Yesterday's great array of state conventions indicates that there are still plenty of Democrats with lots of lung power.

The party emblem of the free silverites is to be a daisy of sixteen white petals and a center of gold. It will be a daisy outfit all around, as most of the people who vote the ticket are daisies.

GOING CLOUGH'S WAY

THE GOVERNOR'S MAJORITY OF DELEGATES IS STEADILY INCREASING.

GOODHUE JOINS THE OTHERS.

CLAPP MEN, HOWEVER, CLAIM THE REPORTS SENT IN ARE PREJUDICED.

THEY STILL HOPE FOR SUCCESS.

Personal Preferences They Say Will Cut a Large Figure in the Result.

In the Republican contest for the gubernatorial nomination, Gov. Clough is ahead up to date. Of the twenty or more counties which have reported their delegates, the present governor has a good majority, on the face of the returns, materially strengthened by twenty-six votes from Goodhue county, as the result of yesterday's convention. Clapp men, at least, claim that the reports sent in are prejudiced and do not represent the actual sentiments of the delegations. They assert that when it comes to voting in the convention, the personal preferences of the delegates will outweigh the instructions of the county conventions. For instance, the anti-Clough men assert that St. Louis, Morrison, Mower, and at least three other counties which are already credited to Gov. Clough will be badly divided, if they are not absolutely hostile. Clapp's friends say that they base their assertions on private advices, and they seem to think that if Clough cannot land the nomination on the first ballot he will not secure it at all.

Tams Bixby and Ramsey county Clough men assert emphatically that if they cannot win on the first ballot they do not want to win at all. These gentlemen seem to have good ground for their assertions, because only three out of the twenty-two counties which have yet voted decisively are clearly for Clough, unless all reports are wrong. The anti-Clough people assert, too, that the governor will carry Ramsey and Hennepin. If he does he will be renominated. If he doesn't, he will be defeated.

LINE UP FOR CLOUGH.

Goodhue a Banner County for the Governor.

Special to the Globe.
REDWING, Minn., June 24.—Goodhue county sends twenty-six instructed delegates for Clough. At the county convention to-day all the present county officers were renominated, except attorney. Albert Johnson was nominated for attorney.

Special to the Globe.
AITKIN, Minn., June 24.—The Republican county convention here today the following delegates were elected to the state convention: E. Lemere, D. L. Young, J. Weedburg, O. G. Peterson, C. P. Delalittre, P. Hanson, A. B. Ferow and A. Y. Merrill, of Temple Court, Minneapolis. delegates were instructed for F. L. Gibbs. Delegates to the congressional convention are S. Graves, Geo. Knox, W. Potter, E. B. Lowell, F. M. Shook, W. B. Marr, F. Hense, all are opposed to C. A. Towne and are gold standard men.

Special to the Globe.
KASSON, June 24.—The Republican primaries to elect delegates to the county convention at this place Saturday, the 27th, were held throughout the county from 2 to 6 p. m. yesterday.

At this precinct the bitterest fight in the party for many years was waged, the factions being arrayed as "Clough" and "anti-Clough" and the factions led by S. T. Littleton for Clough, and Geo. B. Arnold as anti-Cuough, the result being the election of the twelve anti-Clough delegates.

It was learned this morning that Mantorville, Dodge Center and Claremont have also elected anti-Clough delegates, and it seems safe to predict that the convention will be strongly anti-Clough, sending an anti-Clough delegation to the state convention July 1.

Special to the Globe.
SAUK RAPIDS, Minn., June 24.—The Sauk Rapids Republican primary election was held this evening. A Clough delegation was elected unanimously. The county will send a solid Clough delegation to the state convention.

Special to the Globe.
HERON LAKE, Minn., June 24.—At the Republican convention held at Jackson to elect delegates to the state convention at St. Paul, and also to the district congressional convention to be held at Mankato the delegates were instructed for Gibbs for governor first, last and all the time, and while no instructions were given to the district delegates they are all solid for McCleary for congress.

