The National Constitution.

SECOND DAY.

The Convention for amending the Constitution reassembled on Wednesday, at the West Arch-st. Church, Philadelphia, at 10 o'clock in the morning. In the absence of the president and vice-president, Rev. Dr. Edwards was called to the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. Joel Swartz, of Baltimore. The 72d Psalm was then read by the president, after which letters from a number of prominent divines, indorsing the object of the Convention, were read. Among them were letters from Hon. B. Gratz Brown, Senator from Missouri; Professor J. F. Winkler, Martin Luther College, Buffalo, New-York; Rev. L. W. Habel, Lutheran Church, Kirchhayn, Wisconsin; Rev. Dr. Duffield, Detroit, Michigan; and others.

Several of the delegates spoke of the difficulty of forming auxiliary societies. It was said by many of them that sufficient publicity had not been given to the object of the Convention. Among those who spoke upon the subject of auxiliaries, and the success, partial or otherwise, of the movement, were Revs. A. M. Whatstone, A. C. Todd, R. B. Camin, James McDonald, J. N. Johnston, A. M. Milligan, M. B. Smith, Dr. Douglas, James H. Cooper, Professor J. H. McIlvaine, and Messrs. Charles Love, John Beatty, John M. Elder, S. Jack, J. N. Cannon, John C. Slute, John. D. Garley, and others.

The afternoon session was spent in the discussion of the several resolutions published in The Press of Tuesday.

The evening session was opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. Butler. The Convention then finally considered and adopted the resolutions before mentioned.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the reporters for the correct reports of the Convention made by them.

The Convention adjourned sine die with prayer by Rev. Dr. Edwards.

A PLEASING INCIDENT.—The Rev. Dr. Kendall, who recently returned from an official visit to California, communicates the following incident: "A poor little boy brought to the Sanitary Fair, held at Marysville, a white chicken, which was all he had to offer, saying it might make some broth for a poor sick soldier. He had decked his little offering with ribbon of 'red, white and blue,' but he had no money to pay the entrance fee, and was rejected at the door. As he passed down the street, a gentleman seeing his distress, listened to his story, gave him a ticket, and sent him in. The simplicity of the child and the beauty of the offering attracted attention, and the chicken was put up at auction and sold for four hundred dollars in gold for the Sanitary Commission."
