AT ALL STAGES OF LIFE

The Woman's Medicine. Good for All Ages. Mrs. Harold Smith's Experience.

Clarksburg, W. Va.—"I am writing to tell you the good your medicine has always done me and I hope my letter may be the means of helping some other suffering woman. When I was 16 years old I caught cold and had suppression for two months. I got so weak I could scarcely drag myself up the stairs. I went to two doctors, then my mother got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it. I never had any more trouble and got strong fast. Then I took it again before my little girl was born and it helped me a good deal and I give the Compound the credit for it. Then this spring I felt very badly again, but I took the Compound and have been well all summer. I cannot be grateful enough for your medicine." —Mrs. HAROLD M. SMITH, 470 Water Street, Clarksburg, W. Va.

For forty years it has been making women strong and well, and curing backache, nervousness, uterine and ovarian inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularity and periodic pains.

DALLAS COUNTY OFFICERS EXACT TOLL OF VISITORS

LOCAL CARS WHIRL BY UNNOTICED WHILE VISITORS MUST COUGH UP $17.65.

Officials of the County Patrol Roads Looking for Victims. Fort Worth Reaps a Benefit.

For several years Dallas merchants and trade venders have been reaping a golden harvest in the way of patronage from Waxahachie people to the exclusion of the Dallas county officials, but this discrimination has been overcome and Ellis county autoists need not be surprised when they are called upon to contribue to the "coffee and flour" fund. Officers of that county now patrol the roads leading into Dallas and pick up visiting autoists who exceed the 18-mile-an-hour speed limit, so it is claimed. You will notice the word "visiting" for it would never do to exact toll of the home people, and automobiles bearing Dallas numbers are allowed to pass by undisturbed at a 40-mile rate of speed while the constabulary is escorting a visiting Ford, that showed a possible 22-mile gait, to the seat of justice, there to relieve the owner of $17.65 for the privilege of visiting Dallas.

That is the way H. E. Herring, advertising manager of the Daily Light, put it late Sunday upon his return from a visit to relatives at Plano. Mr. Herring left Waxahachie Saturday afternoon for Plano, and as he was nearing the city limits of Dallas a couple of motor cops came up beside his machine and told him to consider himself "under arrest." Herring was escorted to the court house where he interviewed the assistant county attorney and finally paid $17.65 to ease the pain of an outraged society. While the "cops" were waiting to land on a coming visitor, as many as four big Dallas cars whirled by them, just in front of the Ellis county car, at a speed greater than is possible with a Ford, so he asked why it was the owners of Dallas cars were not hauled in and the "cops" replied that the cars were too powerful and could not be overtaken by their machines. "In other words," said Herring, "it's a hold-up of the visitors by a set of 'get-rich-quick' officers who haven't the nerve to arrest their home people."

Mr. Herring said he showed his best speed in going down grade just before coming to a hill and that he did it in order to make the hill in high. He didn't deny that he exceeded the 18-mile speed limit because this is done by every driver, but he does claim that he was not speeding, in fact the "cop" was quite specific in saying, "I do not arrest you for speeding, but for exceeding the speed limit."

Local members of the automobile club are just a little wrought up over the incident because they believe such a practice is unjust and a discrimination, and there is some talk of a campaign to divert travel towards Fort Worth. The distance to Fort Worth is ten miles greater, but the pikes are much better and the amusements to be had there are equally as good if not better. It is better to travel a greater distance and make sure to be safe from hold-ups. Mr. Herring said he would have more respect for the man who used his gun than the fellow who uses the cloak of the law.

At least there is one lesson to be drawn from the incident and that is to keep off the Dallas county pikes. Trade at home and save money.

COTTON PALACE IS BEING ENLARGED

Facilities of Every Department of Big Waco Show Greatly Increased.

CONWAY'S FINE BAND IS SECURED

Famous Musical Organization Will Give Free Concerts Twice Daily Elaborate Plans for Opening of Exposition on November 4.

