New Orleans Daily Crescent.

New Orleans Money Market.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 34 CAMP STREET, Thursday Evening, Jan. 25, 1866.

The most prominent feature in the financial movement to-day was a still further advance in rates of Domestic Exchange.

GOLD opened at yesterday's closing quotations, 138½@140, and continued within these limits throughout the day. As heretofore, the market was simply supplied, but the demand was of a very restricted character, from the opening to the close. The following comprises the whole of the sales that have been authenticated to our satisfaction, viz: $3000, $1000, $5000, $5000, $6000, $10,000 and $20,000 at 139¾; $15,000 at 139½; $10,000 at 139¾, and $5000, $6000 and $2000 at 140. In Silver the movement was again confined to driblets, and no sales of importance transpired in either American or foreign coin. We still quote Gold at 138½@140, and Silver at 135@137 for American coin, and 133½@135½ for Mexican dollars.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE has exhibited no quotable variation to-day. The market was fairly supplied throughout, and the movement, as for several days past, was confined to only a few buyers. We subjoin the principal sales, viz: £4000 at 109¾ for Gold, £1000 at 147¾, £3500 at 147¼, £10,000 Liverpool Marginal credits taken by one bank at 148, £500, £2000 and £220 at 148¼, £7500 at 148¼@148⅜, and £8000 at 148½@148¾. In France the movement was rather free and the sales included 75,000f at 3.77½@3.78½f. for bank, 50,000f., 65,000f. and 100,000 at 3.80f. and 260,000f. taken by one bank, at the same figure, and 180,000 at 3.81½f. We still quote sterling at 149@149½ at bank clear bills 147@148, and bill of lading bills 145@146, and Francs at 3.75½f.@3.78½f. at bank, and 3.82½f.@3.85½f. in the out-door market.

DOMESTIC EXCHANGE has still further advanced to-day. The checking rate at bank was ¼ ⅌ cent. up to noon, but at that hour most of them put up the rate to ½ ⅌ cent., at which figure operations were subsequently effected up to the close of business. The counter demand was uniformly active and steady, and the outdoor supply, which exhibited a declining tendency, was taken by buyers at the annexed figures, viz.: $60,000 @ ¼ ⅌ cent. discount for New York sight; $125,000 do., taken by a bank, at ⅜@¼ ⅌ cent. discount; $25,000 and $65,000 at ⅜; $20,000 and $80,000 at 11-16; $30,000 at 9-16; $60,000, $80,000 and $70,000, the latter bank checks, at ⅝; $12,000 one day's sight at ½; $6000 5 days' at the same; $33,000 3 days' at ⅝; and $15,000 and $25,000 30 days' at 1¼ ⅌ cent. discount. The quotations at the close of business this evening are as follows: New York sight, ½@⅝ at bank, and 9-16@11-16 out o door; 5 to 10 days' sight, ⅝@1 ⅌ cent. discount; 15 to 20 days 1¼@1½ ⅌ cent. discount; and 30 days' 1¾ ⅌ cent. discount.

STOCKS and BONDS have been inactive to-day. Offerings were tight throughout, and the movement was restricted to 100 shares Carrollton Railroad at 6¼, by the party who sold 100 shares of the same yesterday at 6; per share; 35 shares City Railroad, with privilege and dividend at 18¾, and $12,000 City Bonds to Railroads at 80.

UNCURRENT BANK NOTES have been almost wholly neglected since our last. The market was but nominally supplied at best, and the only sale that has been satisfactorily verified for us was one of $2000 Union Bank and Bank of New Orleans, mixed, at 80c. We still quote Crescent Bank, Bank New Orleans and Union Bank, at 85@90c; Merchants' Bank, 75@77c., and State Bank, 72@75c. ⅌ dollar.

Commercial Intelligence.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 34 CAMP STREET, Thursday Evening, Jan. 25, 1866.

COTTON—The market opened this morning with a rather active and general demand, which having been freely met by factors at yesterday's closing rates, resulted in sales before 2 o'clock P. M. of 3375 bales, divided among buyers in the following order, viz: 1000, 600, 600, 300, 200, 200, 150, 100, 100, 100, 75, 70 and 25 bales. The Press dispatches published in the evening papers brought operations to a stand still however, and consequently no business was transacted, so far as we have been able to ascertain. The dispatches referred to above report a decline of ¼@1d. ⅌ lb. in cotton at Liverpool on the 12th instant, with sales for the week ending that day only 50,000 bales, the latter evidently being an error. Advices of this morning from the New York market also came to hand, but they were of too ambiguous a character to have any effect upon the market. In a day or two we may probably feel the influence of the Liverpool news, but thus far it has only developed a more general determination on the part of factors to resist further concessions. We would repeat yesterday's quotations as having been the rates at which the principal movement was transacted to-day, but it is hardly necessary to add, that in the present condition of the market, they cannot be regarded as better than nominal, viz: ordinary, 36@40c.; good ordinary, 43@44c.; low middling, 46@47c., and middling, 49@49c.

