunch is served in the saloon department every day, and everything good to eat can be had at any time in the victualling department.

Ten Dollars Reward.—Lost, on Wednesday, a gold neck chain, to which was attached a very small locket with the initials of a gentleman. The finder, by returning it to this office, will receive the above reward.

The Real Estate Season Commencing.—Messrs. C. E. Gissey & Co. will sell this day at 12 o'clock, at the City Hotel, the following property:

For the succession of the late John Leslie, Sr., those four (four) story brick buildings forming the northeast corner of Canal and Camp streets, occupied by Messrs. Judson & Co. and others; without exception, a finer business or more valuable location does not exist on that popular boulevard, Canal.

We are requested to state, in behalf of the auctioneers, that the property will be sold just as ordered from his Honor, the Mayor, which will be read at sale. See advertisement.

Bargains in Ribbons.—The ladies will please refer to advertisement of Messrs. F. & L. Piffet, 133 Canal street, who are offering extraordinary bargains in ribbons.

Situations Wanted.—An able-bodied man and his wife, speaking the French, German and English languages, desire such situations as will enable them to be together. See advertisement.

The attention of the trade is called to the catalogue sale, this morning, by Hermann Tarpley, of an extensive stock of wines, liquors, oil, pipe, corks, brooms, etc., which will take place this day at half-o'clock, at the store of Messrs. E. D. Grosjean & Co., No. 98 (late 96) Customhouse street. The items are very liberal.

Brevoir of Havana cigars will find it to their interest to attend the auction sale this day at 11 o'clock, at the store of the importer, Jas. M. Lafarelle, No. 11 Gravier street, corner of Tchoupitoulas street.

A GLANCE AT THE PAST.

THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED.

A correspondent of a capital little campaign paper in St. Mary's parish, called "The Union Bell," sends that paper an article under the caption "What I Remember." These incidents in the recent political history of the times ought to be remembered by everybody. But, in these latter days, people do not "remember" a great many things that they ought. We can always form more satisfactory conclusions in regard to our duty in the present by referring to the recorded history of the past. These "remembrances," then, may be of some service in determining, or confirming, or perhaps reversing some political opinions, and for this reason we give them publication:

What I Remember.—Messrs. Editors Union Bell: I remember that when Millard Fillmore became President of the United States the North and south were very bitter against each other.

I remember that Mr. Fillmore settled some very difficult sectional questions to the satisfaction of both the Northern and the Southern people.

I remember that the Baltimore National Democratic Convention of 1852 passed this resolution—"That the Democratic party will resist all attempts at renewing, in Congress or out of it, the agitation of the slavery question, under whatever shape or color the attempt may be made."

I remember that two years after this, in 1854, the Democratic party introduced into Congress the "Kansas Nebraska bill;" and that this movement was at that time considered by the opposition to that party, North and South, as renewing the slavery agitation, in its worst form, not only in Congress, but out of it.

I remember that when that bill was introduced into Congress, the Democratic party was strong in the North and in the South, united and national.

I remember that in the Northern elections in 1854 and 1855, nearly every candidate for the Legislature, for Governor, or for Congress, who favored the Kansas Nebraska bill, was defeated on that question alone, and that Republicanism, from and after the passage of that bill, became strong and menacing.

I remember that Southern Democrats stood up to, and voted for that bill to a man; and Southern Whigs warned them that it would ruin the South.

I remember that the Democratic party South promised that the Kansas Nebraska bill should settle the slavery question forever, and completely crush Northern fanaticism.

I remember that the Cincinnati Platform in 1856, and until 1858, was claimed at the South as a Southern triumph; that Southern delegates at Cincinnati agreed to give the North their candidate, and the Northern delegates in return agreed to give the South their favorite platform.

I remember that the Southern Whigs and Know-Nothings called the Cincinnati Platform "two-faced," but the Southern Democrats stoutly denied the charge.

I remember that Republicanism had become so formidable in 1856 that Southern Democrats made stirring appeals to Southern Whigs to help them elect Old Buck—that he was the "only national candidate"—the only one that the South could rely upon, and that if we would aid in the election of the nominee of the Cincinnati Convention the Democratic party would crush out sectionalism and Republicanism forever, and give us a lasting national peace.

I remember that up to the year 1858 Mr. Douglas was esteemed by his own party, North and South, one of the best national Democrats in the Union, and particularly true to the South.

I remember that the Administration Democrats began to find fault with the Cincinnati Platform and quarrel with Mr. Douglas at about the same time.

I conclude from the above that Mr. Buchanan and his party have utterly failed to verify their promises to quiet the slavery question—to give peace to the country—to cement and make stronger the Union.

That he and his friends
Broke up the Missouri Compromise—
Broke up the Whig party—
Broke up the Know-Nothing party—
Broke up the Democratic party, and now bids fair to Break up the Union, and in the end to Break down the "peculiar institution" and the South.

They are a breaking down party—they never build up. The old Whigs were peace-makers, and they built up the interests of the land. The Union party are the same in these respects.

RECORD.

Later from Mexico.

CAPTURE OF GUADALAJARA BY THE LIBERALS.

The steamship Tennessee, Capt. Forbes, from Vera Cruz, the 21st, arrived yesterday morning. [See our marine columns.]

