Dirge of Summer.

All in the arms of Autumn lying,
Fading flowers round her sighing,
Summer sick and sad is dying.

Now no more shall she be seen,
In the evening's deep serene,
Weaving garlands white and green.

Fold her in a winding sheet,
Woven of all blossoms meet,
For the shroud of maiden sweet.

Crimson rose and lily white—
All she had of best and bright,
Long have vanished from the light!

Gather Autumn's palest flowers,
Drunk with Autumn's softest showers—
Bring them to her leafless bowers.

There through winter's icy gloom,
She shall rest as in a tomb;
Sheeted snow shall shroud her bloom—

Shroud her bloom, but not forever;
Mortals die, but seasons never.
When the chains of Winter sever,

Spring shall wake her up again,
Lead her forth to hill and plain,
Over willing hearts to reign.

The Triennial Episcopal Convention.

The triennial general convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church meets in Trinity Church, New York, October 7. The especial objects of the convocation will be ascertained from the following circular, issued by the Right Rev. Bishop Stevens, of the diocese of Pennsylvania:

To the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Pennsylvania:

Beloved in the Lord—The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States, which holds its session once in three years, will meet in the city of New York on the 7th of October next. In this great council of our church will be gathered, for the first time since 1858, bishops, clergy and laity from all of the United States. It will comprise a larger number of bishops and a larger number of dioceses than any of our previous councils. The business which will be brought before it is of the deepest importance to the well-being of the church, now and hereafter. The erection of six or seven new dioceses and missionary jurisdictions; the election and perhaps, consecration of several bishops; the readjustment of our code of canons to new phases of church growth and action; the various memorials touching vital points of faith, ritual and discipline, which will be presented; the recasting of the whole foreign missionary work of the church; the needed revision of the course of studies for candidates for holy orders, as prescribed by the house of bishops; the devising of new and enlarged agencies of church education and church extension; the methods by which we can best minister to the spiritual needs of the poor, the working classes, the freedmen, the fallen of every grade, on the one hand, as well as reach and successfully grapple with the various forms of rationalism and unbelieving science on the other. These and other equally great questions, each big with untold consequences, will engage the deliberation of the legislative council. In addition to these matters, which pertain specifically to conventional action, there are many other topics connected with the operation of the several great voluntary societies in the church, which hold their meetings at the same time, and the proceedings of which will have a moulding influence on the church at large. In view then of these facts, which constitute so many reasons why we should make the approaching session of the general convention an occasion of special prayer to Almighty God, I affectionately request: First—That the prayer for "the meetings of the convention," found among the occasional prayers, after the litany, be used on all occasions of public worship, beginning with the seventeenth Sunday after Trinity (October 4), and be continued during the session of the convention. In addition to the changes which the clergy will make, as directed by the rubric which follows the prayer, they will, on the first Sunday in October only, substitute the words "soon to assemble" for "here assembled." Second—I also earnestly request that this prayer, or its equivalent, may be used as a part of the family morning prayer of the several households in this diocese; and also that each communicant will make daily prayer and supplication that the Holy Ghost who presided in the councils of the blessed Apostles may preside over this council; and that God would be pleased to "direct and prosper all their consultations to the advancement of His glory, that the good of His church, the safety, honor and welfare of His people, all things may be so ordered and settled by their endeavors, upon the best and surest foundations, that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety may be established among us for all generations." Never was there a time when we so needed the presence of the Divine Spirit in our council as now; never was greater interests at stake, or greater effects, for weal or woe, likely to follow. Under such circumstances it is our bounden duty, as individuals, as families, as congregations and as a diocese, to seek God's special guidance and blessing. Remember the gracious promise of the Lord Jesus, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven;" and that other promise, "Whatsoever ye shall ask my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son."

Commending you, beloved, to God, and to the riches of His covenant mercy in Christ Jesus, made ours by the applying grace and sealing power of the Holy Ghost, I remain your devoted servant,

WILLIAM BACON STEVENS,
Bishop of the Diocese of Pennsylvania.