Special to the Globe.
MOORHEAD, Minn., June 24.—The delegates from Clay county to the Republican state convention were instructed for Hon. W. B. Douglas for attorney general. There were no instructions on governor, and the delegation is neither for nor against any candidate.

VETERANS GET PATRIOTIC.

Have Happy Times at the Cannon Valley Encampment.

Special to the Globe.
NORTHFIELD, Minn., June 24.—The Cannon Valley division, G. A. R., are encamped in the city today and Northfield is overflowing with patriotism. The usual accompaniments of Fourth of July have marked the day's events—street parades, fireworks and music by several bands which are competing for prizes. Prominent among the speakers at the afternoon and evening exercises were Mayor F. A. Noble, Commander J. C. Davison, Mrs. J. A. Clifford, Post Commander L. L. Wheelock, Owatonna; Department Commander J. J. McCardy, St. Paul; A. F. Foster, Litchfield; Mrs. M. Hasenwinkle, department president W. R. C.; Mrs. Clifford, Northfield; D. J. Dodge, Janesville; James Hunter, Faribault; S. Preil, Waseca; Capt. Aldrich, Farmington.

JURY TAMPERING.

Charged in the Case of a Wisconsin Banker.

WASHBURN, Wis., June 24.—The case of the state against A. C. Probert, mayor and banker, charged with the embezzlement of $1,500 from the bank of Lodi, Wis., was in progress up to this morning, when the district attorney read an affidavit charging that the jury had been tampered with by friends of the defendant. The jury was discharged and a new one will be secured.

GRIDLEY RAISED A STORM.

Duluth Democrat Had Advice to Give Away to Altgeld.

Special to the Globe.
DULUTH, Minn., June 24.—With a divided Democracy on the silver question, a bolting congressman in the Republican party and a very much mixed up and antagonistic sentiment throughout the city and county, politics in Duluth are as warm as they make them, and the coming campaign is filled with possibilities of "scrap" delightful to the pugnacious senses of old war horses. A few days ago E. C. Gridley, a local free silver Democrat, sent a letter to Gov. Altgeld suggesting that the free silver forces hold aloof from the Chicago convention, allow the party to declare for gold, and then combine at St. Louis on a renegade candidate for president. Mr. Gridley assumed to pledge the support of the Democracy of this district to such a move.

Naturally enough his action has aroused a storm of indignation. Local Democrats protest strongly against Mr. Gridley's presumption in representing the party and, one of the most prominent men connected with the local party organization has mailed a letter to Gov. Altgeld in which he says:

Mr. Gridley is not a leader in the Democratic party of our city or state. On the contrary, his allegiance to party principle has been viewed with suspicion for four years last past. The Democrats of Duluth are in favor of free coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1, as expressed in their resolutions unanimously adopted at their late county convention.

"Eight at least of the Minnesota delegation of eighteen to the national convention will work and vote for a Democratic (Democratic underlined) candidate who is in favor of free coinage.

Mr. Gridley, whose Democracy is of the quality which will hardly keep over night unless put in a cool place, speaks only for himself. Not another Democrat in the state of Minnesota, so far as I am able to learn, shares in his gauzy dreams. The Democracy of Minnesota believes that at Chicago, July 7, will be nominated the next president of the United States, and that the party will not have to go outside the members of its own convention to find a half-dozen candidates of whose fitness there can be no question or doubt.

"For my own part, my judgment is that Horace Boies would command the support of the largest number of voters on election day."

Mr. Gridley raised a muss two years ago by roasting Congressman Baldwin for his action in voting for the removal of the tariff on iron ore, so his Democracy has been seriously questioned ever since.

GREETING TO TOWNE.

Duluth Silverites Turn Out to Congratulate the Bolter.