STATEMENT OF COTTON.

Stock on hand Sept. 1st, 1865—bales	83,239
Received since yesterday	5,141
Received previously	446,973—452,114
	535,353
Exported since yesterday	1,959
Exported previously	350,357—352,407
Stock on hand and on shipboard not cleared	183,046

SUGAR AND MOLASSES—The receipts since yesterday comprise 103 hhds. Sugar and 281 bbls. and 84 half bbls. Molasses. A good demand has prevailed for both Sugar and Molasses, at very stiff prices, with sales of 200 hhds. of the former 13c. for common, 13½c. for fair, 14½c. for fair to good fair, 6@15c. for seconds, and 15½c. ⅌ lb. for strictly prime; and the latter about 400 barrels at 85c. for prime, 50c. for strictly fine, and 84c. ⅌ gallon for choice, also 60 half barrels on private terms.

WESTERN PRODUCE—The market for Flour is not quite firm as it was yesterday, while grain exhibits no alteration whatever. We append the particulars of to-day's transactions: FLOUR—Only a moderate demand prevailed to-day with sales of about 1800 bbls. at $7 25@$7 50 for fine, $8@8 25 for prime, $9 50@11 for extra, and $12 ⅌ bbl. for choice do., and yesterday, not previously reported, 1000 bbls. at about the above range.

CORN—We noticed a good demand both for the local trade and for shipment, with sales of about 8500 sacks, including 700 white, yellow and mixed, on private terms, 1575 mixed at 1 05, 1500 yellow at $1 10, and 1250 white at $1 15 ⅌ bushel.

OATS—The transactions comprise 1000 sacks at 90c. ⅌ bushel.

BRAN—We heard of sales of about 575 sacks, comprising 275 and 300 sacks at $1 70 ⅌ 100 lbs.

HAY—There was some little movement to-day, resulting in sales of some 700 bales Western at $25 ⅌ ton.

PROVISIONS—We notice only a jobbing trade at yesterday's rates for mess Pork, while Bacon and Lard command premium figures. We append the particulars of to-days' business.

PORK—The stock of old is nearly exhausted and new is retailing at $33 ⅌ bbl. We noticed a sale to-day of 150 bbls. full weight at $31 75 ⅌ bbl. Prime Mess is scarce, and commands $30 ⅌ bbl.

BACON—Prices exhibit little or no alteration. Ribbed sides are scarce. Shoulders and clear sides are in fair supply, and command 14@15c. for the former, and 20c. ⅌ lb for the latter. Plain hams 19@20c., and sugar cured 25@25½c. ⅌ lb.

LARD—The market is quiet. Retail parcels are selling at 18½@19c. ⅌ lb. for prime in tierces, and 19½@20c. ⅌ lb. in kegs; 18c. was offered and refused for round lots of prime in tierces.

COFFEE—Dealers are supplying the demand at 20c. for ordinary, 22@23½c. for fair, and 24c. ⅌ lb., currency, for prime to choice Rio.

WHISKY—Rectified is selling in a small way at $2 35 ⅌ gallon.

SUNDRIES—We quote Western Butter at 30@40c.; Northern do. at 45@50c. ⅌ lb.; Northern Cheese 20@23c.; English Dairy 24@25c. ⅌ lb. Full weights Star Candles 24@25c.; short weight do 20@21c. ⅌ lb. Soap 10@15c., and Starch 13@15c.

GUNNY BAGS—There is but little demand. A few small lots are selling at 30c. for second, and 33c. spiece for new.

ESCULENTS—Potatoes are selling at $4@4 10, Onions at $3 50@4, and Apples at $4@7 ⅌ bbl.

BAGGING AND ROPE—There is no movement whatever. Quotations are merely nominal, and for the present we omit them.

FREIGHTS—Owing to the abundant offerings of steamship accommodation coastwise, freights by sailing vessels cannot be reported as much better than nominal. The rate for Cotton to New York by steam is 1c., and to Boston 1⅛c. ⅌ lb. Freight agents ask ⅝@1c. for Cotton by sailing vessels to the above ports. The rate, by steamship to Liverpool is 1d., at which Alabama is now loading. By sailing vessels the rate to Liverpool is rather firm at 11-16@¾d. and to Havre at 1⅝c. There is no Flour going forward to the North, or to Europe, and we therefore omit quotations for that article, as they are only calculated to mislead parties interested.
