GREY JACKET BITTERS.

TO THE REAL SOUTHERN PEOPLE.

New Orleans, December 1, 1868.

In the year 1865 the undersigned, perceiving that their friends in the South were being imposed upon by thousands of vile compounds under the names of Whiskies, Brandies, Gins, Schnapps, Bitters, etc., etc., determined to begin the manufacture of a pure medicinal spirit out of home-raised Southern herbs, to supply the want of the public in this line, which had created the demand. We called our spirit

GREY JACKET BITTERS,

And so popular did they soon become that they are at this early date (a little over three years from their first manufacture) used all over the South.
THE MATERIALS WE USE NOW ARE THE SAME AS WERE EMPLOYED BY US AT FIRST.
AND WE HAVE SO FAR HEARD NO COMPLAINTS OF GREY JACKET BITTERS BEING COUNTERFEITED, while the papers are filled with warnings from Yankee manufacturers of pretended or real counterfeits of their medicated spirits.
THAT THESE SPIRITS WERE BAD WAS UNDENIABLE.
But with whom the responsibility properly rested the Southern people could not reasonably know, nor do we suppose they cared.
They only ceased to purchase them and bought the GREY JACKET BITTERS in their place.

OUR OBJECT NOW IS TO PROCLAIM TO THE

Great Southern Medicinal Spirits,

—Known as the—

GREY JACKET BITTERS,

Have Never Been Counterfeited,

AND CAN ALWAYS BE RELIED UPON, AND THAT AS FAR AS IS IN OUR POWER, SHALL ALWAYS BE KEPT PURE.
WE NEVER HAVE, NOR NEVER SHALL, MAKE TWO KINDS OF SPIRITS.

We are Southern Manufacturers.

We the undersigned, agree to form ourselves into a Corporation under the laws of the State of Louisiana, as particularly set forth for the organization of corporations for works of Public Improvement and Utility, in Revised Statutes of 1856, and which is hereto attached, for the purpose of providing a Railway and Telegraph Line from some point on the Mississippi river, opposite or near to the city of New Orleans, and thence via Vermillion by the most eligible route to the Sabine, at some point below Burkville, to connect with the Central Transit Company of Texas, and thereby form complete Railroad and Telegraph connection with the Rio Grande, and ultimately with the Pacific coast at San Blas, and for these purposes we have formed this the subjoined Charter and have signed the same, adding to our signatures a statement of the number and value of shares and aggregate amount of our respective subscription to said company.

Charter of the Company.
SECTION 1. The said corporation shall be known as the CENTRAL TRANSIT COMPANY and have its domicil in the city of New Orleans, and some paper published in said city shall be designated by the Directors as the official organ of the Company.
SEC. 2. The said corporation is established for the purpose of providing and equipping and operating a connected line of railway and telegraph from some point at or near the city of New Orleans, to some point via Vermilion, by the most eligible route to the Sabine River, south of Burkville, and thence to connect with the line of the Central Transit Company of Texas, and through it to make connection with the Rio Grande River near Rio Grande City or Roma, and thence with the Pacific coast at San Blas and the City of Mexico, the road to be double-track or single, and of such gauge as will secure uniformity with its Texas and Mexico connections; and to have such branches as the stockholders may hereafter deem desirable and provide for
SEC. 3. The capital stock shall be fixed at one million of dollars and divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and may be increased by vote of three-fourths of the stock at any legal meeting of stockholders thereof, provided the amount shall not exceed the actual cost of construction and complete equipment of said line and its franchises; and whenever two hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be subscribed in good faith and five per cent. of the sum paid into the hands of the company or satisfactorily secured, the permanent organization of the company shall be made by the election of Directors and officers of the company.

But any number of stockholders may so far organize as to adjourn from day to day for one week, when, no quorum being present, the meeting proposed shall be considered as having failed; and notice additional, as herein provided, will be required to secure a legal meeting of stockholders.
SEC. 6. The Stockholders, at any legal meeting, annual or called, when three-fourths of the stock is represented and votes affirmatively, shall have power to change this Charter, and remove any of its officers, and elect others to fill the vacancies created thereby, and by said vote may authorize the issue of bonds, and do any and all things necessary to the success of the enterprise; and by such vote also may provide for the extinction of the Corporation upon such terms as equity and law may require. Any legal meeting of stockholders by a majority aforesaid shall also have power to receive and amend the By-Laws made by the Directors.
