Artemus Ward's Farewell Nights in America.
ADOO! ADOO!! ADOO!!!
FIVE NIGHTS ONLY,
Commencing Monday Evening, January 8.
ARTEMUS WARD'S HUMOR.
"More humorous than any other humor. The grin is broader, under the mask of which lies, if not the deepest wisdom, most sterling common sense. Readers must buy the book for themselves."—(Chambers' Journal, London.
ARTEMUS WARD AMONG THE MORMONS.
The public are respectfully informed that these will most positively be Artemus Ward's only nights in New Orleans prior to his departure for England, where arrangements are already being perfected for his early appearance at Egyptian Hall, London.
The Pictorial part of his Entertainment embraces
EIGHTEEN COLOSSAL PAINTINGS,
Faithfully photographing, on a gigantic scale, the Streets of Salt Lake City, and the singularly beautiful Valley of Utah. The accompanying descriptive lecture by Artemus Ward will be cheerful. The success of this entertainment has been so marked that it is, perhaps, proper to refer to it here. Commencing in the city of New York, it was given at Dodworth Hall for one hundred consecutive nights to densely crowded houses. Its success subsequently in Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Chicago and St. Louis was no less positive and brilliant.
Admission $1. Reserved Seats can be had at A. E. Blackmar's music store, 167 Canal street, without extra charge. Sale of seats will commence Thursday morning, Jan. 4.
Doors open at 7; commence at 8 o'clock. The Knabe piano used at Artemus Ward's entertainments is kindly furnished by Mr. Blackmar.

FOR SALE.........................FOR SALE.
THREE VALUABLE PLANTATIONS,
At Kentucky Landing, Bolivar County, Miss.
One of them contains about fifteen hundred and ninety acres, five hundred of which are cleared; one about seventeen hundred and fifty acres, seven hundred and fifty of which are cleared; and the third, eighteen hundred acres, three hundred of which are cleared. The two larger of these plantations adjoin each other; the other is separated from them by a very small tract. They can all be worked by the same hands and stock, and embrace the finest soil of the State. They are stocked and provided with everything found upon a well conducted plantation; having upon each of them large, comfortable dwellings, quarters, cisterns, out-houses and gins, (one of the latter run by steam,) and are protected by good and permanent levees, both in their front and rear, entirely surrounding them and causing them to be independent of all other levees, and secure from overflow from any quarter.
To the capitalist, desirous of a good investment, or parties wishing to secure valuable and productive property, these plantations will be found to be possessed of the best soil on the Mississippi River.
Terms will be made known by addressing me at Bolivar, Mississippi, or calling on S. Gallagher, Esq., No. 199 Gravier street, New Orleans, La.
