Before it is finally decided upon who SHALL be the next candidate, and certainly before another Election, the people owe it to themselves and that they make themselves much better acquainted with his early life and history than they now are.

TO THEIR COUNTRY

TO DO THIS

they have only to read

We have perused the proof sheets of a very well written and attractive novel entitled "The Rival Volunteers;" or, "The Black Plume Rifles," a story of the present War, by Mrs. Mary A. TWICE LOST—A Novel.

There is something refreshing in a book like this. It is irresistible.

Read one chapter, and you cannot leave it. It's a novel without a superfluous word or common-place expression.

Style, narrative and characterization are all impressed with the signs of mental and moral force, and the originality of the writer's mind stands unmistakeable as its vigor.

Five minutes with Mrs. Pritchard at the mill are more than five pages of description in ordinary novels.

In fact, every character in the book is a character from the theory, quick witted Giuseppe to mis—used Maud and her quasi-father.

The I of the book, the lady who goes out governessing is the ideal of a true woman if not a model governess.

We heartily recommend this novel as a wide-awake companion for these Winter evenings, and a capital book for "reading aloud."

Handsomely printed. Price 50 cents.

The "2d Quality" are superior to any Pens made by him previous to the year 1860.

The "3d Quality" he intends shall equal in respect to Durability, Elasticity and Good Writing Qualities (the only true considerations) any Gold Pens made elsewhere.

In regard to the Cheap Gold Pens, he begs leave to say that, previous to operating his New and Patented Machines, he could not have made as Good Writing and Durable Pens, for the price, had the Gold been furnished gratuitously.

Parties ordering must in all instances specify the "Name" or the "Number" and "Quality" of the Pens wanted, and be particular to describe the kind they prefer—whether stiff or limber, coarse or fine.

All remittances sent by mail in registered letters are at my risk; and to all who send twenty cents (charge for registering), in addition to the price of goods ordered, I will guaranty their safe delivery.

Parties sending Gold or Silver will be allowed the full premium on the day received.