Special to the Globe.
DULUTH, Minn., June 24.—Congressman Towne returned home this morning and tonight a mass meeting was held at which 10,000 people were congregated. His reception was enthusiastic and he made a speech stating his position. He said that he had done as he believed it was his duty to do. There was no other course for him. He inquired what sinister motive had guided him as some papers had intimated. The party had held out the promise of re-demonetization of silver, and when it failed he could do but one thing, and he was not sorry he had done it. He promised he would keep at the fight day after day and night after night until the campaign is over, and challenge his opponent to debate the money question in the interests of popular education on the subject. A number of local speakers representing the labor union and citizens made brief addresses.

Honored Dr. Noyes.

FARIBAULT, Minn., June 24.—The Minnesota Association of the Deaf is holding its fourth convention here. Over one hundred were in attendance last night, and more are expected. Dr. Noyes, retiring superintendent of the state school, made a brief address, in which he exhorted his former pupils to good citizenship. The programme of the convention included a public reception this evening, a picnic to Roberd's lake tomorrow, and adjournment Friday. This morning a present was made to Dr. Noyes, consisting of a fine leather couch and set of dining room chairs, costing altogether $115, by his former pupils here.

Joined Hands for Life.

Special to the Globe.
RUSH CITY, Minn., June 24.—At 2 o'clock this afternoon at Grace Episcopal church of this city, Miss Anna Christensen was united in marriage to Mr. Conrad Lindmark by Rev. A. D. Stowe, of Stillwater. The wedding was a quiet one, only the relatives of the contracting parties being present at the ceremony. The bridal couple left on the south-bound limited for a short wedding tour. The contracting parties are well and favorably known here, and hold high social prominence.

Two Lake City Weddings.

Special to the Globe.
LAKE CITY, Minn., June 24.—V. S. Kidd, of Albany, Wis., and Miss Cecil Gray, of this city, and Lett Ingraham, of Menomonie, Wis., and Miss Sue Slocum, of this city, were quietly married today in this city. All are prominent in society circles.
Special to the Globe.

Improving Popular River.

DULUTH, Minn., June 24.—The Poplar River Improvement company has been formed here, with John H. Younkie, A. W. Senborn, A. Braer, J. F. Dupur and A. N. Dupur, of Ashland, Wis., as incorporators, to make Poplar river in Cook county, navigable for pulp wood and other timber products and to build a harbor and dock at its mouth on Lake Superior. The company is capitalized at $50,000, and its limited indebtedness the same amount.

Closing the Gold Mine.

REDWOOD FALLS, Minn., June 24.—The Delhi Gold Mining and Refining company is likely to close up shop again some time this week. Charles E. Hoxie, who has been mining engineer for the company for the past year, has been in Minneapolis in consultation with the directors the past week, and as a result the operations will again close down.

South Dakota Not Republican.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., June 24.—Senator J. H. Kyle was in Sioux Falls yesterday and left for his farm at Worthington, Minn. He will return Friday to make an address at Mitchell and will speak on Saturday at Plankinton. Senator Kyle thought that Teller, if nominated on a free silver platform, would carry South Dakota, and predicted that under no circumstances could the Republicans carry this state either on national or state issues.

Badger Graduates.

MADISON, Wis., June 24.—Today in the presence of 4,000 people, which filled the large armory building, the class of '96 was graduated from the Wisconsin University. In addition, there was a conferring of degrees, music by the University band, a prayer by Rev. J. W. Cochran of the First Presbyterian church, and an address full of good advice to the outgoing graduates by President Adams. This afternoon the latter held a reception to the senior class and tonight the festivities close with the alumni ball.

Struck by Lightning.

DURAND, Wis., June 24.—Two six-year-old boys, one a son of C. A. Van Brunt, and one of Mr. Lindstrom, at Burnside, Buffalo county, were killed by lightning while playing in a barn last evening.

Felled by Lightning.

Special to the Globe.
WINTHROP, Minn., June 24.—Theodore Rignell, a section hand on the Minneapolis & St. Louis at this place, was struck by lightning while at work on the track during a thunder storm at half-past 1 this afternoon and instantly killed. He leaves a wife and one child.

