Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, March 9.—Mrs. H. C. Buckland, Miss Mattie Yelvington, Miss Ruby Kingston and Mr. Bynes went down to New Smyrna on the train Saturday afternoon to attend revival services being conducted by Rev. J. B. Harris at that place and returned yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Buckland and Miss Yelvington were guests at the pleasant home of Mrs Riley during their stay.

The Jones cottage, which has been considerably enlarged and much improved, has just received a fresh coat of green paint for a finishing touch and now takes rank as one of the attractive cottages on Valley street.

Rev. Haigh and wife, R. S. Holmes and wife, Dr Messenger and wife, Mrs. Paulie and Miss Kelly chartered the Mermaid for a day and spent yesterday at the Zimmerman orange grove.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Holmes and Mrs. Olds and daughter, Mrs Sheets, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Ayres leave today on a trip to St. Augustine on the Mermaid.

Mr. R. S. Holmes gave a very interesting talk at the Sunday school hour Sunday morning at the M. E. church, Daytona Beach, on the condition in China before and since it has been open to missionaries. Two years ago Mr. Holmes was in China and became greatly interested in the work, and he and a friend, Smith Youngs of Lansing, Michigan, brought back with them a converted Chinaman, Mr. Wing, and are now educating him at the Ann Arbor, Mich., University as a Y. M. C. A. missionary.

A. I. Miller has leased the Clark cottage on the river front, purchased by A. Ainsworth this season, to F. R. Swift for the summer.

By invitation of Mr. Thayer, his mother, Mrs. Rankin and Miss Alderson, had a pleasant day at Ormond yesterday. They dined at The Ormond and visited all the places of attraction within reasonable distance of the little city.

Miss Brown, who returned last week from a visit to Rockledge, leaves this week for her home in New York. Miss Brown came down with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wellman, who have been spending their time at Pleasantview cottage.

Miss Mary Leahy and brother, John Leahy, of Ashtabula, Ohio, who have been guests of Mrs Parker at the Eustis cottage, left Saturday for Tampa, from which point they sail for New York on their journey homeward.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, March 9—Walter R. Denison, of New London, Conn. entertained the guests of the Seaside Inn and other friends Saturday evening with an oyster roast. It was held on the beach in front of the hotel. A large crowd was present, and everybody was served to the delicious bivalves. After the feast, the Virginia reel was danced in the light of the bright moon, and Mr. Denison received the thanks and congratulations of his friends on the success of the occasion. For several seasons Mr Denison has celebrated his stay at the Inn in some such manner, until these occasions have come to be looked forward to as a pleasant annual event. Next year, however, there will be a break in the procession of oyster bakes, if Mr. Denison's present plan of taking a trip around the world is carried out.

While their elders were making gay at the oyster bake farther down the beach the younger set were having a beautiful time at a marshmellow roast, given by Miss Lila Reid and Miss Margaret Johnson. Games were played and a rollicking good time enjoyed.

The names of the different streets have been posted at the intersection of Seabreeze avenue and Peninsula drive. In a tourist town where many strangers congregate each year, this is certainly more than ordinarily advisable, and is a good example for Seabreeze to follow.

Miss Anne B. Mason, of Nicholasville, Ky., a guest at The Seaside, is a brilliant pianist, and her gift adds much to the pleasure of everybody at the Inn.

Mrs. H. E. Dickenson, Tracy, Minn., and Mrs. C. G. Case and family, Chicago, are among yesterday's arrivals at The Seaside Inn.

Mrs. Young was charming hostess to a party of friends at J. M. Field's pleasant little cottage yesterday afternoon. Mesdames Fowler, Sibert and Dunlap were present, and it was a busy bee meeting, with Mrs. Sibert as instructress in fancy shell work. Some dainty and beautiful shell bags and baskets were being contrived.

Mr. Davis, a regular winter tourist, and prominent Sunday School and church worker, left yesterday for Atlanta, his home town. Mr. Davis spent the winter at Pinehurst.

Mr and Mrs. Warner of Connecticut are guests at Surf Crest.

Pear Shaped Balloons.

Pear shaped balloons are the fashion in Belgium. The point is upward; the base of the balloon is spherical. It is claimed that balloons of this shape pierce the air vertically with far greater speed than the ordinary spherical balloon. Consequently they are steadier.

But Not to Pay Back.

Dinks—I see Rouge has bought an automobile. I didn't think he had sufficient means to do that. Winks—Oh, he has all sorts of means of borrowing money and just as many means of mending it.—Judge's Library.
