THE NEW VOLUME OF POEMS.

LYRICS OF A DAY.

By a Volunteer in the U. S. Service.

"Unheralded by startling title or flaming advertisement, this new poetic star in the literary firmament is gaining rapidly the praise of every reader of true poetry."

The Hartford Press says: "Many of these poems have been dashed off at a heat, upon the spur of the occasion, but in nervous force and fire, and compactness of expression, in pathos and tenderness, in vigor and clearness, in rugged manly grasp, and felicity of wording, they have not been excelled by any poet of late years."

An elegantly printed 12mo., cloth. $1.

"AS FASCINATING as a ROMANCE and as MARVELOUS as an ARABIAN TALE."

A HISTORY OF JOHN LAW,
AND
THE MISSISSIPPI BUBBLE.
BY ADOLPH THIERS,
The Distinguished French Historian.

John Law was the Napoleon of Finance. He introduced the first bank into France, revolutionized the financial affairs of the country, and inaugurated an era of great apparent prosperity, which gradually led into the wildest speculations, and eventuated in terrible financial ruin and misery. The celebrated Mississippi Bubble was the most famous of the many schemes of the time. The incidents connected with that era of remarkable expansion are as strange and as fascinating as those of romance.

"The object of the present volume is to indicate the character, and, approximately, the extent of the changes produced by human action in the physical conditions of the globe we inhabit; to point out the dangers of imprudence, and the necessity of caution in all operations which, on a large scale, interfere with the spontaneous arrangements of the organic or the inorganic world; to suggest the possibility and the importance of the restoration of disturbed harmonies, and the material improvement of waste and exhausted regions; and, incidentally, to illustrate the doctrine that man is, in both kind and degree, a power of a higher order than any of the forms of animated life which, like him, are nourished at the table of bounteous Nature."

The present Number completes the Twenty-Eighth Volume of HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

In the next number, opening the Twenty-Ninth Volume, will appear the commencement of a new Novel by Mr. CHARLES DICKENS, entitled "OUR MUTUAL FRIEND," which, by special arrangement with the Author (at a cost to us of Eight Thousand Dollars), will be issued in the Magazine simultaneously with its publication in England. That number will also contain the conclusion of Mr. ANTHONY TROLLOPE'S "Small House at Allington," and a continuation of Mr. THACKERAY'S "Denis Duval."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE has contained several of the Best Serial Novels of Bulwer, Dickens, Thackeray, Lever, Trollope, Reade, Miss Evans, and Miss Mulock, besides Essays, Tales, and Poems from the foremost American and British writers.

Historical and Biographical Papers, especially those relating to American subjects, have formed a distinctive feature of the Magazine.

The results of the Explorations and Adventures of the most distinguished travelers have been presented in careful abstracts.

The Editorial Departments comprise a careful summary of the history of the times, with comments upon the current topics of thought and remark.

Wherever Pictorial Illustrations could add to the value or interest of an article, they have been freely used. The Magazine has contained nearly nine thousand engravings.

The Magazine gained at once the foremost place among American periodicals; and its circulation has for years exceeded, as it now exceeds, that of all other periodicals of its class issued in the United States. No effort or cost will be spared by the Publishers to insure that the Magazine shall maintain the position which it has won.

The Twenty-Eight Volumes of the Magazine contain matter equivalent to nearly three hundred duodecimo volumes. Most of this is of permanent value. A complete set of the Magazine will, therefore, be a desirable acquisition to any private, public, or school library. The publishers will furnish these in sets, neatly bound in Cloth, for Two Dollars and Twenty-five Cents per Volume—$53 for the whole, not Cash, the freight to be paid by the purchaser. The same amount of matter, with an equal number of illustrations, issued in ordinary volumes, would cost fully Four Hundred Dollars. Any single volume will be sent by mail, postpaid, to any part of the United States, for Three Dollars; or any single Number for Twenty-five Cents.

A BRILLIANT NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.

DANGERFIELD'S REST;
OR, BEFORE THE STORM.
A NOVEL OF AMERICAN LIFE AND MANNERS.
1 vol., large 12mo. Price $1 50.
This will be a most interesting story, and will give a most powerful sketch of American Life and Manners previous to the Great Rebellion. It is the production of a polished and experienced pen, qualified, by much travel, experience and literary practice in other walks of literature, to attempt an elaborate story of American Life, Politics, Letters and Factions, whose clashing led to the "Great Rebellion." This work, we believe, will prove the most brilliant Novel of the year.