No Murders on the Reserve.

Special to the Globe.
RED LAKE FALLS, Minn., June 24.—A special from St. Cloud as to two murders on Red Lake reservation and four drowned in Lost river was a canard. There is not a grain of truth in it.

SILVER COATED PILL

OFFERED TO WHITE MONEY DEMOCRATS BY THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

DECLARATION FOR GOLD

BUT COVERED WITH A PROMISE TO SECURE INTERNATIONAL BIMETALLISM.

PLEA FOR DEMOCRATIC HARMONY

Hill, Flower, Murphy and Coudert Delegates-at-Large to the Chicago Convention.

SARATOGA, N. Y., June 24.—The Democratic state convention that convened this morning and adjourned this afternoon, has put itself on record on the financial question and has selected its delegates to the national convention, but in doing these things, it has followed out the predictions of weeks ago and has not created any sensation of even mild surprise. It has declined to name its electors, has not put itself on record on any state issue, and has left the selection of a state committee until the next state convention. These things have all been done at the instance of the leaders and with the avowed purpose of placing the party in such a position that no matter what the platform of the national party is, it can be supported by the electors and the party in this state. The list of delegates and alternates is as follows:

Delegates-at-large—David B. Hill, Roswell P. Flower, Edward Murphy, Jr., Frederick R. Coudert.

Alternates-at-large—Robert Earl, Smith M. Weed, Jacob A. Canter, William Purcell.

District delegates—Perry Belmont, W. A. Hazard, W. C. Dewitt, R. J. Carlin, John Delmar, B. S. Coler, Daniel Ryan, John O'Keefe James E. Bell, Joseph Moffett, Bernard Gallagher, S. G. Bucher, Franklin A. Bartlett, John R. Fellows, Thomas F. Grady, A. J. Cummins, J. F. Ahern, A. M. Goldfogle, John C. Sheriran, James W. Boyle, C. C. Baldwin, William Sulzer, G. B. McClelland, F. M. Scott, Delancey Nicoll, James A. O'Gorman, Hugh J. Grant, John D. Crimmins, Thomas F. Gilroy, A. F. Fieg, H. A. Purroy, Francis Larkin, Jr., Arthur A. McLean, Frank Comiskey, J. W. Hinckley, J. G. Van Etten, F. J. Molloy, J. Purcell, Erastus Corning, Charles Tracey, J. B. Brown, G. Smith, L. Spratt, R. P. Anibal, L. F. Conway, E. T. Stokes, F. C. Shraub, J. R. O'Gorman, H. W. Bentley, Clinton Beckwith, J. C. Truman, Elliott Danforth, Wm. B. Kirk, D. M. Hill, Thomas M. Osborne, H. V. L. Jones, T. G. Barnes, J. A. Hanlon, E. A. Dodgson, Erickson Perkins, J. L. Whalen, D. N. Lockwood, N. E. Mack, Wilson S. Bissell, J. B. Mayer, Thomas Troy, Thomas O'Connor.

The convention was called to order by the chairman who presented John Boyd Thatcher for temporary chairman. In the course of his speech on assuming the chair, Mr. Thatcher said:

Facing Chicago, we confess that the situation is not without peril. Circumstances, some of which, perhaps, might have been controlled, have created what we believe to be an erroneous financial faith, a faith which has spread alarmingly in the West and South, and which has found adherents even in the East and North. If we are to accomplish our mission at Chicago, we must go there to persuade erring brothers and not to quarrel with enemies. The people who hold these strange views are honest, but mistaken. We must make them see that we are as honest as they are, and that our views are right. At this late day, the task seems gigantic, but it is not hopeless. If ever there should be a campaign of education it is now. It is the duty of the Democracy in the present crisis to speak clearly on the financial question. The party of Jefferson and Jackson has always favored the best money in use. The money adopted as the standard by the most enlightened nations of the earth. Neither consideration of expediency, nor the selfish interest of those who own silver bullion should lead us to depart from the safe and secure path. The people have not forgotten that the silver purchase law, bearing the name of an Ohio stateman, was the work of a Republican congress and of a Republican president. That law made of silver a commodity and unfitted it for its true mission, a medium of exchange. Nor have the people forgotten that the repeal of that law was the work of a Democratic congress and of a Democratic president. If it had done no other thing in its four years of power and responsibility, our party should have the gratitude and confidence of the country for thus stopping the coinage of a seventy-cent dollar.

