A REPORT
OF THE
PROCEEDINGS
IN THE
SECRET SESSIONS
OF THE
CONFERENCE CONVENTION
FOR PROPOSING AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, HELD AT
WASHINGTON, D. C., IN FEBRUARY, A. D. 1861.
BY
L. E. CHITTENDEN,
one of the Delegates.
1 vol. 8vo, cloth; 626 pages. Price, $5.

BOSTON, April 20, 1864.

L. E. CHITTENDEN, ESQ.—DEAR SIR: I was well aware that you were taking notes of the proceedings of the Peace Convention during its sittings in Washington in 1861, and I well remember your constant attendance, and the closeness with which you watched those proceedings, and the diligence with which you took minutes of the various speeches there made, and the interest manifested by you to take down every thing that was said and done. You frequently spoke of your intention to have as complete a report of the debates as it was possible for you to obtain, and I think it was generally understood at the time, that you had done so. Many persons have asked me if there was ever to be a published report of the proceedings to whom I have replied that I believed you had it in your power to produce one of a satisfactory character, and that I thought you would some day publish it, and I am pleased to learn that you are about to do so. Very truly, yours, F. B. CROWNINSHIELD.

WASHINGTON, April 19, 1864.

SIR: I am gratified by the information that you propose to publish a report of the proceedings and debates of the Peace Congress. It so happened that I was informed during the session of that assembly, that you were engaged in taking full notes, and it is a matter of political and historical importance that a truthful account should be given to the world. I know of no one except yourself who is at all prepared to furnish such an account. Very truly, GEO. S. BOUTWELL.

Hon. L. E. CHITTENDEN, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, April 17, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: I am truly gratified to learn that you contemplate giving to the public your report of the transactions of the Conference, or Peace Convention of 1861.

Your efforts to secure an authentic record of the proceedings I deemed important at the time, and am sure they cannot fail to be appreciated in the light of events that have since transpired. From the manuscript shown me, I think the debates are given with commendable accuracy. Yours truly and sincerely, L. M. MORRILL.

L. E. CHITTENDEN, ESQ.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, April 21, 1864.

MY DEAR SIR: I am glad to learn that you propose to publish your notes of the proceedings of the Peace Conference of 1861. I well remember your assiduity in taking those notes, and have no doubt that their publication will form an important contribution to history. The fidelity with which you reproduced, a few months since, the only speech of any length made by me in that body, surprised me. If your whole report proves equally correct, it will be as accurate as it will be interesting and important. Yours very truly, S. P. CHASE.

Hon. L. E. CHITTENDEN.

MYTHOLOGY.
BY THOMAS BULFINCH.
IN THREE VOLUMES.
AGE OF FABLES;
AGE OF CHIVALRY;
LEGENDS OF CHARLEMAGNE.
The only complete and standard work of the kind extant. These volumes are elegantly illustrated, on tinted paper, and bound in muslin, half-calf, library, and Turkey antique.

[From Admiral Davis, U. S. Navy.]

The Age of Chivalry, or Legends of King Arthur and his Knights, is a most interesting book, containing the mingled historical and romantic pictures of early European society. It has been in the hands of Mrs. Davis and myself, and of the children, ever since I received it. I thank you for the present of the book, and for the pleasure I have had in its perusal; but I think the author still more for the good and generous influences his writings exert upon the impressible minds of my boys, who derive from them sentiments of honor and courage such as in all times and societies constitute the distinction of gentlemen. Sincerely yours,
CHARLES HENRY DAVIS.

Also, just published, by the same author as above:
POETRY OF THE AGE OF FABLE.
A small volume, elegantly illustrated, on tinted paper, in green vellum, half-calf, cabobb Morocco, and antique. A dainty presentation volume.

TEN-CENT PUBLISHING HOUSE FOR THE MILLION.—Ready this morning, MUNRO'S Ten-Cent Novel, No 23, "THE IMPS OF THE PRAIRIE." By the Author of "Long-Legged Joe," "Rattlesnake Dick," &c. This vigorous and popular author has even excelled his former works in this novel. The subject is itself one of the most exciting. The contest between the Tomahawk and the Shillelah is described in a vein peculiar to the author, and should be read by every man, woman, and child in the country.

The following is a list of this Series of Novels, which for popularity and real literary merit is unequalled by any of the numerous cheap publications in the market. Let every one judge for himself:

NEW SKIRT FOR 1864.
A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
J. I. & J. O. WEST,
NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW-YORK,
are the owners of the Patent and Exclusive Manufacturers of this
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED "DUPLEX ELLIPTIC" STEEL SPRING SKIRT.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable Spring ever used, enabling the wearer in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness to place and feel the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to Hoop Skirts, viz: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them and occupying a small space; this entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this city and throughout the different States.
