COMMON COUNCIL.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, CITY HALL, New Orleans, March 19, 1861.

The Board met this day, pursuant to adjournment.

Members present: Hon. J. O. Nixon, President; Messrs. Cox, Forstall, Harrison, Moreau and Whitney—6.

The reading of the minutes was, on motion, dispensed with.

The following communication was laid on the table subject to call.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE, CITY HALL, New Orleans, March 19, 1861.

To the Honorable the Common Council:

Gentlemen—On Friday, the 15th of February last, in virtue of resolution 5473, passed by your honorable body, I proposed the proposals to supply with meat the City Work House up to the 31st December, 1861. By reference to Article 20 of the City Charter, to which I respectfully call your attention, it is said: "All contracts for public works, or for materials and supplies, shall be offered by the Comptroller at public auction, and given to the lowest bidder who can furnish security satisfactory to the Common Council; and if by sealed proposals, opened by said Comptroller in presence of the chairmen of the Finance Committees, and given to the person making the lowest proposals therefor, etc., etc. The Common Council, in either case, have the right to reject all bids or proposals."

I beg leave to observe, that, on examination of the proposals, the articles of necks, shanks, briskets, etc., must be laid aside altogether, for in furnishing the meat the butcher charges for meat all round at so much per pound, and makes no mention of these articles.

A resolution passed the Lower Board the 14th instant accepting the proposal of Mr. A. Parker for furnishing beef, all round, at 4½c. per lb., duty free, on the understanding that he shall give notice to that of Mr. N. Pacobon, which is the lowest, being at 4 cents per lb. round.

I remain, yours respectfully,

V. DUPLESSIS,
Comptroller.

The following communication was read:

The following ordinance, adopted by the Assistant Board, was ordered to be spread on the minutes, and was made the special order of the day for the next sitting of the Board:

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the management and administration of the Fund derived from the sale of the property belonging to the succession of the late John D. Fitz, bequeathed for the erection, maintenance and support of an asylum for Protestant Widows and Orphans, to be called "Fitz Asylum."

Whereas, John D. Fitz, an order citizen of New Orleans, who died in this city in the year 1855, bequeathed the whole of his estate, after the payment of his debts and several legacies, for the erection, maintenance and support of an asylum for Protestant widows and orphans in this city.

EXTRACT FROM HIS WILL.

"It is my wish and desire, and I do hereby declare the same to be my will, that after the payment of my just debts and the several legacies herein above mentioned, that the proceeds of the whole of my estate, property, rights and credits be applied to the erection, maintenance and support of a suitable asylum in this city, to be used solely as an asylum for Protestant widows and orphans, to be called 'Fitz Asylum.' And I do hereby remove and authorize my friend Hardcastle Mitchell to take my decision, to name and appoint three worthy and responsible persons as trustees, to carry out my said intentions regarding the 'Widows' asylum.'"

And, whereas, upon an application made in March, 1859, by the heirs at law, to declare the above recited clause of the will null and void, the supreme Court decreed that "the charitable bequest by the will was, in fact, or in intent, legislative to be administered only by the city corporation of New Orleans."

And whereas, the city corporation of New Orleans having under that decree come into the very possession of the property bequeathed, and having already sold such of it as could be sold for $170,000, payable one-fourth cash, and the balance at one, two and three years credit; therefore, with the view of carrying into effect, as nearly as practicable, the benevolent intentions of the testator.

Section 1. Be it ordained that the Finance Committee of the Common Council shall be and are hereby constituted the Board of Commissioners of the "Fitz Asylum," and as such they are hereby invested with all such powers as are necessary to the due and proper management and administration of the property and the proceeds of the property, resulting from the succession of John D. Fitz, deceased, under the aforesaid decree of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, and for the purposes named in the extract of the will hereinbefore recited.

Sect. 2. A majority of the Board of Commissioners shall constitute a quorum. The Board shall, immediately after the promulgation of this ordinance, meet and organize by the election of one of their own number as President of the Board, and the election of a competent person as Secretary of the Board. They shall receive no compensation, and by resolution define the duties, require from the fourth hand and sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of his duties and trusts in such amount as may be determined by the Board.

The Board shall make such rules, resolutions and by-laws as may be necessary for the management of the fund.

Sect. 3. The Treasurer of the City of New Orleans shall be the Treasurer of the Board, and shall deposit all moneys, notes and other effects in the Louisiana State Bank, to the credit of the Board of Commissioners forever separate from their remains and apart from the funds of the city of New Orleans. All moneys received or paid out by himshall be regularly and distinctly entered in a book or books kept for the purpose, so shall also all bills receivable or other credits which he may receive for account of this fund; and at the end of each month he shall furnish a statement to the Board of the transactions of the fund, showing the receipts and expenditures and the balance on hand in cash.

In consideration of these additional duties the Treasurer shall be allowed from the Fund the sum of $500 annually, to be paid as compensation to a clerk in his office who shall perform them under his direction.

Sec. 4. The Secretary shall keep such books, under the direction of the Board, as they may direct, enter therein all amounts received or paid out, collect all revenues, sign and attest after entering them, all warrants for the payment of money drawn upon the Treasurer, by authority of the Board, when signed by the President, and report and pay over, immediately upon their receipt by him, to the Treasurer, all amounts due to the fund collected and received by him.

He shall have in his each year make a detailed and comprehensive report of the condition of the Fund, which report shall be by the Board communicated to the Common Council. He shall also, under the direction of the Board, conduct all correspondence, and generally take cognizance of all matters relating to the objects of this Fund, and perform such other duties in connection with it, as may hereafter be prescribed by the Board.

Sec. 5. When the capital derived from all sources shall amount to the sum of $250,000 two hundred thousand dollars, then the Board of Commissioners, under the direction of the Common Council, shall purchase, erect and meet upon a the necessary buildings, and establish, furnish and organize the Fitz Asylum in conformity to the intention of the will of the benevolent testator, John D. Fitz, deceased.

Sec. 6. For the purpose aforesaid, the sum of $100,000, and no more, shall be appropriated from the real estate of the fund, which amount shall be applied to the purchase of the site, the erection of, embellishment and furnishing the buildings, and making the Asylum ready for the reception of the objects of charity for whose use and occupation it is to be established. The balance of the fund shall forever remain invested under the direction of the Board of Commissioners, the revenues derived from the rises and rents of its separate and only use, for the support and maintenance of the institution, for the compensation of the officers and employees, for the contingent and additional, and for the payment of the current expenses of the fund.

The Board of Commissioners shall invest the Fund only in obligations of the City of New Orleans or of the State of Louisiana, preferring the latter for the sum or sums unappropriated.

Sec. 7. All ordinances or parts of ordinances contrary to or conflicting with the provisions of the foregoing, be and the same are hereby repealed.

The following communication was read:

BOARD OF ASSISTANT ALDERMEN, March 12, 1861.

To the Honorable the President and Members of the Board of Aldermen:
