MRS. HUBBACK'S NEW BOOK.
Published this Day.
LOVE AND DUTY.
BY MRS. HUBBACK.
Author of "The Wife's Sister, or the Forbidden Marriage," "May and December, a Tale of Wedded Life," "The Three Marriages," etc.

Price $1 50 in paper; $2 in cloth.

LOVE AND DUTY. BY MRS. HUBBACK. We cannot praise too highly the power and truthfulness with which the characters of this story are represented. It is one of the class of novels to which the reader turns with delight after reading some of the trash that is put forth from the press. It abounds in soul-elevating thoughts, and no person can read it without being made wiser and better thereby. It is full of simple and severe wisdom, showed delineation of character in great variety, and it has a phraseology that rivets the attention even amidst simple incidents. The characters are drawn by a hand which can realize fictitious characters with minute fidelity, and the novel stands out much in the same way as "Jane Eyre" did. Price $1 50 in paper, or $2 in cloth. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, Penn. It is an excellent production, and we cordially recommend it to our readers.

Books sent free of postage on receipt of retail price.

Fradel, Max Maretzek, Carl Anschutz, John Zundle, Maurice Strakosch, Giovani Sconcia, and every good musician in the United States. All musical ears at once admit their great superiority.
