LOCAL ITEMS.

GONE.—John Peoples who was to have appeared before Justice Stoutenburgh on Thursday evening, to be sentenced for assault on a woman, is supposed to have gone to "fresh fields and pastures new," and forfeited his bonds of $500. Fare thee well Oh! Peoples, and when thou art far away—we pray thee stay there. Oh, remember this spot where thou dids't win thy many laurels, and remember too that when thou dost come back, the judges of the land will greet thee and the high officers of the country will go forth to receive thee with open arms, and protect thee from the gaze of the vulgar and the plots of the wicked, within their great castle of stone and iron. Many, many more like thee follow on thy way, for indeed thou hast done much for the people.

PLEADINGS IN THE DISTRICT COURT.—Yesterday, at 10 a. m., W. H. Thatcher and Jeff. Howard pleaded not guilty to the indictments made against them by the Grand Jury. The other prisoners who are to plead will do so to-day. Their names are: W. S. Ferguson, Jas. Harrington, Owen Ferguson, Geo. Lambert, Henry Wilcox, Jas. Castello, David Leahy, Jos. L. Jacobs, Wm. Menlenhy, Rosa Stein. At 3 p. m. the Court met, but no business being brought up, it adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

SIDEWALKS.—The owners of several buildings on the west side of Main street near Lacour, are putting down new sidewalks. There are now many property owners on nearly all of our business streets who may profit by this example. The sidewalks in some places are not only an offense to the eye, and a disgrace to the town, but are really dangerous.

PERSONAL.—Sam'l L. Wallace, for some months connected with the Deseret Telegraph office here, takes his departure by this morning's stage for Salt Lake. Mr. Wallace, by his affability and courtesy to all with whom he has been thrown in business or social contact, has made many friends. He will not return again for some weeks.

FUN AHEAD.—Schultz announces that on Tuesday evening Pioneer Hall will be devoted to Terpsichorean amusements, and invites all his friends and their friends and acquaintances to call around at the old stamping ground on Meadow Valley street.

THEATER.—To-night will be presented at Hanly's Hall, "Pocahontas, the Genteel Savage" and the well known play "The Spectre Bridegroom." All who wish to spend a pleasant evening should attend.

NOTICE.—Hereafter all notices of births, marriages and deaths must be accompanied by the name of some responsible person, or they will not be published in the RECORD. tf

WALLAPAI.—Wm. White and Dan. Holloway left Pioche some days ago for Wallapai District. We hope to hear from them occasionally.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Result Probably Fatal.

Last night at about twenty minutes past 9 o'clock, another horrible murder was committed in the streets of Pioche. The facts in the case are as follows: Morgan Courtney, the Superintendent of the Kentucky mine, stepped out of the Mint Saloon, kept by John Wilson, and walked down the street a distance of about ten paces, when a man named George McKinney, said to be of the lower order of gamblers, shot him in the back with a pistol, firing two shots in rapid succession. Courtney then ran away a short distance, in order that he might be able to defend himself. This, however, he was not able to do, on account of the rapid firing of McKinney. McKinney discharged six shots, being arrested by officer J. R. Hoge just as he fired the last shot. Even after he had discharged the whole six charges and his victim lay on the ground, he continued to snap his pistol, which is a self-cocking one. Courtney was carried into the drugstore of Dr. D. L. Deal, where his wounds were examined by Dr. Bergstein. When our reporter entered the drugstore the man lay upon his back on the floor. Four bullet wounds were visible, on his breast, neck and stomach from which the burning and bloody clothes had been torn and cut. He was afterwards turned over in order that he might feel easier, and five wounds were found in his back

The most fatal one was between the shoulders about three-fourths of an inch to the right of the spinal column, going obliquely to the left and coming out through the breast-plate. Another, which would probably have killed him, went in about ten inches lower down and about an inch to the left of the spinal column, coming out a little lower down on the left side. Three other shots were fired.

