V. W. Gould started to Daytona Beach in his Cadilac last Sunday. Mr. McCormick and his family were also going over in their machine, but as Mr. Gould was alone, Mr. McCormick wanted to be neighborly, so left his machine and rode with Mr. Gould When they were about 8 miles out, Mr. Gould's auto refused to make such a long trip on Sunday, and in spite of all efforts remained quietly by the roadside. Another auto came by late in the afternoon and picked up the tired, wet and hungry saw-mill man and real estate dealer and started to Daytona Beach, but before reaching there they met McCormick's car coming home and Mr. McCormick turned back with them and came home without ever getting to the beach. But "See Gould," he never turns back. Mrs. Gould and little Howard and Frank accompanied him home on Monday.

ONE WAS AFRAID THE OTHER DASN'NT

He was afraid to tell her right out that he loved her, so he began in a roundabout way, hoping she would catch his drift, then betray, by her confusion, her own feelings, says the Boston Herald. He didn't dream but that she loved him, but thought that she, like himself, was afraid to demonstrate it.

"Heart troubles" she repeated. "Are you sure you've heart trouble, Alfred? You know indigestion is very like it at times."

"Oh, I know I've got heart trouble all right, I—can't you see it yourself;"

"Why, how silly, Alfred; no one can see heart trouble; they have to feel it. Have you taken anything for it?"

"No, not yet, but I—I want to, don't you know."

"Then why don't you?"

"I would; that is, if I could get it."

"Can't you get it, Alfred?"

"I—I don't know."

"Have you tried?"

"No, not yet."

(Silence for two provoking minutes.)

"Alfred" (coldly).

"Y-yes?"

"Let's have a game of checkers."

A SOFT ANSWER TURNETH AWAY WRATH

The old gentleman went into the parlor the other night at the witching hour of 10:30 and found the lights out and his daughter and a dear friend enjoying a tete-a-tete in a corner by the window, says Pearson's.

"Evangeline," said the old man, sternly, "this is scandalous."

"Yes, papa," she answered sweetly. "It is candleless because times are hard. Lights cost so much that Ferdinand and I said we would get along with the starlight."

And papa turned about in speechless amazement, and tried to walk ont of the room through a panel in the wall paper.

How would you like to live in Savannah? They sell ice delivered at fifteen cents per hundred, ten cents per fifty pounds, and twenty-five pounds for a nickel.

WHY ONE MAN DIED.

Head Keeper Snyder of the Central Park Zoo was smiling over a newspaper account of a monkey that had died of love, says the New York Times.

"It's a good story," said the head keeper. "This reporter has an orginal turn of mind. He's like the Western jury. A Westerner, you know, once hanged himself to the bedpost by his suspender, and the verdict of the coroner's jury ran:

"Deceased came to his death by coming home full and mistaking himself for his pants."

At the election held in South Carolina last week, 15 of the counties which previously had dispensaries voted dry, while five voted to continue wet.

The True Democrat says even bets are being made in Tallahassee that Claude L'Engle will be elected to the United States Senate. Another verification of the old saying that a fool and his money soon part.—Gainesville Sun.

A little girl, whose brother had died when small, asked her mother if she didn't think he would rather have stayed on earth so he could have played with her. "I mean to ask him when I go to heaven," she said, "But," said her mother, in order to see what she thought, "if he shouldn't be in heaven?"

"Well, then you ask him," replied the tot.

The Sunday-school class was singing "I want to be an angel." "Why don't you sing louder, Baby?" "I'm singing as loud as I feel," explained Bobby.

"Why do so many women rest their chins on their hands when they are trying to think?"

IF I WERE THE WHOLE THING.

I'd mend those holes in the streets while they're young and tender.

I'd have more light in the post office lobby.

I'd compel people to build sidewalks where they had been ordered.

I'd plant more burmuda grass on the fills along the Daytona road.

I'd close every eating house where nasty flies are allowed to promenade over the food.

I'd compel merchants to keep their potatoes, onions and "such things" in boxes with sides higher than a dog's back.

I'd tear down those raggy signboards on Rich avenue and near the court house.

I'd prosecute every man who defaced the trees along public highways with badly spelled and worse lettered signs.

I'd make every livery stable use lime or cart off the manure every day.

I'd urge our dairymen to fatten up their horses and costume the milkmen in clean white clothes.

I'd suspect of shooting game out of season every negro (or white man, either) who goes to his work with a gun over his shoulder or in his wagon.

HIDDEN DANGERS

NATURE GIVES TIMELY WARNINGS THAT NO DELAND CITIZEN CAN AFFORD TO IGNORE

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kindeys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and of irregular passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident:

J. W. Price, retired farmer, Tenth St., Sanford, Fla., says: "My kidneys were the source of great annoyance to me. The secretions contained a sediment and were so frequent in passage that I was obliged to arise several times at night. There was an intense lameness across the small of my back and backache was almost constant. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I resolved to try them and procured a box. They acted promptly and effectively, and since using them I have had no backache or lameness. My kidneys have also become stronger, and I do not have to arise to pass the secretions at night. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to many of my friends, and will continue to do so."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Company, Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
