History teaches a lesson applicable to the present republic from ancient Rome, which had wise senators. For example: "When Latium, a Roman prince, revolted, and the revolt was suppressed, the question arose in the Roman Senate, what shall be done with Latium and the people of Latium? There were some who cried 'disfranchise.' Then others said, 'confiscate their property.' There were none who said 'subject them in vassalage to their slaves.' But old Camillus, in that speech which revealed his true greatness, and made his name immortal, said: 'Senators! Make them your fellow-citizens, and thus add to the power and glory of Rome!'"

AN ADVOCATE FOR BIRDS.—The Cardinal Archbishop of Bordeaux, in the midst of great cares, resulting from the charge of an immense diocese, has found it not inconsistent with his important duties to devote much time in denouncing the insensate war against small birds. His eminence takes the ground that, if an abhorrence of cruelty does not supply a motive, self-interest ought to afford a reason for our extending protection to them. As was stated lately in the World, France has suffered heavily from insects, which would have been destroyed had the little birds been permitted to exist. In addition to what we then stated, we may add that last year the damage done to the crops in France exceeded £21,000,000, and in one department alone £12,000 was paid for the destruction of the pernicious ver blanc, a white worm, from which is produced a locust. The cardinal's efforts have produced some good, and officials have been appointed in every parish to protect the birds and eggs.

New Orleans Money Market.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 96 CAMP STREET, Tuesday Evening, Nov. 3, 1868.

There is no material variation to notice in the movement in the money market. The supply of available capital continues ample and is easily accessible to first-class borrowers, but offerings of choice short paper are restricted, and as this description continues to be absorbed by the banks, but little of it finds its way on the street. Strictly A1 city mortgage is also scarce, and rates remain unchanged. We still quote: 8 ⅌ cent. per annum at bank and 1@1¼ ⅌ cent. per month out of doors for short gilt edged paper, and 10@12 ⅌ cent. per annum for long dated notes secured by strictly A1 city mortgage.

GOLD AND SILVER—We have to report continued irregularity in the movement under the above heading. Gold has been in ample supply and steady demand throughout, but owing to the frequent fluctuations in rates at New York prices have been exceedingly unsettled. Silver has been offered only in driblets, and the few lots placed on the market found buyers at 1@2 points below Gold rates for American halves and quarters, and 3@3¼ ⅌ cent. premium on Gold for Mexican dollars. Operations to-day comprise the following amounts, viz: $2500 and $7000 Gold at 134, $2000, $5000 and $30,000 do. at 134¼, $4000 and $15,000 do. at 134⅛, and $2000 and $30,000 do. at 134⅛. Sales of Silver embrace $300 American halves at 131½. We now quote Gold at 134@134¼, American Silver coin 131½@132½, and Mexican dollars 137@138.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE—The movement under this heading since our last has been quite heavy, but owing to the heavy fluctuations in Gold sales have been very unsteady throughout. Offerings of commercial Sterling and France disclosed a material increase, and the demand for remittance indicated a steady improvement. Transactions today embraced the annexed amounts, viz: £3060, £3000, £4000 and £5000 bank sight at 145⅞, £3000 private bankers' and £2000 A1 commercial do. at 145⅞, £2000 A1 commercial do. at 145⅞, £2000 do. at 144½; 35,000f. bank France at 3 88⅞, 150,000f. and 380,000f. private bankers' do. at 3.90, and 50,000f. do. at 3.91¼. We now quote bank Sterling 145½@146¼; commercial do. 144½@145½; bank Francs 3.88⅞@3.87½, and commercial do. 3.90@3.91¼.

DOMESTIC EXCHANGE—The only noticeable feature in the movement under this heading has been a slight, although not quotable let up in rates. Offerings of Commercial Sight and Short Sight are ample, but with little or no improvement in the demand. Total purchases to-day embrace the following, viz.: $10,000 and $25,000 New York Bank Sight at ⅛ ⅌ cent. discount, $10,000 private bankers' do. at 7-16 ⅌ cent. discount, and $20,000 and $50,000 do. at ¼ ⅌ cent. discount We still quote ⅛@¼ ⅌ cent. discount at bank and ⅛@¼ ⅌ cent. discount out of doors for sight checks on Northern cities.