A REMINISCENCE OF HENRY CLAY.—The San Francisco Bulletin says: "A distinguished citizen of San Francisco, who was a member of Congress from one of the older States as long ago as 1842, and who was that year a messmate of Henry Clay in Washington, is in possession of a memorandum, in Mr. Clay's writing, which curiously illustrates his neatness and precision in the minor affairs of life. It is simply a programme for the cook to follow, which was written rapidly, off-hand, in very neat characters, and indorsed 'H. Clay, mem. for the session.' To show what were the tastes of 'the great commoner,' we copy the bill of fare in full:

"Sunday—Roast or boiled turkey, an old ham of bacon, a mutton chop, a pair of canvass-back ducks and vegetables.

"Monday—Cold bacon ham, roast beef, stewed oysters and a leg of mutton boiled with vegetables.

"Tuesday—A boiled piece of corned beef (brisket,) a goose, partridges and mutton chop, with vegetables.

"Wednesday—A rock fish, an old ham of bacon, turkey, boiled fowls and veal cutlets with vegetables.

"Thursday—Cold ham, roast mutton, stewed oysters and a beefsteak, with vegetables.

"Friday—Corned beef (brisket,) mutton chops, goose, ham of veal, with vegetables.

"Saturday—Cold corned beef, rock fish, roast fowls, leg of mutton boiled, and birds.

"Soup au julien to be given as often as convenient—every day if so.

"When the above was written Mr. Clay was about sixty-four years of age. His fondness for ham and rich meats, even on Friday, is noticeable. It will be seen, also, that he ranks Sunday as the first day of the week."

AN OLD CHARLESTON STEAMER.—The Charleston Courier of September 28, says: On Saturday morning last the steamer Charleston, Capt. Thos. Payne, Jr., arrived here from New York via Fortress Monroe. This boat is quite a veteran, and was built in this city, on South Bay, by Mr. James Poyas, over thirty years ago. She was constructed for Capt. John Bonnell, who spared no expense, and used the best material in building her. She was first employed in the government service during the Indian war, in which she made a handsome sum of money. She was afterwards owned by Capt. James Cotes, who had her in the Georgetown rice trade, and after some years of good fortune, she became the property of Messrs. John & Arthur Magee, then of Messrs. R. C. & Isaac Davis, and was captured during the war while attempting to run the blockade at Wilmington, N. C. She has been purchased by Capt. Thomas Payne, Jr., who expects to use her in the neighboring State of Georgia, in towing and general transportation purposes. She has been what is called a "lucky boat," and has made money for every one that has owned her. She appears to be as strong as ever, and bids fair to last another thirty years.

New Orleans Money Market.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET, Saturday Evening, Oct. 3, 1868.

We have no material variation to notice in the money market. Gold opened in New York this morning at 140¼ against 139¾, the closing rate last evening; at 11:45 A. M., it was quoted at 140¼ and at 3 P. M., it closed at 140. The movement in this market has been fair, and total operations embrace the following, viz: $25,000 and $30,000 gold at 138¾, $15,000 and $15,000 do. at 138¾, $2 000, $10,000, $20,000, $10,000 and $10,000 do. at 139, $8,000 do. at 139¼, and $4,000 at 139¼. Sales of silver comprise $1,600 American halves at 136. We now quote gold 138¾@139, American silver coins 134@136, and Mexican dollars 142@143.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.—The movement under this heading has disclosed considerable activity and rates, owing to the upward tendency of gold, have advanced. Offerings of commercial sterling and francs have been ample and the demand quite active, as will be seen by the subjoined actual sales reported to-day, viz: £800 bank sterling at 152, £2,000 and £2,000 do. at 151, £2 000 and £5,000 do. at 150¾, £1,500 do. at 150½, £2,000 at 150¾, £1,200 A1 commercial do. at 150½, £3,000 Bank of England bills at 151, 60,000f., 35,000f. and 75,000f. private bankers francs at 3.77½, 30,000f. and 50,000f. A1 commercial do. at 3.77½, and 50,000 do. at 3.78½. We now quote bank sterling 150½@151, commercial do. at 149¾, A1 150½, bank francs 3.76½@3.75 and commercial do. 3.78½@3.77½.

DOMESTIC EXCHANGE.—There has been a moderate movement in commercial sight, but at irregular rates and at a slight decline. Total purchases by banks and bankers to-day comprise the following, viz: $20,000, $15,000, $15,000, $35,000 New York commercial sight at ⅛ ₱ cent. discount; $5000 do. at 15-32 ₱ cent. discount; $8900, $10,000 and $15,000 do. at ¼, and $30,000 do. at 9-16 ₱ cent. discount. We now quote ⅛@¼ ₱ cent. discount at bank, and ½@9-16 ₱ cent. discount out of doors for sight checks on Northern cities.

