NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

OFFICE OF BRADFORD & CLOYD, REAL ESTATE AGENTS, Lincoln, Nebraska.

We take pleasure in announcing that we have recently opened an office for the purpose of transacting a GENERAL LAND AGENCY BUSINESS. Our facilities for informing ourselves and correspondents of the location, kind of soil, value of any tract of land, etc., in Central Nebraska, on short notice, are ample, having had much experience in the business here since the location of the State Capitol at this place.

The immense emigration from the European continent, as well as from our neighboring States, to Nebraska, this season, brought hither by the cheapness and fertility of the lands, the excellent water, the extreme beauty of the face of the country, the healthfulness of the climate and the enterprising character of the inhabitants, marking it as a rapidly rising State, renders the establishment of offices where the emigrant and land-seeker or land-owner can obtain

RELIABLE INFORMATION AT SMALL EXPENSE, very necessary, and we hope remunerative. Non-residents owning lands in our section can obtain, without delay, abstracts of title to their lands, have taxes paid (the latter free of commission) and a correct statement of their lands, whether prairie or timber, wet or dry, improved or unimproved, what their future railroad prospects are, their proximity to schools, churches and towns; and we will undertake to sell or buy for them, charging for our services only fair commissions.

We have thousands of acres of land for sale, in every kind of location; lands of all description and on all kinds of terms and prices.

We have a large list of splendid business and residence lots on the best streets in the city, and private residences, which we offer to citizens and capitalists abroad at such prices as will satisfy all who wish to invest.

We will locate lands subject, to private entry, with money or bounty land warrants, either on commission or on shares; sell land warrants for persons at a distance, and select good homesteads for those intending to take up their residence in Nebraska.

Persons desiring information in our line of business are invited to correspond with us and we will inform them promptly without charge.