Dr. Bergstein told Courtney that his case was utterly hopeless and that if he had any statement to make then was the time to make it. He shook his head. Afterwards, however, when Deputy District Attorney McDonald came in he made, in substance the following statement, part of it being elicited by questions:

Jim. McKinney shot me the shot me in the back—I started to run away in order to defend myself, but he shot so fast——[Here the man vomited a quantity of blood. Just then Rev. Father Monteverde came in, and the rest having withdrawn he administered to Courtney the last sacrament.] Frank Cleveland gave him the pistol—Georgie Syphers told me. I did not shoot McKinney at all. I did not get my pistol out until he shot six shots.

The words of Courtney were taken by our reporter.

Dr. Bergstein, the examining physician, gave the opinion that the wounds would prove fatal without doubt. At five minutes to eleven o'clock Courtney still retained possession of his senses.

The shooting was done with a Whistle's patent English pistol. Every chamber of Courtney's pistol was loaded when we saw it after the shooting was done.

McKinney was arrested, and for a few moments a large crowd followed swiftly after the officers, but dropped off one by one. In to-morrow's issue we will give further particulars.

The Town Government at Carson.

From the Appeal we learn that the Board of Commissioners for Ormsby county have enacted a number of ordinances for the government of Carson City. Such ordinances ought to be passed by our County Commissioners and applied to Pioche. A summary of these ordinances shows that—

Number 1 fixes the time when all ordinances shall take effect—namely, ten days after their passage.

No. 2 prescribes the style of conducting suits, in the name of the town, against offenders, etc.

No. 3 is in regard to fines, licenses and taxes.

No. 4 relates to the funds of the town and the payment of claims against it.

No. 5 is enacted for the purpose of defining, punishing and preventing nuisances.

No. 6 provides for a dog license.

No. 7 is intended to prevent and punish drunkenness and other disorderly conduct.

No. 8 contains some excellent precautionary measures preventive of the destruction of property by fire.

No. 9 provides for the impounding of such animals as are by ordinance not permitted to run at large.

GRAND JURY.—This being the last day of the Grand Jury now in session, a final report will be handed in to-day and the members discharged. If there be any unfinished business it will have to be referred to a new Grand Jury.

RAYMOND & ELY.—The stock of this mine is gaining ground in the San Francisco Stock Board. For the past three days the quotations of Raymond & Ely have been as follows: July 30th, $55@55½; July 31st, $55@60; August 1st, $64@72½,s30.

RAIN.—Yesterday evening we were blessed with a light shower of rain, coming from the northeast, and making the air cool and agreeable. The rain seemed to be falling in the mountains to the north and east nearly all the afternoon.

LATE—Yesterday evening the Hamilton stage came in somewhat later than usual. We have not been informed by what the delay was caused.

AUGUST TERM.—The August Term of the District Court commences on Monday.

THERE were no passengers at Hamilton for Pioche yesterday.

THE Pioche Engine and Hose Company meet at 8 o'clock this evening.

THE Japan Gazette says: "A contemporary, the Japan Herald, states that it is confidently maintained in official circles that the Government intends to open the whole country to foreigners immediately after the return of Iwakura and the chiefs of the mission from Europe, not leaving it for settlement until the revision of the treaties. Our own information does not confirm this statement entirely, but there is no doubt that the Government is anxious to see the country opened, if they see the way to do it with safety to the foreigners. It is a matter which must be cautiously done, as there are still many provinces in the interior where foreigners have never been seen, and where all the old prejudices exist in the fullest intensity. Care is therefore necessary."

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON.—The following information concerning the condition of the Vice President is from the Alta of July 29, and was telegraphed from Washington City on the 28th:

Private advices received here confirm the report that has been published regarding the condition of the Vice President. His face is represented as somewhat distorted, and he has partly lost the power of speech. He is at present under a severe regimen of diet, the disposition of nearly every hour in the day being provided for by his physicians.