Mr. Thatcher's speech was freely applauded. During the call of the roll of delegates there were enthusiastic and protracted cheers when the name of William C. Whitney was reached, and a demonstration of almost equal fervor greeted the name of David B. Hill, a few minutes later. After the appointment of the various committees the convention took a recess.

On reconvening, the temporary organization was made permanent. The committee on credentials reported in favor of the sitting delegates in every case, and, upon the report being adopted, the Shepardites from Kings county and the Wayne county contestants walked out of the convention, amid hisses from the delegates.

BIMETALLIC PLATFORM.

The platform, which was read by Senator Hill, was adopted, as follows:

It would be folly to ignore and impossible to exagerate the gravity of the conditions under which this convention assembles. Most of the other states of the Union have selected and commissioned their delegates to the national Democratic convention. By a movement, evidently concerted, but as we believe, ill-advised and ill-considered, instructions have been given to the delegations of a large number of states having for their aim and purpose the adoption of a new policy and a new platform for the Democratic party.

No opportunity for a fair and deliberate consideration of such policy and platform has been afforded the Democracy of the state of New York. Upon such new matter thus proposed to be incorporated among the tenets of the party, it becomes the duty of the Democrats of New York, representing their people, to speak in no equivocal terms.

Gold and silver—the money of the constitution and of our fathers—each at a parity with the other in purchasing power, has been the platform proclaimed by every national Democratic convention, which has thus adopted and reaffirmed by each declaration of party faith for a century the wisdom of Thomas Jefferson, who said: "The unit must stand on both metals."

The action of a Republican congress, and a Republican president deprived silver of its equality with gold for the money and currency of the nation. From this—for which the Democratic party was in nowise responsible—and from the action of other nations folloiwng in the same course, it has resulted that silver has greatly declined in commercial value and there now exists a wide departure of the two metals from the coinage standard of value—bringing disturbance to the financial systems of European countries as well as to our own, and awakening there, as here, the earnest apprehension of statesmen and financiers.

The restoration of the equilibrium of the two metals thus disturbed is a problem, the solution of which is of the greatest consequence to the prosperity of both this country and of Europe, but is wholly beyond our power without the cooperation of other nations. Such cooperation by the united efforts of statesmen and wage-earners here and elsewhere, is believed to be near at hand and to be possible to secure by earnest and well directed efforts.

Free coinage of silver by the United States alone, can have no other effect than to change our present standard to one of silver—now a depreciated coin—and to retard, perhaps destroy forever, the success of the movement now general throughout civilized countries, for the restoration of free bimetallic coinage in the principal mints of the world. The proposition to separate ourselves from the great nations of the world and adopt the monetary standard of Mexico and China does not comport with the pride and financial dignity of the state of New York or the United States.

It should be resisted with the fervor of both partisanship and patriotism by Democrats everywhere, when the adoption of such a course threatens, as it does, untold evils to our nation's commerce and industry.

PRINCIPLES OFFERED.

For these reasons and with these convictions, the Democrats of New York in convention assembled, make the following declaration of their principles and appeal to the Democrats of other states to join with them in incorporating these principles in the party platform to be adopted at Chicago.

We favor gold and silver as the standard money of the country. We are opposed as a permanent financial policy to gold monometallism on one hand, or to silver monometallism on the other hand. The pledge contained in the repeal of the Sherman bill, which repeal was passed by a Democratic congress and approved by a Democratic president should be faithfully carried out, wherein it was declared that: "The efforts of the government should be steadily directed to the establishment of such a safe system of bimetallism as will maintain at all times the equal power of every dollar coined or issued by the United States in the markets and in payment of debts."

