AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the reimbursement and reimbursement of the fund deposited in the office of the property belonging to the ancestor of the late John T. Fitch, bequeathed for the mention, maintenance and support of a suitable asylum for Fitch's Widows and Orphans, to be called the "Fitch Asylum."

Whereas, John B. Fitch, an old citizen of New Orleans, who died in the city in the year 1858, by his will bequeathed his estate, after the payment of his debts and several legacies, for the erection, maintenance and support of an asylum for Protestant widows and orphans in this city.

EXTRACT FROM THE WILL.

"It is my wish and desire, and I hereby declare it to be same to be my will, that after the payment of my just debts and the several legacies herein above mentioned, that the proceeds of the sale of my property, together with the balance of my estate, be applied to the erection, maintenance and support of a suitable asylum in this city, to be used only as an asylum for Protestant widows and orphans, to be called the "Fitch Asylum," and I do hereby nominate and appoint my friends, Thomas Barlow, Esq., and Rev. Dr. Leacock, as trustees of said asylum, and I do hereby authorize my friend Hutchinson, after my decease, to draw and appoint three worthy and responsible persons as trustees, to carry out my intentions regarding the said asylum."

And whereas, upon an application made in March, 1859, by the heirs at law, to endorse the above recited clause of the will and testamentary, the supreme Court decreed that "the charity creation by the will was a charity within the law, to be administered only by the city corporation of New Orleans."

And whereas, the city corporation of New Orleans, under the direction of the Common Council of the City, have organized, and having already sold most of the property, at about one-fourth cost, and the balance of one, two and three years credit, therefore, be it resolved, that the Mayor, after, as early a period as practicable, the benevolent intentions of the testator.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained that the Finance Committee of the Common Council shall be and are hereby constituted the Board of Commissioners of the "Fitch Asylum," with full power hereby conferred with all such powers as are necessary to control and money management of said trust—to receive the property and the proceeds of said trust, and the Board of Commissioners of Dr. Fitch, deceased, under the aforesaid decree of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, and for the purposes named in the extract of the will herein before recited.

SEC. 2. A majority of the Board of Commissioners shall constitute a quorum. The Board shall, immediately after the promulgation of this ordinance, meet and organize by the election of one of their own number as President of the Board, and the election of a competent person as Secretary of the Board. They shall fix his compensation, and he will hold office during the pleasure of the Board, and shall give a good and satisfactory security for the faithful performance of his duties and trusts in such amount as may be determined by the Board.

The Board shall make such rules, regulations and by-laws as may be necessary for the management of the trust.

SEC. 3. The Treasurer of the city of New Orleans shall be the Treasurer of the Board, and shall deposit all moneys, notes and other credits in the Louisiana State Bank, and shall pay out the Board of Commissioners, or to every order thereof, sums drawn from the funds of the city of New Orleans, and the amount received on notes and by the Board, and shall perform such duties in a book or books kept for the purpose, so that also all bills receivable or other credits, so as to show at any time the account of this fund; and at the end of each month he shall furnish a statement to the Board of the movements of the fund, showing the receipts and expenditures, and balance on hand in cash.

In consideration of these additional duties the Treasurer shall be allowed from this Fund the sum of $500 annually, to be set aside as compensation to a clerk in his office who shall perform these duties under his direction.

SEC. 4. The Secretary shall keep such books, under the direction of the Board, as they may direct, entire details of amounts received or paid out, either all or in part, and shall attend at every meeting, all warrants for the payment of money drawn upon the Treasurer, by authority of the Board, when signed by the President, and report to the Board, and upon their order to him, to the Treasurer all amounts brought to the Treasurer, and report to the Board.

He shall reside in such year make a full and comprehensive report of the condition of our Fund, which report shall be made to the City Council, and published in the Commercial Bulletin. Health office, under the direction of the Board, can be at such place, and generally take cognizance of all matters relative to the objects of the Fund, and perform such other duties in connection with it, as may hereinafter by the Board.

SEC. 5. When the capital derived from all sources shall amount to the sum of $200,000, or two hundred thousand dollars, then the Board of Commissioners, under the direction of the Common Council, shall purchase a site, and erect upon it the necessary buildings and establish, the "Fitch Asylum" in conformity to the intention of the will of the benevolent testator, John B. Fitch, deceased.

SEC. 6. For the purpose aforesaid, the sum of $100,000, and no more, shall be appropriated from the total amount of the Fund, which amount shall be applied to the purchase of the site, the erection of, completion and furnishing the buildings, and making the Asylum ready for the reception of the objects of charity for whose use and accommodation it is to be established. The balance of the fund shall forever remain invested under the direction of the Board of Commissioners—the revenues depending from the investment shall be expended for such purposes for the support and maintenance of the inmates, for the improvement of the grounds and buildings, for their repairs and additions, and for the payment of the incidental expenses of the fund.

The Board of Commissioners shall invest the "Fitch" obligations of the City of New Orleans or of the State of Louisiana, producing not less than 6 per cent. per annum interest.

SEC. 7. All ordinances or parts of ordinances contrary to or conflicting with the provisions of the foregoing be and the same are hereby repealed.
