AN INTENSELY INTERESTING BOOK.—

AMONG THE PINES;
OR,
DOWN SOUTH IN SECESSION TIME.

BY EDMUND KIRKE.

One of the most graphic and truth-telling volumes which has ever been written of the South and Southern Society.

AMONG THE PINES.

One handsome duodecimo volume, over 300 pages, cloth bound, price $1; or Paper Covers, price 75 cents.

The North American Review, in a twelve-page review of this wonderful work, says: "The book is not a novel: yet it possesses the attraction of a highly wrought and powerful work of fiction. It has an intense and terrible interest in some parts of its story, and the scenes, incidents, and characters are portrayed with uncommon graphic and dramatic power. Yet the work is not only not a regular novel, but we are assured that there is absolutely nothing fictitious in it save in the alteration of a few names and dates. * * * A very remarkable book."

AMONG THE PINES.

To meet the large and increasing demand for this work THE TRIBUNE has assumed its publication, and will sell it on the following terms:
Single copies, in cloth, $1; in paper covers, 75 cents.
(Single copies sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of price.)

STRAUSS'S "LIFE OF JESUS."—Bishop Colenso and many other learned divines are so anxious striving to let all except the uncritical multitude see that they don't believe the creed they nevertheless preach for hire. Theodore Parker characterizes Strauss's "Life of Jesus" as "the most formidable assailant of the ecclesiastical theology of Christendom." CALVIN BLANCHARD, No. 30 Ann-st., N. Y., publishes the work; two large royal octavo volumes; price, $5.

NIGHTSHADE;
OR,
THE MASKED ROBBER OF HOUNSLOW HEATH.

BY DR. J. H. ROBINSON;

ILLUSTRATIONS: By DARLEY.
Price Twenty-five Cents.

This story, the twenty-fourth of the series known as the "Mercury Stories," is perhaps one of the most interesting of those hitherto issued. It is profusely illustrated by Darley whose engravings do not appear in any series of cheap novels excepting "The Mercury Stories," and the publisher would draw attention to the fact of a twenty-five cent novel being illustrated by the first artist in America at an immense outlay, depending alone on large sales to warrant the outlay attending the employment of such talent.

FRUIT, GRAIN, and GARDEN FARM for SALE, at NEW-BRUNSWICK, N. J., 31 miles from New-York by Rail and River.—The social, educational, and religious advantages of this location are too well known to require any notice, while the ready access to New-York by land and water, brings the market to its very door. The City of New-Brunswick, with a population of nearly 18,000, also furnishes a very excellent home market. The Property comprises 153 acres of very superior Land, 130 acres of which is meadow uplands, 35 acres rich meadow bottoms, the remainder is woodland. It is watered like the Garden of the Lord. The soil is a deep, luxurious, loam, easily worked and easily kept in fertile condition; and if anything could be needed to improve it, a rich deposit of the black muck, with its exhaustless fertilizing power, would supply every deficiency. But the quality of the land is best shown by the crops it produces, which speak for themselves. The situation is pleasant, the surface agreeably diversified, the outline and prospect picturesque and delightful. Around the spot cluster many natural attractions. The wild grape grows luxuriantly along its water-courses, the quail and partridge nestle in its thickets, while the speckled trout attests the excellency of its waters and settles conclusively the question of its health. A beautiful and romantic lake, skirted with young timber, affording the finest of boating, bathing, and fishing, with abundance of ice, forms an attractive and delightful feature of the place. The natural produce of this farm, with slight attention, is about $3,000 per annum, which, with more thorough cultivation, might just as easily be doubled. To a gentleman of agricultural tastes, to a family having sons and daughters to educate, to a first-class farmer wishing an ample and easy income, this property would be very attractive; and these are the natural proprietors of such an estate. It also admits of easy subdivision, having a handsome building-front of over 2,200 feet on the Old Country Road making almost the entire plat immediately available for smaller places if desired. The value and productiveness of the estate, its rapid appreciation, and the expediency and propriety of the investment are clear and unquestioned; while the property is offered so far below its relative and intrinsic value that, being once shown to a proper judge, it is instantly sold. Accordingly, good judges of property are invited to examine it, with a prompness of every facility for a correct and thorough investigation. Price $13,000, with stock and implements. C. G. PRATT, No. 32 Pine-st., Room No. 9.
