IS PUBLISHED THIS DAY.

Price 50 cents.

HE RED TRACK.

THE RED TRACK.

THE RED TRACK.

BY GUSTAVE AIMARD,

Author of "The Prairie Flower."

THE RED TRACK—By GUSTAVE AIMARD, author of "The Prairie Flower," "The Indian Scout," "The Trail Hunter," etc., is published THIS DAY by T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, No. 306 Chestnut-st., Philadelphia, and is for sale by all Booksellers and News Agents everywhere, complete in one large octavo volume, large type, double column, and printed on the finest and best of white paper. Price 50 cents a copy.

NOTICE.—Gustave Aimard was the adopted son of one of the most powerful Indian tribes, with whom he lived for more than fifteen years, in the heart of the prairies, sharing their dangers and their combats and accompanying them everywhere, rifle in one hand and tomahawk in the other. In turn squatter, hunter, trapper, warrior, Chanfrasino, or silver, Gustave Aimard has traversed America from the highest peaks of the Cordilleras to the ocean shores, living from hand to mouth, happy for the day, careless of the morrow. Hence it is that Gustave Aimard does not write romances, but describes his own life. The Indians of whom he speaks he has known—the manners he depicts were his own.

THE NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.

RUBINA.

SECOND EDITION READY THIS MORNING.

"Rubina" is a "character" novel, by a new hand, who promises to take high rank as a delineator of New-England life and manners. It is photographic in its exact delineation of life and character, and, like all faithful and realistic pictures of manners, possesses a great charm. The N. Y. Albion, the most critical of critical Journals, thus speaks of it:

"Its description of domestic affairs in a genuine New-England rural home are surprisingly true and graphic, while its leading characters are drawn with such firmness, consistency, and careful finish, that they seem photographed from life itself. The author is certainly gifted with an unusual faculty for observation of circumstances, and for analyzing character."

One vol. 12mo. cloth. Price, $1 50. Mailed free of postage on receipt of price.

[See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority, from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $500 each.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also, in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.

STEINWAY & SONS' GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical piano-forte makers (father and four sons), who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms Nos. 71 and 73 East Fourteenth-st., between Union Square and Irving Place, New-York.
