WESTERN GROWERS HOLDING FOR A BETTER PRICE

Commercial Bulletin Reports Sluggish Trading in Boston Wool Market During Week

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)

Boston, March 20.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:

"Current business in the Boston wool market this week has been only of moderate proportions and again the bulk of business has been of foreign crossbreds and merinous. What business has been done has been at last week's rates, as a rule.

"Advices from abroad show a lull after the strenuous campaign at London. Contracting in the west continues on about the level of a week ago, although growers are showing a marked disposition to hold for higher prices."

STOCKS TAKES AN UPWARD TURN TODAY

New York, March 20.—Liquidation in low-priced railroad stocks, which has held the market in check recently, was suspended today. Rock Island securities in particular made a better showing. The effect on the general list of improvement was heightened by intimations from Washington that the administration favored an increase in freight rates for the eastern roads.

Railroad stocks responded with a general advance and ultimately the industrials joined in the movement, although held back for a time by the sluggishness of United States Steel, which was affected by further reports of slackening of business in the steel industry. The morning rise ran to a point of more in many cases. Bonds were irregular.

The advance became a little more rapid in spots, particularly for Pennsylvania, Amalgamated and Chesapeake & Ohio. Burlington joint 4s showed the effect of liberal profit-taking and surrendered about all of yesterday's gain.

The market went through the forenoon high figures with a rush when buying orders appeared in lots of 1,000 shares. Union Pacific and Steel were foremost in the late rise.

The market closed strong. Speculation became buoyant at the end, with general advances of from 1 to 2 points.

The closing prices on the more important stocks were:

Amalgamated	76⅝
Sugar	102⅝
Atchison	97⅝
Reading	166
Southern Pacific	95¼
Union Pacific	159½
Steel	65
do. pfd	110⅝

St. Louis, March 20.—Lead quiet, $3.90; spelter dull, $5.15.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, March 20.—Heavy selling by leading firms today drove down the price of corn. Opening prices, which varied from ¼c off to ¼c up, were succeeded by a material setback all around. The close was weak at ⅝@⅞c to ⅞c net decline.

Wheat weakened in sympathy with corn. The firm cables, however, tended to check selling. Prices started ⅛c lower to a like advance and later showed a general decline, with July leading the down-turn. The close was easy, ⅛@⅛c under last night.

Commission houses took to the bear side in the oats crowd. Pit speculators seemed willing to buy at a moderate drop in quotations.

First sales of provisions ranged from a shade to 5c higher. Not all the gain was held.

Closing prices:

Wheat—May, 92⅝c; July, 88⅝c.
Corn—May, 69⅝c; July, 69⅝c.
Oats—May, 40⅝c; July, 40⅝c.
Pork—May, $21.72; July, $21.72.
Lard—May, $10.85; July, $11.05.
Ribs—May, $11.55; July, $11.70.

ADVERTISING COMMITTEE ON THE JOB TODAY

With $2,000 already pledged, the Commercial club committee that is seeking subscriptions to the Albuquerque advertising fund resumed its canvass this afternoon. D. A. Macpherson is chairman of the committee.

It is confidently expected that two or three days' work will see the aim of the committee attained. That aim is the creation of a fund that will allow $500 a month to be spent in widespread advertisement of the city among the most desirable classes of people. A comprehensive campaign of publicity is contemplated among investors and homeseekers throughout the east.

COWPUNCHER FINDS GOOD OLD DAYS ARE GONE

Starts "Yip-Yip" on the Streets and to His Disgust is Pinched, Jailed and Fined Ten Times have changed, as Joe Taylor, a cowboy, discovered last night. Once Joe might have "yip-yipped" up and down the streets without let or hindrance—even with a certain amount of popular and official approval—but last night, when Joseph, clad in the regalia of the range, grew gay on the street, Captain Pat O'Grady coldly pinched him, and an unromantic magistrate, in the person of Judge Craig, fined him $10 or ten days for disorderly conduct this morning.

CHAUFFEUR STEALING RIDE IN CAR OF HORSES

In the car of race horses consigned from Juarez race course to the course at Havre de Grace, Md., which arrived here this morning, Station Master J. E. Sinclair of the Santa Fe discovered John Evans, who beat his way from El Paso. He was arrested and arraigned before Police Judge George R. Craig.

Picking oats and wisps of equine bedding out of his hair, he told the judge he was a chauffeur. He convinced the magistrate that he was telling the truth when he said he came here to look for work and could get it if there were any to get, and Judge Craig discharged him.
