FROM THE PRESS of
J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co.
Will be Published, December 1,
HISTORY OF CHARLES THE BOLD,
DUKE OF BURGUNDY.
BY JOHN FOSTER KIRK.
Two vols., 8vo., with Portrait.

"Mr. John Foster Kirk, whose intimate relations with the late Wm. H. Prescott are well known, has just completed Volumes I. and II. of his History of Charles the Bold, and the publishers have the pleasure of announcing that this important contribution to our historical literature will be ready for publication about the first of December."

"The remarkable epoch treated by Mr. Kirk is full of grand historical figures, and by his narrative an entirely new light is thrown on some of the most important events in Charles's career. His position as the 'Napoleon of the Middle Ages' is fully indicated, and the influence is traced both of his ambition and of his fall upon the destinies of the principle European States."

TO ADVERTISERS.—THE PATERSON PRESS (Daily and Weekly) is the best medium in Northern New Jersey, outside of Newark, by which the public can be reached. It has a large and rapidly growing circulation, not only in Paterson and Passaic County, but in Bergen, Morris, Rockland and Orange Counties. Business is already larger, and reaches better class of readers, than those of all other papers in Passaic and Bergen Counties.
The following are a few of the many testimonials which it has received from leading journals in New-York city:
"THE PATERSON PRESS.—After above the defection of The Guardian, the city of Paterson, New Jersey, has been without a thoroughgoing Union paper. We are glad to see that the press again has there one representative, and that a loyal, Republican paper has appeared in the daily Press, whereof Lassie, Wright & Chriswell are the publishers. It is a neat, respectable-looking sheet, filled with sound sense and a goodly array of interesting documents."—[Tribune.
"A NEW LOYAL PAPER.—We have just received the first number of The Daily Press, a new paper just issued at Paterson, New-Jersey. It is William Wright, formerly connected with the press of New-York, as editor. The Press presents a fine appearance, is edited with ability and spirit, and will prove a valuable accession to loyal journalism in New-Jersey. Paterson is the home of a greater proportion of a loyal population than any other city in the State, and the people will do themselves much credit in giving the Press an effective support."—[Evening Post.
Send for copies, which will be sent gratuitously to applicants, with rates for both Daily and Weekly. Address

STRANGE STORIES OF A DETECTIVE; OR,
CURIOSITIES OF CRIME.
by
A RETIRED MEMBER OF THE DETECTIVE POLICE.
PRICE 50 CENTS.

There is something exceedingly fascinating in stories like these. Beyond the interest engendered by the nature of the narrative, the reader gets to sympathize in the pursuit of the criminal, and watches with relish the closing of the net around the object of the officer's pursuit. Some of these contests of crime with the agents of justice are exceedingly amusing—"The Ebony Box," for instance, where sturdy honesty and a keen perception of character are engaged against a set of rascals, to the discomfiture of the latter.
Published by DICK & FITZGERALD,
No. 18 Ann-st., N. Y.
Also for sale by all booksellers in this place.
Copies of the above book sent by mail, to any address, free of postage, on receipt of the price.
