IV. In case any such indigent drafted person whose liability to serve has been determined by the action of the Board of Enrollment has a family depending upon him for support, who are in such condition as to render it, in the opinion of the Substitute and Relief Committee, a case of peculiar hardship for him to leave them, and he shall be unable to procure a substitute within the time required, he may report the fact to said Committee, and on their being satisfied in regard to it, and particularly that he has used his best endeavors to obtain a Substitute, they will furnish him a certificate to be presented to the Comptroller, who will thereupon pay to the proper officer of the Government the sum necessary to obtain his exemption from the draft.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S OFFICE 9TH CONG. DISTRICT, STATE OF N. Y., (7TH-AV., N. W. COR. W. 46TH-ST.) NEW-YORK, SEPT. 18, 1863.

By Direction of the Secretary of War, the following Act of Congress, and proclamation of the President based upon the same, is published for the information of all concerned.

CHAS. E. JENKINS,
Captain and Provost Marshal (Ex), Dist. N. Y.

AN ACT relating to Habeas Corpus, and regulating judicial proceedings in certain cases, approved March 3, 1863.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled: That during the present Rebellion the President of the United States, whenever in his judgment the public safety may require it, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any case throughout the United States, or any part thereof. And whenever and wherever the said privilege shall be suspended as aforesaid, no military or other officer shall be compelled in answer to any writ of habeas corpus, to return the body of any person or persons detained by him by authority of the President; but upon the certificate, under oath, of the officer having charge of any one so detained that such person is detained by him as a prisoner under authority of the President, further proceedings under the writ of habeas corpus shall be suspended by the Judge or Court having issued the said writ, so long as said suspension by the President shall remain in force and said Rebellion exists."

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The Constitution of the United States has ordained that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it; and whereas, a rebellion was existing on the 14 day of March, 1861, which rebellion is still existing and tolerated, by a statute which was approved on that day it was enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, that during the present insurrection the President of the United States, whenever in his judgment the public safety may require it, is authorized to suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus in any case throughout the United States, or any part thereof; and whereas, in the judgment of the President, the public safety does require the privilege of the said writ shall now be suspended throughout the United States in cases where, by the authority of the President of the United States, Military, Naval and Civil officers of the United States, or any of them, hold persons under their command or in their custody, either as prisoners of war, spies, or aiders or abettors of the enemy, or officers, soldiers or seamen, enrolled, drafted, or mustered, or enlisted in or belonging to the land or naval forces of the United States, or as deserters therefrom, or otherwise amenable to military law or the rules and articles of war, or the rules or regulations prescribed for the military or naval services, by authority of the President of the United States, or for resisting a draft, or for any other offence against the military and naval service.

Now, therefore, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and make known to all whom it may concern, that the privilege of the writ of Habeas Corpus is suspended throughout the United States in the cases of cases before mentioned, and that this suspension will continue throughout the duration of the said rebellion, or until this proclamation shall, by a subsequent one, to be issued by the President of the United States, be modified or revoked.

And I do hereby require all magistrates, attorneys and other civil officers within the United States, and all officers and others in the military and naval services of the United States, to take distinct notice of this suspension and to give it full effect, and all citizens of the United States to conduct and govern themselves accordingly and in conformity with the Constitution of the United States and the laws of Congress in such cases made and provided.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed this 15th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the independence of the United States of America the eighty-eighth.

By the President: ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
W. H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

Sales by Auction.

AUCTION SALE OF TIMBER LIMITS,
Near Montreal, Canada.

Will be sold by Auction on WEDNESDAY, 30th September, the following valuable TIMBER LIMITS, one hundred and seventy-two square miles, belonging to the late firm of C. McGill & Co., in liquidation, and situated on the River Lacomarrean, behind Rawdon, in the County of Montcalm.

There is a large quantity of PINE which can be made either into saw logs or square timber, it is chiefly of large size and superior quality, owing to the hardwood soil and rolling character of the country. SPRUCE also abounds, and from the same causes, is of an unusual size. There is besides Tamarac, Cedar and Hardwood timber of various kinds.

The haulage is comparatively easy, and the main river generally favorable for driving.

A great advantage of these Limits is that provisions and provender, &c., can be delivered at the shanties at Montreal prices, owing to the Rawdon settlement being not farther than 30 miles from the greatest body of Pine.

Terms liberal. For inspection of plans and further information apply to COURT & MACINTOSH, Accountants, Montreal.