UNCURRENT NOTES AND SECURITIES—City notes remain quiet and unchanged. Louisiana State notes and Bank of Louisiana notes are wholly neglected, and the movement in all classes of stocks and bonds is still of a very restricted character. Total operations to-day under the above heading embrace only the following: $16,000 city notes at 36½ ₱ cent. discount, and 50 Opelousas Railroad bonds on private terms.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES.—We are indebted to the Western Union Telegraph line for copies of the following private dispatches received from that route to-day, viz:

New York, Oct. 3.—10 A. M.—Gold opens 140½. 10:30 A. M.—Gold 140¼. Cotton market very firm; holders asking higher rates. Middling 27c., Mobile 27¼c.; Orleans 27½c. Sterling 109@109¼. 11:45 A. M.—Gold 140¼. Cotton demand fair; prices firm and unchanged. Receipts of the week net 1800; gross 9710; sales 12,000. Exports since 1st September 9380. Stock on hand 5000. Receipts at all United States ports 37,000 bales. Sterling steady. 3 P. M.—Gold closed 140. Cotton demand fair; prices firm. Middling 27c.; Mobile 27¼c.; Orleans 27½c. Sales to-day 2000 bales. Sterling steady.

Liverpool, Oct. 3.—11:15 A. M.—Cotton market buoyant. Estimated sales 18,000 bales. Uplands 10¾d@10¾d.; Orleans 10¾d@11d. Uplands afloat 10d. 3 P. M.—Cotton market closed buoyant. Sales to-day 20,000 bales. Uplands 10¾d.; Orleans 11d.

London, Oct. 3.—3 P. M.—Consols 94½; 5-20's 74.

Havre, Oct. 3—Noon.—Cotton market firmer; tres ordinaire 1.37.

Commercial Intelligence.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET, Saturday Evening, Oct. 3, 1868.

COTTON—Notwithstanding the extreme inclemency of the weather throughout to-day, the cotton market has been exceedingly animated. Early Liverpool advices, reporting an advance in that market of ¼d., the advance in the rates of gold and foreign exchange here, and the light supply offering, tended to greatly excite our market. Buyers were busily engaged in looking for desirable lists, but in many instances failed to find them. Sales have consequently been confined to 1200 bales. There is such a diversity in the ideas of sellers about prices, that it is exceedingly difficult to arrive at definite figures. All however concede that an advance of fully ¼@1c. ₱ lb has been realized, and we now quote good ordinary 23¾@24c., low middling 24¼@24½c., middling 25@25½ and strict middling 25½@26c.

Stock on hand and on shipboard		35 217

Exports to-day were divided as follows, viz: 2076 bales to New York and 2400 bales to Liverpool.

SUGAR AND MOLASSES—Operations in Sugar continue to be confined to jobbing and retail sales without any transactions in a round way. We continue to quote Cuba box Sugar, grocery grades, 12¼@13¼c.; Cuba hhd. Sugar, grocery grades, 11¾@13¼c.; Porto Rico 14@14½c.; and Louisiana, prime to choice, 14½@16½c. ₱ lb. We have no improvement to notice in Molasses, which continues dull and quiet, and we necessarily omit quotations.

FLOUR—Notwithstanding the inclement weather to-day, there was considerable inquiry for Flour, in a jobbing and retail way, with several bids for round lots; but operations, owing to the continued storm, were of a limited character. Rates for lower grades are somewhat firmer, now that the late receipts are stored in warehouse, and we quote, nominally, superfine $6 75@7, single extra $7 25@7 50, double extra $7 75@8, low treble $8 25@9, choice treble $9 50@10 50, and choice extra $11@12 50 ₱ bbl. Sales to-day embrace 500 bbls., of which 150 were superfine at $6 75, 50 do. at $7, 50 choice at $12 62½ and 250 do. upon private terms.

CORN—In the absence of any stock upon the landing very little business was done to-day in any portion of the produce market. We note a sale of 234 sacks prime white corn at $1 05 ₱ bushel, an advance of 5c. on previous rates, and now quote mixed at $1 and white at $1 05 ₱ bushel.

