MASON & HAMLIN respectfully announce that they have now completed the occupation of their greatly enlarged factory, and effected other arrangements the large increase of their manufacturing facilities. They therefore confidently expect to be able henceforward to supply orders for their CABINET ORGANS promptly, without that inconvenient delay to which purchasers have been subjected from the fact that for more than a year past they have been continually several hundred instruments behind orders. An assortment of styles, from $110 to $600 each, may be found at their New York Warerooms, 7 Mercer-street.

STEINWAY & SONS' GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862. The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical piano forte makers (father and four sons), who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms Nos. 71 and 73 East Fourteenth-st., between Union Square and Irving Place, New-York.

THE CELEBRATED PIANOS of J. & C. FISHER, the most reliable Pianos made, with the best modern improvements, wholesale and retail at moderate prices, Nos. 241, 243, 245, 247, 249 Twenty-eighth-st., near Ninth-ave.

WANTED—Immediately, 100 experienced CANVASSING AGENTS to solicit subscriptions for Henri Martin's great "HISTORY OF FRANCE," the only complete History of France in the English Language. This History is universally conceded to be the most profound, exhaustive and interesting in the French or any other language; it begins with the earliest ages, and ends with the French Revolution of 1789, where Thiers takes up the narrative. Martin's History received the Gobert Prize of 10,000 francs, in 1844, from the Academy of Inscriptions and Belles Letters, as the most learned, and in 1856 and 1859, from the French Academy, as the most eloquent work on the History of France. It is divided into Eight Parts of two volumes each, each complete in itself. With the full consent of the author we shall issue these Parts separately, as distinct works, each forming a complete series in itself, but all in uniform size, style, lettering, &c., and rendered accessible, as a united whole, by an Analytical Index. "As a work of thrilling interest it has rarely been equaled." [North American Review.] Two volumes, comprising the History of Louis XIV., will be issued, in the best style of the celebrated Riverside Press, Cambridge, early in December. Price, with Portraits on steel and handsomely bound in extra cloth, $3 50 per volume. Liberal terms to agents. Apply, by letter or in person, to WALKER, WISE & CO., Publishers, No. 245 Washington-st., Boston.

$500 REWARD—PROCLAMATION.—Whereas, on Sunday, November 6, 1864, about three o'clock in the morning, JOSEPH NULET, a member of the Metropolitan Police force, was murdered while in the performance of his duty, in Twenty-ninth-street between Broadway and Fifth-avenue; and whereas, the murderer has not to this time been arrested; now, therefore, in order to promote the ends of justice and secure the punishment of the guilty, I, C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor of the City of New-York, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the ordinances of said city, do hereby offer a reward of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the apprehension of the murderer of said NULET, to be paid after the conviction of said murderer, and on the certificate of the District-Attorney, or of the Judge before whom the murderer shall have been convicted of said crime, that in his opinion the person applying for said reward is justly and legally entitled to the same; but all claim to the payment of such reward shall be deemed to be forfeited if such certificate shall not be presented to the Mayor within twenty days after the conviction of the murderer, and all claims for such reward presented after the expiration of such period of time will be disregarded. Given under my hand at the Mayor's office, in the City Hall, in the City of New-York, this 10th day of November, A. D., 1864. C. GODFREY GUNTHER, Mayor.
