10 plates 7 feet long by 45 inches wide.
2 plates 10 feet long by 30 inches wide.
1 plate 10 feet 1 inches long by 30 inches wide.

The whole of the side armors to be made from the best iron, ends and edges to be square and straight and planed true to the sizes given. To be delivered in nine (9) months from the date of the contract.

The whole of the iron to be of a quality that will bear a tensile strain of twenty-two (22) United States tons to the square inch.

No bids will be received except from parties having establishments capable of doing this work, and their establishments will be examined before a contract will be awarded.

Parties can will be given on application to the Commandant of the Brooklyn, New-York, Navy-yard.

The contract will embrace the usual conditions, and the Department reserves the right to reject any or all the proposals that may be made under this advertisement if, in its opinion, the public interests require.

The proposition must state the price per pound for which each class of the iron will be delivered in the respective navy-yards, and must be accompanied by a guarantee that the parties will execute a contract if awarded to them.

NOTE.—The side armor of each vessel will be double the quantity of each size above named, that is, two hundred and ninety-two (292) plates in number.

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, 1863.

PROPOSALS FOR LEAD.—Sealed Proposals will be received at this office, until 4 o'clock p. m. on the 15th of December next, for the delivery of 2,000 or more tons of pure, soft Lead, suitable for Ordnance purposes.

The Lead is to be of approved quality, and to be delivered at any time within ninety days from the acceptance of the bid or bids. It is to be delivered at the United States Arsenal, Governor's Island, New-York, and at the United States Arsenal, St. Louis, Mo., 1,000 tons or more at each place, free of all charge for transportation or handling, and will be paid for by regular certificates of inspection and receipt, by requisition on the Treasury Department in the usual form.

Bids will be received for any portion of the quantity not less than 100 tons.

Bids, with approved sureties, will be required for the fulfilment of any contract that may be made in pursuance of this advertisement.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if not deemed satisfactory for any cause.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brigadier-General George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be indorsed, "Proposals for Lead."

GEORGE D. RAMSAY,
Brigadier-General, Chief of Ordnance.

ORDNANCE OFFICE, WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, Nov. 26, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this Office, until 4 p. m., on the 16th of December next, for the delivery of Cartridge Bags, Cartridges, Shot and Shell, in the following quantities, at the undermentioned arsenals, viz:

20,000 sets at the New-York Arsenal, Governor's Island.
20,000 sets at the Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia, Pa.
20,000 sets at the Allegheny Arsenal, Pittsburg, Pa.
20,000 sets at the St. Louis Arsenal, St. Louis, Mo.
10,000 sets at the U. S. Arsenal, Watertown, Mass.

These accoutrements are to be made in strict conformity with the regulation patterns, which can be seen at any of the above-named places, and they are to be subject to inspection at the arsenal where delivered, before being received by the Government; none to be accepted or paid for but such as are approved on inspection. The belts to be of grained leather, and all the stock to be the best oak tanned. The shoulder belt to be included in the set.

Deliveries must be made in lots of not less than 1,000 sets per week for all contracts of 10,000 sets or under; and not less than 2,000 sets per week on all contracts for over 10,000 sets; the first delivery to be made within fifteen days from date of contract. Failure to deliver at a specified time will subject the contractor to a forfeiture of the amount to be delivered at that time. The accoutrements must be boxed, in the usual style; the boxes to be charged at cost, to be determined by the inspector.

Bidders will state explicitly the arsenal or arsenals where they propose to deliver, and the number of sets they propose to deliver at each place, if for more than one.

No bids will be considered from parties other than regular manufacturers of the article, and such as are known to the Department to be fully competent to execute, in their own shops, the work proposed for. Each party obtaining a contract will be required to enter into bond, with approved surety, for its faithful execution.

The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, if not deemed satisfactory.

Proposals will be addressed to "Brigadier-General George D. Ramsay, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C.," and will be indorsed "Proposals for Infantry Accoutrements."