OATS—The landing is bare of any offerings. They are held firm, from warehouse, at 63@65c. ₱ bushel.

BRAN—Transactions to-day were confined to 200 sacks, in lots from store at $1 30 ₱ 100 lbs.

HAY—Is quiet but firm. We note sales of 25 bales prime St. Louis at $26 ₱ ton.

PORK—The market opened quiet but firm, but as the day advanced there was considerable demand for 50 and 100 bbls. lots, of mess, which resulted in sales of two lots of 100 bbls. and 125 bbls., and three lots of 50 bbls. each at $30 50, and at a late hour, 100 bbls. at $30 75. The market closes with firmer views on the part of holders and an advancing tendency in rates.

BACON—The market continues dull and quiet. We note sale to-day of 20 casks clear sides at 16½c. and 5 casks shoulders at 13c.; and continue to quote shoulders at 12½@13½c., clear ribbed sides 15½@16½c., clear sides 16½@17c., and sugar cured hams 18@20c. ₱ lb.

LARD—Is quiet but steady without any quotable change in prices. 20 tierces prime sold to-day at 19½c. We quote prime in tierces at 19½@20c., in kegs at 21½@22c. ₱ lb.

FREIGHTS—There is but a barely moderate demand for freight room in any direction, and with the exception of small coastwise vessels, which are scarce and in request, the tonnage in port is ample to meet all ordinary requirements. Rates are irregular, however, and the following are the most accurate quotations obtainable this evening. Where omissions appear, they are due to one of two causes, either there is no freight offering for the omitted port, or no vessel on the berth for the omitted destination, viz: Cotton by steam to Liverpool 1d. ₱ lb; by sail, ¾d.; tobacco £2 10s. ₱ hhd. By sail, to Havre 1¼@1½c. for cotton. By steam to Boston, 1½c. for cotton, $1 for flour, and 20@22c. for corn. By steam to Philadelphia 1c. for cotton. By steam to New York 1c. for cotton, and 85@90c. for flour.

UNIVERSALISM.—The general convention of Universalists, which lately held its session at Providence, R. I., decided to have a special observance of the centenary year, 1870, the convention to meet that year at Gloucester, Mass., where the first Universalist society was founded, and a resolution was adopted providing for a committee of thirteen to determine the time, objects and methods of observing the centennial anniversary of the Universalist denomination in the United States.

River Intelligence.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET, Sunday Morning, Oct. 4, 1868.

The weather has not improved any since our last. The clouds poured their contents upon us during the entire night (Friday), and at daybreak yesterday the elements were still unpropitious; dark leaden clouds prevented "Old Sol" from showing his beaming countenance, and the strong northeast wind, together with a fine rain which fell, rendered overcoats and fires comfortable.

In consequence of the inclement weather many steamers advertised to leave yesterday evening were compelled to lay over, and those that did leave, with but few exceptions, had very slim trips. Business on the landing was dull—very dull.

We are in receipt of cheering news per telegraph from Red River. It is reported as rising at Shreveport, and navigation to Jefferson is said to be open for large boats.

We are indebted to Messes. A. Britton & Co. for a copy of the following telegram received by them late last evening:

"Shreveport, Oct. 3, 1868.—Plenty water to Jefferson. River rising. Hoss & Durham."

To Mr. Geo. D. Hite we are indebted for a copy of the following dispatch:

"Trenton, La., Oct. 3.—To Capt. John W. Tobin, steamer Mittie Stephens: River falling at Camden 5 feet daily. R. D. Montgomery."

Capt. W. M. Surls has favored us with the following dispatch, received yesterday:

"Shreveport, Oct. 3.—To W. M. Surls: Arrived here three and a half days out. Will go through to Jefferson. Jno. T. Roots, captain steamer Lizzie Hopkins."

Rates of freight to Red River were yesterday reduced to high water card rates.

The news from all streams tributary to the "Father of Waters" indicates good navigation for several months to come.

The officers of the Big Horn and Wild Wagoner have our thanks for favors.

The Enterprise, Capt. H. L. Lee, leaves at 5 P. M. to-morrow for Jefferson, Shreveport and all way landings, giving through bills of lading at card rates.

