D. 1890, and the proofs of service of the said order to show cause, as therein directed, which proofs of service were duly filed on the return day of said order, and in which said petition the said Receiver asks, amongst other things, that, upon the hearing of said petition and order to show cause, said Receiver may be authorized and directed to make a further and second assessment upon the balances due upon all premium notes in the hands of said Receiver, and that such assessment be for the full amount of the balances due upon such notes, and that it be directed to proceed and collect such assessment;

And it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the said order to show cause, of November 28th, 1890, has been duly served upon all persons in any manner interested in the estate of said Insolvent Corporation within the time and in the manner specified in said order;

And it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the balance of money adjudged to be in the hands of said Receiver, upon its account filed, to wit, the sum of $25,575.35, will not be sufficient to enable the said Receiver to pay in full, the claims adjudged to be valid claims and demands against the estate of said Insolvent Insurance Company, for losses under its policies, and for expenses of conducting its business, to wit, the sum of forty-eight thousand eight hundred two dollars and eighty cents ($48,845.80);

And it further appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that for the purpose of paying such adjudicated claims, and the balance which will remain due thereon, after the said receiver shall have divided and paid the said balance of money in its hands, pro rata among the lawful owners of said claims for losses, and claims for expenses of conducting the business of said company, and retaining in its hands until the further orders of this Court the same pro rata dividend for certain of such claims which remain unadjudicated, and which said unadjudicated claims amount to the sum of three thousand five hundred and six dollars and ninety-seven cents ($3,506.97), as heretofore ordered; and it further appearing to the satisfaction of the court, from the allegations of the said petition, and the proofs and evidence offered upon the hearing of said order to show cause, that it will be necessary for the purposes aforesaid, that a second and further assessment shall be made by said Receiver, upon the balances due upon said premium notes, which remain in the possession of the said Receiver, and that such assessment shall be for the full amount of the balance due thereon;

That notice of such assessment shall be given to the makers of such notes, by the publication of a copy of this order, for five (5) successive days, within five days after the date of filing thereof, in the St. Paul DAILY GLOBE, a public newspaper, printed and published in the city of St. Paul, and by mailing a printed copy of such order, and of the assessment, within ten (10) days after the first publication of this order, to each of the makers of said premium notes, addressed to them at their respective places of residence or business, so far as the same are known to said Receiver. That the said assessment so made shall become due and payable at the office of said Receiver, in said city of St. Paul, forty (40) days after the date of the first publication of said order; and if not then paid, the said Receiver proceed to enforce the collection thereof, by suit or otherwise, and for that purpose may employ such agents and attorneys as may be necessary in the premises.