GEO. D. RAMSAY,
Brigadier-General, Chief of Ordnance.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited until the 22d day of December, 1863, at 12 M., for the HIDES, TALLOW, HOOFS and HORNS of all Government Cattle, slaughtered within the ancient limits of the District of Columbia, for three months or more from the commencement of the contract.

The above articles to be collected by the contractor, and removed from the various places at which the cattle are killed, at such times as may be designated by the officer in charge.

The contractor shall be liable for all the Hides and Tallow, Hoofs and Horns coming from every animal slaughtered, unless it can be made satisfactorily to appear to the Subsistence Department that all due exertion, diligence and care was made to obtain the said articles.

Payment will be required every ten days in Government funds.

Bids should be made in duplicate, and an oath of allegiance must accompany the bids.

The contractor will be held accountable for the Hides, &c., one week after the signing of the contract.

A Bond will be required upon the acceptance of the bid, for a faithful fulfillment of the contract.

Bids to be directed to Lieut. Col. G. BELL, C. S. U. S. A., Washington, D. C., and endorsed "Proposals for Hides and Tallow."

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,
ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 16, 1863.

PROPOSALS for HAY, STRAW, and GRAIN.—Written proposals are invited for furnishing HAY, STRAW, OATS, and CORN, for the use of the Government, to be delivered at Alexandria, Va., or any point on the Potomac or its tributaries, and in such quantities within the amount proposed for, and at such times, as the undersigned may direct.

The proposals to be addressed to the undersigned, and to state the quantity and price of each article offered.

Proposals will be received for five thousand (5,000) bushels of Corn or Oats, and fifty (50) tons of Hay or Straw and upward, unless it shall be for the interest of the Government to contract for a less amount.

Corn to be put up in good sacks of about two (2) bushels, and Oats in sacks of about three (3) bushels each, which are to be furnished free of charge to the Government. The Hay and Straw to be securely baled.

All articles furnished under this advertisement to be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government inspector.

Purchases will be made from time to time, under this advertisement, from the lowest responsible bidder, as the interests of the public service may require.

The undersigned reserves the right to reject any and all offers which may be deemed incompatible with the interests of the Government.

Payments will be made in such funds as may be provided from the United States Treasury, and, as far as practicable, upon delivery; but the undersigned reserves the right to withhold the whole or any part of the payments until the complete fulfillment of agreements.

Good security will be required for the faithful fulfillment of any agreement made under this advertisement.

COLLECTION OF PAINTINGS BY W. C. BOARDMAN, Esq.

D. W. IVES & Co. will sell at auction on Tuesday evening, December 8, at 7½ o'clock, at the Derby Gallery, No. 625 Broadway.

A collection of about one hundred paintings, representing American scenery, painted from nature by W. C. Boardman, esq., the well known landscape painter.

This interesting collection is the result of Mr. Boardman's studies from nature during the past three years, and will be found to abound in charming landscapes of various sizes, representing views in Maine, Vermont, New-Hampshire, New-York, Virginia, &c., of mountain, lake, river, forest and some beautiful coast scenes—which derive special interest from the extreme care and fidelity with which they are finished.

The whole of the collection is framed very richly and appropriately, and we take pleasure in requesting the attention of connoisseurs to these meritorious paintings. On exhibition day and evening, until sale, and catalogues ready.

JAMES M. MILLER, No. 23 Pine-st., New-York, will sell AT AUCTION, to close an estate, on THURSDAY, DEC. 10, AT 12 O'CLOCK, at the Merchants' Exchange Sales Rooms, No. 111 BROADWAY, 500 BEAUTIFULLY-SITUATED LOTS.

This sale will be positive, without regard to weather, and will be one of the best chances offered this year to procure well-located Lots at fair prices and liberal terms. This property will double in value immediately after the close of the war. IMPROVEMENTS ARE IN PROGRESS ON ALL SIDES OF IT.

Capitalists and families can make no better selection, as the location is high and healthy, scenery beautiful, water excellent, and access convenient to the city. These lots are located at UNION PLACE, near EAST NEW-YORK, on the Brooklyn and Jamaica Railroad, within three minutes' walk of the Depot.

For particulars and map, apply at the Office of the Auctioneer.