The Tahlequah, Capt. J. W. Blanks, leaves at 5 P. M. Tuesday, October 6th, for Camden, giving through bills and guaranteeing to put passengers through on time.

The Cuba No. 2, Capt. Geo. E. Wilkinson, leaves to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock for Jefferson, Shreveport and all landings intermediate. She will give through bills lading and take freight as low as the lowest.

The new passenger packet Era No. 9, Capt. Geo. L. Kouns, with the accomplished Mr. Chas. W. Drown in her office, leaves at 5 P. M. Tuesday, October 6th, for Jefferson and Shreveport, taking freight and passengers at high water card rates, and giving through bills.

The Irene, Capt. James M. Tucker, will be found at the wharf this morning. She leaves for Jefferson direct on Tuesday, October 6th, at 5 P. M., taking freight and passengers as low as any boat in the trade.

The Dixie, Capt. Jacobs, from Shreveport; T. L. McGill, from St. Louis, and Leni Leoti, from Cincinnati, are due to-day.

The Nina Simmes, Capt. W. R. Greathouse, leaves at 5 P. M. to-morrow for Bayou Sara.

The magnificent passenger packet Grey Eagle, Capt. V. B. Baranco, leaves at 10 A. M. to-day for Bayou Sara. Capt. Leo Bayhi is her clerk.

The Robt. E. Lee will be found at the wharf to-morrow morning. She leaves on Tuesday at 5 P. M., as usual, for Vicksburg.

The A. G. Brown leaves Tuesday noon for the lower coast.

The mails failed last night; consequently we are unable to publish any extracts from exchanges this morning.

Sixteen hundred and twenty-seven bales cotton were received by the river yesterday.

The present promises to be a good week for business.

The unsettled state of the weather prevented the Belle Lee from leaving for Memphis last evening.

Some one carried off the memoranda from the steamer Big Horn yesterday evening, and thereby prevented us from laying before our readers this morning the position of the various Red River packets now absent from this port.

The Big Horn, despite the heavy wind which prevailed yesterday, made the run from the wharf boat at the mouth of Red River to this city in seventeen hours.

The Lower Coast packet A. G. Brown did not get off until daylight yesterday morning.

The number of idle negroes upon the steamboat landing has been decreased during the past forty-eight hours by the inclement weather.

The Bayou Sara packet Lafourche did not leave until 5 P. M. yesterday—she ought to have left at 10 A. M.—and went out with a very slim trip.

The Mittie Stephens, Wild Wagoner and Gen. Quitman left yesterday evening with good trips.

The J. G. Blackford arrived yesterday from Washington with her smoke pipes in a rather dilapidated condition.

ARRIVALS.—The following named steamers arrived yesterday:

Towboat Shark and three heavily freighted barges, from St. Louis. Their cargoes consisted in part of 1109 bbls. flour.

Lizzie Gill, Capt. O'Neal, from St. Louis, loaded to her utmost capacity. Part of her freight consisted of 206 bales cotton.

Lexington, from St. Louis, with a full load, part of which was 186 bales cotton.

Big Horn, Capt. Gilham, from Shreveport, with 298 bales cotton.

Wild Wagoner, Capt. Richardson, from Natchez, with 320 bales cotton.

Grey Eagle, Capt. V. B. Baranco, from Bayou Sara, with 308 bales cotton.

J. G. Blackford, Capt. Pickett, from Washington, with 309 bales cotton.

DEPARTURES.—The following steamers left port yesterday:

St. Mary, for Louisville.
Flicker, Capt. Aucoin, for Lafourche.
Hetty Gilmore, Capt. King, for Thibodaux.
A. G. Brown, Capt. Bassett, for Lower Coast.
Mittie Stephens, Capt. Tobin, for Monroe and Trenton.
Lafourche, Capt. Heno, for Bayou Sara.
Gen. Quitman, Capt. Leathers, for Vicksburg.
Wild Wagoner, Capt. Richardson, for Natchez.
Lulu D, Capt. Grace, for Shreveport.
Mississippi, Capt. Green, for St. Louis.
Silver Spray, Capt. Fenton, for Cincinnati.
Celeste, Capt. Dowty, for Alexandria.

Taking into consideration the state of the weather, this is a pretty fair list both of arrivals and departures.
