BARON LIEBIG'S GREAT WORK ON AGRICULTURE!
THE RESULT OF 16 YEARS' OBSERVATION.
D. APPLETON & Co.,
No. 443 and 445 BROADWAY.
PUBLISH THIS DAY
THE NATURAL LAWS OF HUSBANDRY,
By JUSTUS VON LIEBIG,
Edited by JOHN BLYTH, M. D.,
Professor of Chemistry in Queen's College Cork.
1 vol. 12mo. Cloth, 387 pages, $1 50.

"In the following work baron Liebig has given to the public his mature views on agriculture, after sixteen years of experiments and reflection. The fundamental basis of the work is still the so-called mineral theory, which holds that the food of plants is of inorganic nature, and that every one of the elements of food must be present to a soil for the proper growth of a plant. The discovery of the remarkable power of absorption possessed by arable soils has necessarily led to a modification of the views regarding the mode in which plants take up their food from the soil. As the food of plants cannot exist for any length of time in solution in soils, it is clear that there cannot be a circulation of such solution toward the roots, but the latter must go in search of food. Hence the great importance of studying the ramification of the roots of plants, and the mode of growth of the different classes of plants cultivated by man."—[Extract from Preface.

AN ANSWER TO COLENSO.
D. APPLETON & Co.,
Nos. 443 and 445 BROADWAY,
PUBLISH THIS DAY:
THE HOLY WORD IN ITS OWN DEFENSE;
ADDRESSED TO BISHOP COLENSO AND ALL OTHER EARNEST SEEKERS AFTER TRUTH.
By REV. ABIEL SILVER,
Author of "Lectures on the Symbolic Character of the Sacred Scriptures."
1 vol. 12mo. 305 pages. $1 25.

"In this work we lay no claim to originality, either in the harmony of the system, the doctrines we present, or in the Science of Correspondences. The diction and manner of treating the subject only are ours. All the principles and views rest in, and can be rationally sustained by, the Word and the Works of the Most High God. Our entire argument, therefore is: Thus saith God's Word, and thus say God's Works"—[Extract from Preface.
