SCRIBNER'S NEW BOOKS.
No. 124 GRAND-ST., New-York.

I.
AMERICA AND HER COMMENTATORS,
with a critical Sketch of Travel in the United States. By Henry T. Tuckerman. 1 vol. crown 8vo. $2 50.
"The works written about this country already form such an immense library that a one reader can ever hope to master them. With praiseworthy industry and boldness, Mr. Tuckerman has condensed into one volume, enriched with the results of his own reflections and experience, the gist of what has been written by foreigners about ourselves and our land. There are few writers better suited for such a task. To a cultivated and experienced discrimination he adds the results of long culture, extensive reading and travel, judicial impartiality, and a happy facility with the pen."—[N. Y. Evening Post.

II.
DEAN TRENCH'S NEW WORK.
SECOND PART OF
SYNONYMS OF THE NEW TESTAMENT.
1 vol. 12mo. $1 25.
From The London Athenæum.
A continuation of a preceding work on the same subject, and is executed in the same manner. Dean Trench has a happy art of seizing the peculiarities of words, and presenting them simply and neatly to the apprehension of the reader.

III.
THOUGHTS FOR THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.
By the Rev. Jas. Drummond, with an introduction by Dr. J. G. Holland. 1 vol. 12mo. $1 50.
Dr. Holland in his introduction says: "In intellectual power and quality Mr. Drummond was not only an uncommon man but an uncommon style of man. He was an original thinker—a man whose estimates never could be predicted from the texts which formed their subjects."

IV.
DR. BUSHNELL'S NEW WORK.
WORK AND PLAY; Or, Literary Varieties.
In 1 vol. 12mo. $1 50. Uniform with "Sermons for New Life," "Christian Nurture."
"A variety of themes, which are treated with that calm, philosophical, and scholastic habit of thought for which the author is distinguished. No one can read him without having his mind newly furnished with the results of a deep thinker's study."—[N. Y. Observer.

V.
MR. MARSH'S NEW WORK.
MAN AND NATURE; Or, Physical Geography, as Modified by Human Action.
Uniform with "Lectures on the English Language." 1 vol., octavo. Cloth, $3 50; half calf, $6.
"The treatise embodies a valuable store of classified facts and of governing principles in the physical world deduced from them. It is written in a style perfectly intelligible to the reader of ordinary information, and will prove an extremely valuable contribution to popular scientific literature."—[Hartford Courant.

VI.
MR. HEADLEY'S NEW WORK.
CHAPLAINS OF THE REVOLUTION
in 1 vol. 12mo. 450 pages. Uniform with "Washington and his Generals," "Napoleon and his Marshals," &c. Price $1 50.
"Mr. Headley has devoted the present volume to the commemoration of those noble spirits whose bold, patriotic appeals helped to enkindle the hearts of the people with the fires of freedom. He has collected from various sources a great amount of information on the subject, often of a rare and curious character, which he has wrought up into a series of interesting biographical sketches."—[N. Y. Tribune.

VII.
MRS. C. M. KIRKLAND'S NEW WORK.
THE SECOND SERIES OF THE SCHOOL GARLAND.
A selection of Poetry, adapted to different ages. In 1 vol., 16mo. $1 25; in full gilt, $2. Uniform with the first series in size and price.
"A collection of poems, suitable for the purposes of reading, &c., has long been felt, and has called forth the 'School Garland' from a lady acquainted, by personal experience, with the requisites that are needed to adapt a book of the kind to these uses, and most competent in every respect to supply them."—[N. Y. Times.

NO NOVEL has been published that takes a stronger hold upon its readers than MAINSTONE'S HOUSEKEEPER.
The characters in it are so strongly marked that they become real flesh and blood, and call out your heartiest sympathy or hate.
The action is spirited, the probable result artfully concealed till the suspense is almost unendurable.
The HEROINE is a noble one, and does her appointed work so beautifully that you can never forget her.
THE REAL HERO is a second "John Halifax," a noble, manly man, that every one honors and reveres.
"I shall be greatly disappointed if this novel does not take rank among the few really great ones which live for years and years," said one of our most eminent scholars to me, and the same sentiment and emphatic praise is bestowed upon it by every discriminating reader.
This is indorsement worth having.
Every New-York Wholesaler or Retailer has it.

FROM THE PRESS OF J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co.:

I.
THE FEDERALIST,
As Revised and Corrected by Madison & Hamilton.
Just published, an entirely new edition of The Federalist, printed from the texts revised and corrected by James Madison and Alexander Hamilton, including also The Continental Text, and other papers by Hamilton. Edited, with an Historical Notice of the formation of the Constitution and of the origin and authorship of the respective numbers of the Federalist, by John C. Hamilton, Author of the "History of the Republic of the United States," and Editor for Congress of "The Works of Hamilton." In 1 vol. 8 vo.

II.
HAMILTON'S
HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.
New Edition.
The History of the Republic of the United States of America, as traced in the Writings of Alexander Hamilton. By his son, John C. Hamilton. In 7 vols. 8vo.
Vol. VII. now first published; uniform with a new edition of the preceding vols.
The seventh volume, embracing the periods of the administration of John Adams and part of that of Jefferson, has at this time much interest, as a development by Hamilton of the origin of the existing rebellion, with monitory suggestions for its prevention. It closes with the death of Hamilton.