We believe that such bimetallism to which the nation is solemnly pledged, can only be secured and permanently maintained through the concurrent action of the leading nations of the world.

Neither this country nor any other country, independent and alone, is able to maintain it and it would be folly to attempt it. Being so convinced, we are opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver in the absence of the cooperation of other great nations.

We declare our belief that any attempt on the part of the United States alone to enter upon the experiment of free silver coinage would not only prove disastrous to our finances, but would retard or entirely prevent the establishment of international bimetallism. Until international co-operation for bimetallism can be secured—to which end all our efforts as a government, and as a people should be in good faith directed—we favor the rigid maintenance of the present gold standard essential to the preservation of our national credit, the redemption of our public pledges and the keeping inviolate of our country's honor. We insist that all our paper and silver currency shall be kept absolutely at a parity with gold.

The Democratic party has ever been and still is the hard money party, and it will preserve that record. It is opposed to legal tender paper money as a part of our permanent financial system, and it refuses to sanction any paper currency inconvertible with coin. The United States notes and terasury notes being in fact debts of the government, should be gradually paid off, retired and cancelled. This should, and must be done in such a manner as to cause no contraction of the circulating money of the country. So long as they exist, however, and are permitted to circulate as money they should be redeemable at all times upon demand in the standard money of the country.

PUBLIC CREDIT.

The Democratic party is pledged to the resolute maintenance of the public credit at all times and under all circumstances, and it is, therefore, opposed to the repeal of any existing statute which enables the secretary of the terasury, by the issue of bonds or otherwise to provide an adequate fund for the redemption in gold of our paper obligations whenever necessary.

We reiterate our adherence to the principle of a tariff for revenue only. We are opposed to government partnership with protected monopolies and we demand that import duties, like other taxes, should be impartially laid and their imposition limited to the necessities of the government, economically administered. Federal taxation should not be imposed to benefit individual interests at the expense of the general welfare. We repudiate the doctrine that it is the province of the government by the exercise or abuse of the power of taxation to build up one man's business at the expense of anothers, or to impose burdens upon one class of citizens for the benefit of other classes, and we insist that "No public taxation except for public purposes" is the true theory upon which it should be honestly and impartially administered. Upon this principle of revenue reform, the Democratic party takes no step backward.

We endorse the administration of President Cleveland, and particularly commend him for his determined effort to maintain the financial credit of the United States. It is hereby further resolved that the delegates to the national Democratic convention selected by this convention are hereby instructed to enter that convention as a unit and to vote and act as a unit in accordance with the will of the majority thereof.

Ex-Governor Flower offered the following, which was adopted with applause:

Whereas, party division at Chicago on the silver question will endanger Democratic success at the polls; and

Whereas, Republican ascendancy in the nation would undoubtedly be followed by another attempt to establish minority rule in the Democratic Southern states by means of a force bill. Therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Democrats of New York appeal to the Democrats of the South in the name of their political liberty and their properties to avert the possibility of a force bill by uniting with the Democrats of the East and West in framing a platform on which all Democrats can stand and the united support of which will lead to a glorious Democratic victory.

A resolution expressing sympathy with the insurgents in Cuba was introduced by Congressman Sulzer and adopted. The routine business having then been transacted, the convention adjourned.

SAY IRELAND DID IT.

Knocked A. P. A. Plank From the St. Louis Platform.