By this arrival we have files of Vera Cruz papers to Sunday last, 21st, and they contain news of interest and importance. At the time the vessel sailed an apparently well-authenticated report prevailed that the important city of Guadalajara had been taken by the Liberal forces under Gen. Ortega, after a siege in which the inhabitants suffered terribly from famine and other causes. We find no particulars of the siege, the loss of life or the conditions under which the city capitulated. The line of circumvallation was completed as early as the 2d instant, and a letter of that date from Ortega stated it would be rapidly advanced in order to hasten the assault.

Gen. Ortega, it appears, was commissioned in place of Degollado, who was dismissed from his command for the seizure of the conducta.

There appears to be no reasonable doubt that Guadalajara is now in the hands of the Liberals, and it is a most important step towards the final overthrow of the Church party.

From other parts of Mexico we have nothing of interest, except that Marquez had marched out of the capital with a column of 4000 men, and encamped somewhere on the road to Queretaro.

Sailing of the Cahawba.—The steamship Cahawba, Capt. Smith, sails at 8 o'clock this morning for New York via Havana, with the following passengers:

For New York—Mrs. Capt. Stetson and son, Mrs. Watts, and Mrs. Chapman.

For Havana—Benj. B. Davis, R. Delavallis, D. Collello, J. Gray, H. Henderson, A. Sturgeon, Mrs. Gomez and son, and George Nudian.

Garibaldi Painted by a Young Lady.—A young lady, writing as enthusiastically as young ladies generally do, portrays Garibaldi as "a dear old weather-beaten angel." We doubt if angels care much about the weather, considering they are always living in the open air, and are not generally represented as having much clothing about them, though, on the other hand, it is agreeable to picture Garibaldi as an angel—an avenging angel for the long endured wrongs of Italy—an angel of deliverance of the long-suffering martyrs of Naples. However, granting (and to a young lady we are always ready to grant everything) that Garibaldi is "a weather-beaten angel," it is a comfort to know that as yet he has never been beaten by anything else.

Snow on the White Mountains.—The Boston Transcript says that the White Mountains are covered with snow, and in the clear sunlight of these fine October days present a beautiful appearance. When seen at this season, robed in their white winter dress, we realize the fitness of the name by which they were known to the early English voyagers, as they are indeed "Crystal Hills."

Heavy Rifle Contract.—We see it stated that Sharp's rifle company, of Hartford, Conn., has entered into a contract with a foreign government to furnish $200,000 worth of arms, with a proviso that the order may be extended to a million of dollars, on giving the company ninety days' notice before the completion of the first lot. The same government has also contracted with the company for several thousand dollars' worth of the latest and best gunmaking machines.

We are requested to call particular attention to the large catalogue sale of furniture, belonging to the Orleans Club, to be sold this day at 10 o'clock, by Julian Neville, auctioneer, at No. 17 St. Charles street. Parties desirous of procuring fine household furniture, elegant mirrors and carpets, bar-room furniture, billiard tables, and a fine library, would do well to attend this sale, as every article will positively be sold without any reserve.

Credit Sale.—The particular attention of buyers is called to the large credit sale of boots, shoes and brogans, carpetings, etc., to take place this day at 10 o'clock, at the salerooms of E. Roger & Co., Nos. 45 and 47 Old Levee street. Terms, over $200, nine y days credit.

Messrs. Gardner Smith & Co., will sell this day at 12 o'clock, at the St. Charles Hotel Exchange, several very superior and likely slaves, comprising field hands, house servants, cooks, washers, ironers, etc. Full particulars at sale.

☞At a called meeting of the Union Voters of the Fourth Ward, Second District, held last evening, Hon. Thos. E. Adams was unanimously nominated as their candidate for the Legislature, to fill the unexpired term of Hon. A. Blanke, resigned. W. J. MAYNARD, President.

☞Read and Believe—New York, April 12, 1858.—W. B. Hagan, Esq.—Dear Sir: About five months since I bought two bottles of your Hair Coloring, and am now down one of the last one, and would inquire where it may be found here. My hair, when quite young, turned grey. I have used a number of articles for the purpose of restoring it, but did not succeed until I obtained this, which produced the desired effect. I have been requested by a number of my friends (among them several ladies) to procure it if possible. I am much pleased with it, for it has made a great improvement in my personal appearance. By answering this you will much oblige
Yours, very respectfully,

☞Experience teaches us that delicacy prevents many females from applying for the means to alleviate suffering and save life. ☞Warranted Purely Vegetable—Five Millions (5,000,000) of Boxes of BRANDRETH'S PILLS are sold yearly. The sale steadily increases, and yet thousands die from colds and fevers, which these pills could certainly cure. Brandreth's Pills are simple, but unmatched for efficacy. How important that we at once secure an advantage over sickness when it can be had at an outlay of only 25 cents.

Mr. J. C. Rappelye, of Monmouth county, N. J., writes, March 19, 1859:

"I was troubled in January last with costiveness for several days, and took ten grains of calomel to obtain relief. I caught cold, I suppose; at any rate a severe diarrhœa set in, which my medical attendant found it impossible to arrest. This was followed by dysentery. My strength was all gone. Everything passed through me as I took it. A friend from New York, Mr. George Lewis, fortunately called on me, and advised Brandreth's Pills. I thought in my weak condition one pill would be enough, but he administered four, and the next morning four more. Much impurity came from me, and, to my surprise, the soreness and pain diminished. One box cured me fully. I am now hearty, with a good appetite.

These celebrated Pills are sold at 25 cents per box, with full directions, at 294 Canal street, New York, Dr. Brandreth's Office, and by J. WRIGHT & CO., Nos. 21 and 151 Chartres street, and by all respectable dealers in medicine.