III.
WICKERSHAM'S SCHOOL ECONOMY.
A Treatise on the Preparation, Organization, Employments, Government, and Authorities of Schools. By James Pyle Wickersham, A. M., Principal of the Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersville. 12mo. $1 25.
From The Literary Gazette.
"No one can read a page of the volume without receiving the impression that it is the offspring of earnest devotion to the highest interests of Education, viewed as an art based upon the observation of facts and the apprehension of principles. Its perusal by teachers, school officers, and parents will effect a great deal of good, and the author should by all means give us the additional volumes which he intimates are in preparation. He has entered upon a good field in the department of Literature, and he is admirably entitled to the it."

IV.
SCRIBNER'S LAW OF DOWER.
A Treatise on the Law of Dower, embracing the Common Law and the Statutory Provisions and Judicial Decisions of England and the several United States upon that subject. By Charles H. Scribner, Attorney at Law. In two vols. 8vo. (Vol. I. ready.)

Embellished with more than 400 engravings from original designs made expressly for this work. By Edward Mayhew, M. R. C. V. S., author of "The Illustrated Horse Doctor" and other works. 1 vol. 8vo.

VI.
MAYHEW'S HORSE DOCTOR.
NEW EDITION.
The Illustrated Horse Doctor; with more than 400 pictorial representations of the various diseases to which the equine race is subjected; together with the latest mode of treatment, and all the requisite prescriptions written in plain English. By Rdw. Mayhew, M. R. C. V. S. 1 vol. 8vo.
From The London Globe.
"Every gentleman who possesses or cares for Horses would do well to keep this book in his house. Mr. Mayhew's treatment of the worst diseases to which horses are liable is very clearly laid down, and the method of keeping horses well and to a prolonged old age is that of nature, of common sense."

READY THIS MORNING!
A very choice, old-time Story constitutes
BEADLE'S DIME NOVELS, No. 69, ready for delivery this morning, viz:
THE BRIGANTINE;
OR, ADMIRAL LOWE'S LAST CRUISE.
This highly pleasing story takes us back to the years 1777-8, when the Dutch held undisputed sway on Manhattan Island. Its leading character is the celebrated "Admiral" Lowe, an episode of whose romantic history is here portrayed, and along with it the story of his daughter, a maid of great beauty and purity. The picture of Dutch New-York—of its people, its habits, its customs—is very striking, while the romance, as such, is one of unusual freshness.

NOW READY—Price 75 Cents.
PEOPLE'S EDITION OF PARTON'S
GENENAL BUTLER IN NEW-ORLEANS.
One volume, octavo, paper, price 75 cents.
With the view of meeting the extensive popular demand for this remarkable book, this edition has been prepared. The page and type are similar to those of Harper's Magazine. Some of the less important documents are omitted, and in some instances the account has been condensed, yet never so as to interfere with the interest or completeness of the story.
Unquestionably this book stands preeminent in interest among all yet occasioned by the Rebellion. Its subject and author combine to render it fascinating. Fifteen editions have been called for as fast as they could be printed. It has been most warmly commended by the loyal press of the country, and scarcely less so by a portion at least of the English press, by whom it is acknowledged to be a complete vindication of Gen. Butler from the malicious charges which envy and hatred have brought against him.
It contains an anecdotal sketch of Gen. Butler's brilliant and remarkable career at the bar of Massachusetts; a history of the secret movements in the Charleston Convention; conversations between Gen. Butler and the leading Secessionists at Washington in December, 1860; the real plans of the traitors; Gen. Butler invited to join them; his advice to Buchanan; his efforts in preparing Massachusetts for war; the celebrated march via Annapolis to Washington; his eight march to Baltimore; collision with Gen. Scott; his course at Fortress Monroe; the history of the contrabands; his advice to the Administration how to take Richmond; the truth about the battle of Great Bethel; the Hatteras Expedition; THE SECRET HISTORY OF THE NEW-ORLEANS EXPEDITION; the adventures of the General in getting up Ship Island; A FULL ACCOUNT OF THE CAPTURE OF NEW-ORLEANS; the landing of the troops in the city; A COMPLETE NARRATIVE OF SUCCEEDING EVENTS, with a large number of highly interesting narratives and anecdotes never before published; the recall of General Butler, and the explanation given of it by the Government; his present opinions upon the great issues before us.
Edition in large type, crown, 8vo., cloth, 652 pages, price $2 50. People's Edition, 8vo., paper 75 cents. German Edition $1. Sent by mail on receipt of price.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.
A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST,
NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW-YORK,
are the owners of the Patent and Exclusive Manufacturers of this.
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED "DUPLEX ELLIPTIC" STEEL SPRING SKIRTS.
This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic flexible and durable Spring ever used, enabling the wearer in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to Hoop Skirts, viz: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them and occupying a small space; this entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this city and throughout the different States.