ST. LOUIS, June 24.—It was stated last night that it was through the influence of Archbishop Ireland that a plank proposed by the American Protective association was not adopted as a part of the platform at the recent Republican national convention in this city. The word was given out that Col. E. H. Sellers, president of the national council of patriotic associations of the United States, was at work to get a plank in the platform indorsing the A. P. A. On the very day Col. Sellers sent a copy of what he wanted embodied in the platform to Mr. Foraker, chairman of the committee on resolutions, the following telegram was received by Chairman Thomas H. Carter, of the national Republican committee, from Archbishop Ireland:

"St. Paul, Minn., June 17, 1896.—To Hon. Thomas H. Carter, National Committeeman, St. Louis, Mo.: The clause in the proposed platform opposing the use of public money for sectarian purposes and union of church and state is unnecessary and uncalled for. It is urged by the A. P. A. Its adoption will be taken as a concession to them; will awaken religious animosity in the country and do much harm. The Republican party should not lower itself to recognize, directly or indirectly, the A. P. A. I hope the clause or anything like it will not be adopted. John Ireland."

Col. Sellers, in an interview, said he gave a copy of the platform of the patriotic societies to Mr. Foraker, and also to Senator Gear, of Iowa. He was told by the latter that the paragraph declaring against the appropriation of money from the United States treasury for sectarian purposes would be incorporated, and that the committee had taken favorable action upon it. Later in the day (Wednesday) he was surprised to learn from a member of the committee that its action had been reconsidered, and that there would be nothing in the platform in that regard. All this is now explained by the telegram from the archbishop at St. Paul. The dispatch was referred by Chairman Carter to Edward Lauterbach, of New York, one of the big four from that state, and he, with National Committeeman R. C. Kerens, of this city, went before the committee and succeeded in knocking out all reference to the church.

SILVER BOLT.

Wisconsin Men Will Not Abide by Their Instructions.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 24.—The silver men in the Wisconsin Democratic delegation announce that they will bolt the unit rule imposed upon the delegates by the state convention, when they vote on the platform, in Chicago. They argue that if the national convention does not insist upon the unit rule, they will not be bound by the action of the state convention, and they point to the fact that the convention yesterday refused to respect the unit rule made by some of the counties. Having set the example, they say, the majority cannot kick if its action receives similar treatment in the larger convention. The action of the silver men will take Wisconsin out of the column of solid gold states at Chicago.

TO TELL MAC.

Notification Committee Called by Senator Thurston.

OMAHA, Neb., June 24.—Senator John M. Thurston issued this notice today:

"The committee selected by the Republican national convention to notify Hon. Wm. McKinley of his nomination for president will meet at the Holdenden hotel, Cleveland, Ohio, June 28, and proceed by special train on the morning of June 29 to Canton, Ohio. The train will return to Cleveland on the afternoon of the same day.

"JOHN M. THURSTON, chairman."

Montana's Silver Shouters.

BUTTE, Mont., June 24.—The Montana delegation to Chicago will go in style. Nearly $2,000 has been raised for a special train and the Boston and Montana band. It is expected that fully 150 Montana men will go to Chicago to work for silver, and with Montana's famous band along they will cut quite a prominent figure.

SHERIFF SHOT DEAD

GLENCOE EXCITED OVER A CRIME SIMILAR TO THE WYOMING MURDERS.

BLOODY WORK OF TRAMPS.

THEY USED A SHOT GUN AT SHORT RANGE IN AN EFFORT TO ESCAPE ARREST.

ANOTHER MAN HUNT BEGUN.

Whole Country Aroused and Murderers Can Hardly Hope to Escape.

Special to the Globe.
GLENCOE, Minn., June 24.—A farmer riding into town from the north this afternoon was accosted by two rather stoutly built young men, one wearing a black slouch hat and the other a straw hat, who insisted on riding to town. A mile north of town one of the vagrants shot a dog belonging to Ben. Mathews, a farmer residing near by. On Mathews remonstrating he was knocked down and severely pummelled. They then continued their way toward town. Mathews immediately followed and swore out a warrant. In the meantime the strangers had purchased tobacco at a grocery and bread at a bakery and proceeded on foot southward toward Arlington. At 6:15 the warrant for their arrest was placed in the hands of Sheriff Rogers and accompanied by Louis Link, a young wagon maker, he started in pursuit. About four miles south of town they overtook the fugitives, who, as they drove up, separated to opposite sides of the road. Sheriff Rogers stepped from the buggy remarking: "I want you fellows." One of the strangers remarked: "Oh, I guess not," at the same time fired the contents of a loaded gun into the ground at the sheriff's feet. Rogers prepared to draw his revolver when the tramp, taking deliberate aim, poured the contents of the weapon into the officer's breast.