UNCURRENT NOTES AND SECURITIES—We have no change to notice in the general movement under this heading. City notes and ten per cent. bonds remain dull. State notes, warrants and levee bonds are neglected, and operations in all classes of Stocks remain partially suspended. Total operations to-day embrace the following amounts, viz: $2000 and $3360 city warrants at 65c.; and $20,000 levee State bonds at 54c. ⅌ dollar.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES.—We are indebted to the Western Union Telegraph Line for copies of the following private dispatches received from that route to-day, viz:

New York, Nov. 3—10 A. M.—Gold opened at 133¼ 10:30 A. M.—Gold 133¼. Cotton demand moderate—prices firm. Sterling 109⅞@110⅞. 11:45 A. M.—Gold 133⅞. Cotton—demand moderate. THE NEW ORLEANS CANAL BANK ROBBERY IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Some time last March a package containing fifty $1000 greenbacks was stolen from the counter of the Canal Bank, New Orleans. The numbers of the bills were at once advertised, and sent to the police officers throughout the country. The lists received here were furnished to the various banks by the city marshal, and till last Friday the affair was forgotten. On that day a gentleman, a stranger, offered a $1000 bill at the City National Bank for smaller bills, and the teller discovered it to be one of the stolen ones. The man was arrested, and was found to have three $1000 bills in his possession, two of which were from the stolen package. He gave his name, Mr. L. R. Sargent, of Brattleboro, Vt., and said he received the bills at the Bank of Redemption, in Boston, in exchange for New Hampshire State bonds. He was detained, and Saturday morning City Marshal Drennan took him to Boston to investigate the case. His story was found to be correct, but the bank officers were unable to tell where they received the bills. A search in other banks revealed six more of the stolen bills, which had been received in the ordinary course of business. Mr. Sargent was released and demanded the restoration of his bonds from the Bank of Redemption, as he did not wish further trouble with the stolen bills. The bank refused to restore the bonds, and it is stated Mr. Sargent commenced a suit for their recovery. [Worcester Spy.

River Intelligence.

CRESCENT OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET, Wednesday Morning, Nov. 4, 1868.

The weather yesterday was clear and cool.

There was very little business transacted yesterday, and the packets that left port had light trips.

1510 bales cotton have been received per river steamers since our last.

DEPARTURES.—The following named steamers left port yesterday: Robert E. Lee, Capt. Cannon, for Vicksburg; A. G. Brown for lower coast, and Thos. Powell for Donaldsonville.

The Dashing Wild Wagoner, under command of Capt. W. B. Richardson, leaves at 5 P. M. to-day for Natchez. Messrs. Lebano, Posey and Miller are her clerks.

The regular Memphis packet Magenta, Capt. Frank Hicks, leaves positively at 5 P. M. to-day Memphis and intermediate landings.

The Grey Eagle, Capt. V. B. Baranco, leaves at 5 P. M. to-day for Bayou Sara.

The Era No. 9, Capt. Geo. L. Kouns, leaves at 5 P. M. to-day for Jefferson, Shreveport, and intermediate landings. Mr. Chas. Drown has charge of her office. Mr. Ed. McLaughlin, her steward, will see to the wants of passengers, and he knows how to do it.

Since our last the following named steamers have arrived:

Continental, Capt. Greenough, from St. Louis, with 123 bales cotton, etc.

Mollie Able, Duble, from St. Louis, with a full freight, consisting in part of 392 bales cotton.

Big Horn, Capt. Wallace, from Greenwood, with 515 bales cotton.

Hetty Gilmore, Capt. King, from Lafourche, with 20 hogsheads sugar, 25 barrels molasses, etc.

Lafourche, Capt. Heno, from Bayou Sara, with 45 bales cotton.

Lightwood, Capt. Scott, from St. Louis, with a fine trip.

Wild Wagoner, Capt. Richardson, from Natchez, with 435 bales cotton.

The Wild Wagoner arrived yesterday evening minus her smoke stacks. She will be furnished with a new pair to-day and leave at 5 P. M. for Natchez.

The landing yesterday presented a regular summer appearance; but few steamers left port, and the arrivals were like angels visits—few and far between.

The Golden Era and Lulu D. from Red River, and Leni Leoti from Ouachita river, are due today.

The officers of the Wild Wagoner have our thanks for favors.

The Idahoe, Capt. Keeling, leaves at 5 P. M. to-day for Trenton and Monroe.

