THE FIRST SERIES OF $2,000,000 REDEMPTION BONDS, bearing 6 per cent. interest, and payable in 1869, have been exchanged for Construction Bonds. The Directors, by resolution this day, have decided to issue another series of $2,000,000, under the same mortgage, upon the road and appurtenances, which are offered at 110 per cent, in exchange for Construction Bonds at 130 per cent, making a difference of 10 per cent, in favor of the Construction Bonds.
This arrangement is proposed in order to relieve the holders of the Construction Bonds from the inconvenience of a pecuniary call for the bonds as provided by the terms of their issue, but, in case the bonds are not surrendered and the exchange effected in amounts sufficient to meet the requirements of the land sales, the Company will be compelled to pay off a further portion of the Bonds.