Link succeeded in making his escape and driving a mile toward town secured the assistance of two farmers and going back found the sheriff dead by the roadside. He immediately drove with the body to town and the toll of the fire bell at 7:30 followed by the news threw the town into an indescribable state of excitement. Armed bands immediately started in pursuit and are scouring the country south of town while all the men of the surrounding country are prepared to take to the hunt by daylight. As the country is sparsely timbered and thickly settled the chances of capturing the desperadoes before to-morrow's sunset are very favorable. If captured lynching is not improbable as Sheriff Rogers was a universal favorite in the community.

An examination of the sheriff's body showed that he had been shot four times. The following is a description of the murderers from those who took a casual look as they passed through town: Two men about 25 years old, dark complexion, medium height, square build, thin faces, weighed about 150 pounds each, both had dark moustaches, perhaps false, and looked enough alike to be brothers, both were well dressed, wore dark colored clothing, one had a light straw hat the other a cow boy hat.

The police in St. Paul were notified of the murder of Sheriff Rogers early in the evening the news coming to Chief Goss in the shape of the following telegram:

Sheriff Rogers was shot and killed this evening by two tramps. Both medium sized young men. One wore slouch hat and the other straw hat. Both dressed in dark clothing. One had moustache. One carried revolver, the other rifle. Shooting occurred four miles south of Glencoe.

(Signed) A. F. ALLEN,
County Attorney.

The telegram although rather vague as to description was given to all the officers and this morning detectives will be detailed to watch the railroad yards.

MERRITT'S WILL WIN.

Their Suit Against Rockefeller a Notable One.

DULUTH, Minn., June 24.—The United States court of appeals will in a day or two hand down a decision in the case of the judgment for $940,000 obtained by Alfred Merritt against John D. Rockefeller. It is rumored that the decision will sustain the judgment. Attorneys for the respondent claim to have heard from good authority that the decision has been made, and that it is in their favor.

The decision, if rendered as supposed, is notable in many ways. It is against the richest man in America, who was charged with illegally and fraudulently conniving with his private secretary, F. W. Gates, an ex-Baptist minister of Minneapolis, to defraud Alfred Merritt, the plaintiff and respondent. It is also the largest judgment ever recorded in America against an individual, and with costs and interests now amounts to considerably over $1,000,000. The interest alone is $180 a day, and has increased the original judgment $70,000 since it was handed down in the federal court here a year ago by Judge Bilmer. Then, too, on this decision hang cases, exactly similar, amounting not far from $3,000,000, which will probably be settled if Rockefeller has lost in the court of appeals.

Grasshopper Plague.

PESHTIGO, Wis., June 24.—Large areas of Marinette county are being swept by grasshoppers, which began their destructive work over three weeks ago. Fields of wheat, oats and other grains and tame grass are being swept away. Farmers have already turned under portions of their fields which have been swept by them, and are planting them in corn with the hope of securing a crop.

Hailstones Like Hens' Eggs.

Special to the Globe.
BOTTINEAU, S. D., June 24.—A terrible hail storm in the foot hills and Turtle Mountain yesterday evening. Stones measuring six and one-half inches in circumference fell, literally covering the ground. Mouse river is higher now than ever before known, caused from the heavy rainfalls we are having.

Will Indorse Teller.

DENVER, Colo., June 24.—Seven hundred delegates representing every county in the state will constitute the Colorado state convention of the National Silver party, which will meet in this city tomorrow. Resolutions will be adopted endorsing Senator Henry M. Teller as a presidential candidate, and in the event that he is not successful, favoring his return to the United States senate.
