AUCTION SALES.

A. M. Doherty, Auctioneer.

GILT-EDGED RESIDENCE PROPERTY at Auction—I will sell at auction on the premises on Brewster avenue, between Sherburne av. and Viola st., on Monday, May 21, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, lots 8 and 9, in block 6, Brewster's addition to St. Paul; this property is without doubt the most desirable site for residence purposes at present attainable in St. Paul, handsomely situated on an eminence overlooking the entire city and in the immediate vicinity of some of the finest residences in the country, among which may be mentioned the elegant mansion of Hon. John L. Merriam nearly opposite the grounds to be sold, the fine homes of Hon. W. R. Merriam, Frank B. Bass, Uri Lamprey, William Dawson, William Lindeke and others. The property in question has a frontage on Brewster av. of 100 feet by a depth of 150 feet, and is consequently an admirable size for an elegant home site. The owner of the above property is obliged, on account of extreme ill health, to sell this handsome property, being advised by his physician to take a trip across the ocean and spend a year or so in the old world, thinking that a change of air and scene will prove beneficial. Further particulars will be given in next Sunday's papers. For terms and conditions of sale call on or address A. M. Doherty, auctioneer, office 51 East Fourth st. 135-142

VALUABLE WEST SEVENTH Street and Tuscarora Street Property at Auction—I will sell at auction on the premises at the corner of West Seventh and View sts., on Thursday, May 17, at 3 p. m., lots 39 and 40 in block 7, Clarke's addition; this property has a very desirable frontage on three streets, West Seventh, View and Tuscarora, and is in every way suitable for valuable business property; to a capitalist who would improve, an income of 15 per cent on the investment could be realized; immediately after the sale of the above I will sell a good cottage and lot on Tuscarora st., within a very short distance of Seventh st.; the lot is 40x120 and will be sold without regard to value; there will also be offered on the same day a very valuable business property having a frontage of 200 feet on West Seventh st.; full particulars in regard to the sale will be given in a few days. For information call on or address A. M. Doherty, Auctioneer, 51 East Fourth st. 135-138

A. H. Nicolay, Auctioneer.

IMPORTANT AUCTION SALE—No. 103 West Tenth st., opposite Fort st., and No. 78 College av.; property fronting on two prominent streets, running through from street to street, between St. Peter and Rice sts., at auction. A. H. Nicolay will sell at auction, on the premises, Monday afternoon, May 28, 1888, at 3 o'clock, rain or shine, No. 103 West Tenth st., opposite Fort st., that very valuable business property, fronting 60 feet on West Tenth st. and 51 feet on College av., by 140 feet deep, running through from Tenth st. to College av. This valuable property possesses advantages, owing to its double frontage, not equaled in any other section in the city of St. Paul for business or residence purposes. This part of the city, the most central, is rapidly being improved with the most substantial improvements. In its immediate vicinity costly flats have been built; many others of the most expensive character are contemplated, within one block, structures that will cost over $100,000 each. They will greatly enhance the value of this property within a few months. A first-class apartment house, with stores below, similar to the Blair flats, erected on this lot is sure to pay from 15 to 25 per cent on the cost of construction, owing to its close proximity to the best schools, churches, state capitol, street cars and cable line. It is within walking distance of our leading business thoroughfares and wholesale business district, including the custom house, postoffice, U. S. courts and all prominent hotels. The present rental of the houses on this lot is $75 per month. The attention of capitalists and the most cautious investors is called to this important sale, believing that for a profitable, safe and permanent investment this sale offers inducements second to no other location in St. Paul. This sale will be absolute to the highest bidder. Terms liberal—only one-third cash required; balance can remain on mortgage for three or five years at 7 per cent interest, at the option of the purchaser. St. Anthony hill street cars pass the door. For maps, hand-bills and full particulars apply or write to A. H. Nicolay, Auctioneer, No. 116 East Fourth st., or Handy & Handy, 204 Grand Block. 133-150