The Lulu D. will be ready to receive freight this morning for Jefferson and Shreveport. She leaves at 5 P. M. to-morrow.

The river before the city is still falling rapidly. Repairs upon the upper wharf were approaching completion.

The Magenta will be receiving at the foot of Poydras street this morning.

From the officers of the Wild Wagoner we learn that the carpet-baggers and scalawags left Donaldsonville on the 2d instant for parts unknown. The voting at this place yesterday was all one-sided, white and black voting for Seymour and Blair.

The Thompson Dean, Capt. Pepper, and towboat Shark, Capt. Gall, left St. Louis on the 31st ult. for this port.

From the Louisville Courier of October 31:

The river remains stationary at this point with 3 feet four inches water in the canal, 16 inches in the chute, and 3 feet large on Portland bar. The river has been rising slowly at Cincinnati for several days, but the only effect at this point has been to check the decline in the river. Business on the landing, yesterday, was very dull. The prolonged seige of low water has a very disheartening effect upon steamboatmen, and they are talking of bringing out their low water boats. As usual the Cairo trade is the favorite, and several boats will soon be put in that trade. The weather yesterday was cloudy and windy, with indications of rain. The mammoth sternwheeler Louisiana is announced to leave the Portland wharf at 5 o'clock P. M. to-day for New Orleans, as the first boat in the recently organized Louisville and New Orleans packet line.

It is reported in St. Louis that the Great Republic is soon to be sold at auction.

The following transfers of steamboats and barges have been made at St. Louis recently:

Barge Jim Robinson, Northern Line Packet Company, to Crooks & Co., $1200.

Ida May, ferryboat, David C. R. Huckleberry and Young Griffin, Jr., to the Chalk Bank Ferry Company for $1700.

Henry Ames, one-fourth by Thomas W. Cloney, of Jefferson City, to Thomas L. Price for $2000.

Laura Lizzie Soulé, of Alton, Ill., to John Armstrong, of same place, one-half for $2000.

Ram New Orleans, Geo. Carey Eggleston, Wm. L. Hamilton and Fielding C. Priest, administrators of Wm. G. Priest, sold to the Wiggins Ferry Company for $9000.

Barge Rescue, A. M. Parks, Cooperstown, Ill., to Keokuk Packet Company for $2000.

Steamer Helena, John W. Brennan, St. Louis, to C. H. Tyler, St. Louis, for $6500.

Virginia, John P. Fitzgerald sells to John W. Carroll one-fourth for $12 000.

Virginia, J. P. Fitzgerald sells to Chas. Schultze, of Louisville, one-eighth for $6000.

Virginia, J. P. Fitzgerald sells to Wm. R. Hollcroft one-eighth for $6000.

Mountaineer, Robert Baker, St. Louis, sells to Wm. G. Bartle one eighth for $3000.

Admiral Farragut, H. M. Blossom, assignee of Russel F. Lamb, Jr., Leonard G. Quinlan, Edmond L. Biden, bankrupts, St. Louis, sells to the St. Louis and Peoria Packet Company three-eighths for $1100.

Adella, John Mortland sells to Herman Rechtein, Anthony, Schulte, Hy. Blossom, Hy. Kuter, Joseph Capelle and Fred. Sturmann for $3000.

BUENA VISTA ENGLISH

—AND—

CLASSICAL SCHOOL.

Having returned (after an absence of three years) to my former home, in the immediate vicinity of Franklin, Tenn., I will open on MONDAY, the 10th of September next, an English and Classical School, for the education of Boys.

The locality of this Institution is delightful, combining all the advantages of town and country. The grounds are ample and be again beautified and adorned with ornamental tree and shrubbery. The building is large and well ventilated, and admirably adapted for School purposes. The house has been recently furnished from cellar to garret, and is now being repainted, repapered, recleansed and repurified, so that no locality in the whole country will be more healthful.

The discipline of the School will be mild and parental, but firm and decided, and every effort will be made to develop the physical, intellectual and moral faculties of the pupil. The Principal of the School is prepared to board ten or Twelve Scholars.

Terms for Session of Five Months:

Tuition in Primary Department	$25 00
Higher Branches of Mathematics and Classics, each extra	5 00
Board per month, including fuel and lights	30 00
Contingent fee	1 00

Washing at laundress' prices.

JAMES McNUTT, Principal.