Waco, Texas.—The Texas Cotton Palace exposition, which opens on Nov 4 and continus until Nov. 19, will, in the opinion of President T. F. Bush and the other officers and directors of that institution, be the largest and most successful exposition held in the history of the Cotton Palace. Workmen are already busily engaged in greatly increasing the facilities of practically every department. The monster coliseum, which is the pride of every Wacoan, will be increased in size so as to seat 25 per cent more people than before. The popularity of the musical and other free attractions given in the coliseum make an increase in the seating capacity absolutely necessary.

The directors of the Cotton Palace are congratulating themselves in having been able to secure Conway's band for the exposition. This band is conceded by the leading musicians of the entire country to be on a par with such bands as Sousa's and Pryor's. This wonderful band will give free concerts in the coliseum every afternoon and night. This attraction alone will be worth more than the price of admission. It will cost the management a small fortune to get a band of this magnitude to come to Texas for a two weeks' engagement, but they go upon the theory that nothing is too good for the Cotton Palace.

The live stock features of the exposition were a revelation to the thousands of visitors last year. This year it will be a much greater revelation. New exhibition stables are now being erected that will more than double the live stock capacity. The present indications are that live stock of all kinds will be on exhibition from all parts of the country in far larger numbers than ever before. No expense is being spared in making the live stock exhibit its second to none in the country. So great has been the success of the agricultural exhibits that it has become necessary to greatly increase the already large agricultural building. The addition to the preesnt building will make it possible to take care of many more exhibits than before.

Those who love sporting events of national fame, will have everything in that line that can possibly be obtained. The horse racing will be one of the chief attractions. There is a half-mile track operated in connection with the Cotton Palace that is conceded by the leading racing men of America to be one of the fastest tracks in the United States. The best horses in the game will be here. Those who love a good thoroughbred horse and an exciting race will have their souls satisfied at the Cotton Palace.

A sodded athletic field has also been constructed by the management. There is no better field to be found anywhere. Football games have already been arranged with many of the leading colleges. One of the most prominent games will be between A. and M. college and Baylor University.

The War Path attractions, that have always been a source of joy and delight for old and young, will be of a higher class than ever. Experts have visited various sections of the country in an effort to obtain the best attractions that are in the market. They have met with wonderful success. Some interesting surprises await the hundreds of thousands of visitors to that part of the exposition.

The exhibits in the main building and all other features of the Cotton Palace will be bigger and better than heretofore. Nothing is being left undone to make the Cotton Palace the greatest and most unique exposition in the entire southwest.

The Cotton Palace is noted for its unparalleled social festivities. The Queen's ball and the Society ball have reached proportions of state-wide prominence. The most prominent men and women from all parts of the state always look forward to these events with great pleasure. The committees in charge of these functions are working hard in an effort to make them even more attractive than has been the case in previous years.

The formal opening of the Cotton Palace will be of unusual interest. Governor James E. Ferguson, Lieutenant Governor William P. Hobby, State Treasurer J. M. Edwards, State Comptroller H. B. Terrell, and many other high state officials will be present for the opening festivities. Addresses will also be made by President Bush of the Cotton Palace association and Mayor John Dollins.

DAY FOR ORGANIZED LABOR

Texas Cotton Palace Turns Program Over to Union Men.

Waco, Texas.—Organized labor will have a day at the Cotton Palace. The hundreds of thousands of union men in Texas have always been most loyal to the exposition, and have done much to make it a great success. This year they will have a day of their own.

A capable committee is now busily engaged in perfecting a program. The union men never do anything in a half way style. It is a safe prediction that this day will be one of the best of the sixteen days of the entire exposition

COUNTY SCHOOL DAY AT COTTON PALACE.

Waco, Texas.—County School day at the Cotton Palace is the one great big day of the year for the boys and girls who attend the country schools.

They always have the time of their young lives. A big street parade is held, in which various schools compete with elaborately decorated floats for prizes that are given by the directors of the Cotton Palace.

There will be many added features this year that will be of great interest
