RESOLUTIONS.

M. Duncan présente les résolutions suivantes :

Attendu que, une session extraordinaire de la législature de l'Etat de la Louisiane, est convoquée par son Exc. J. Madison Wells, à l'effet de se assembler en la ville de la Nouvelle-Orléans le 28 du mois de novembre 1865 ; et

Attendu que, la nécessité d'appeler une session extraordinaire de la législature a été ratifiée et approuvée par le peuple de l'Etat de la Louisiane ; et

Attendu que, les intérêts politiques et agricoles de l'Etat de la Louisiane exigent une action prompte et immédiate de la part de l'assemblée générale, sur la solution des questions concernant le peuple en masse ; ainsi donc, il est,

Resolu que, comme l'expression du sens de ce corps, il réponse toute tentative qui serait faite d'ajourner avant d'avoir pris en considération les questions vitales et importantes pour lesquelles ils sont été convoquée, comme étant préjudiciable au plus haut degré aux intérêts de l'Etat.

Résolu que, aucune tentative faite pour convoquer une nouvelle convention, adoptant comme base de la représentation à cette convention la même représentation qui constitue actuellement la base de la représentation dans cette assemblée générale de cet Etat, est considérée comme approuvant une partie très-importante de la constitution de 1864, et donne une représentation inégale et disproportionnée et une influence [illegible] portion de l'Etat de la Louisiane [illegible] seule représentation dans ce corps.

Résolu que, les résolutions sont référées au comité spécial de neuf sur la convention d'Etat et tous sujets de même nature.

M. Jonas présente la résolution suivante :

Résolu que, son Exc. le Gouverneur soit respectueusement invité à informer la chambre des représentants, quelles sont les sociétés secrètes politiques, mentionnées par lui, comme existant dans cette ville, ayant des rameaux dans toutes les paroisses de cet Etat, qui sont dangereux à la société, à la liberté et à la loi ; et de vouloir également faire connaître à la chambre qui l'ont porté à appeler l'attention de la législature sur ce sujet.

M. Jonas annonce qu'il accepte les résolutions conjointes de M. McEnery, sur le même sujet comme un substitut à ses propres résolutions.

La résolution conjointe de M. McEnery ayant pour titre "résolution conjointe relative à une portion du message du gouverneur," subit la première lecture.

La résolution subit ensuite sa seconde et sa troisième lecture et est adoptée.

Mr. Richardson présente des résolutions ayant pour titre :

Résolutions conjointes relatives à la proclamation d'émancipation d'Abraham Lincoln.

Lesquelles sont lues et référées au comité sur les relations fédérales.

M. Voorhies fait la motion que l'orateur soit autorisé à nommer un secrétaire adjoint additionnel et quatre autres pages additionnels.

M. Richardson fait la motion de déposer sur la table la résolution de M. Voorhies, laquelle est rejetée.

La motion de M. Voorhies est adoptée.

M. Blackman présente la résolution suivante :

Résolu, que, dans le cas où une convention d'Etat serait convoquée, sa représentation à cette convention serait basée sur celle établie par la constitution de 1852 et la proportion la même que celle établie par la dite constitution.

La résolution est référée au comité spécial de neuf sur la convention d'Etat.

M. Deporter présente une résolution qui a pour titre :

Résolution conjointe relative à l'établissement de bureaux de postes dans tout l'Etat.

La dite résolution est lue et référée au comité sur les relations fédérales.

Sur motion de M. Stille il est

Résolu, Que l'orateur nomme un comité spécial qui devra se composer de cinq membres, auquel le message du gouverneur sera référé, avec instruction de faire savoir à quel comité particulier les différentes parties du dit message seront référées, et de faire leur rapport à cette chambre dans le plus bref délai possible.

M. Ewing présente une résolution ayant pour titre résolution conjointe et l'effet de procéder à l'élection des sénateurs pour le congrès des Etats-Unis.

M. Deporter fait la motion que la résolution conjointe soit déposée sur la bureau.

M. Elam prend la parole sur un point d'ordre, et cite le reglement [illegible] portant que la motion pour déposer sur le bureau ou autre une résolution à sa première lecture ne peut pas être admise.

L'orateur ayant déclaré que la motion de déposer sur le bureau n'est pas à l'ordre, M. Deporter fait la motion de rejeter la résolution conjointe ; sur la motion de rejet, M. Elam demande l'appel nominal :

Le vote pris, donne le résultat suivant :

One of them contains about fifteen hundred and ninety acres, five hundred of which are cleared ; one about seventeen hundred and fifty acres, seven hundred and fifty of which are cleared ; and the third, eighteen hundred acres, three hundred of which are cleared.
