THE BROTHER'S SECRET.
Will be published Saturday next,
THE BROTHER'S SECRET.
BY WILLIAM GODWIN.

"I am a wretch of honest race;
My parents not obscure, nor high in titles were;
They left me their to no disgrace.
My father was (a thing now rare)
Loyal and brave, my mother chaste and fair;
The pledge of marriage-vows was only I;
Alone I lived, their mutu-loved fondled boy:
They gave me generous education; high
They strove to raise my mind; and with it grew their joy.
Thus my first years in happiness I pass'd,
Nor any bitter cup did taste;
But, oh! a deadly portion came at last."

We would advise no one to commence reading this book without they have time to finish it. It is one of the most exciting and enchanting books ever printed. Cloth, $2; Paper, $1,50.

HAVE JUST PUBLISHED
HISTORY OF NEW-ENGLAND
DURING THE STUART DYNASTY.
By JOHN GORHAM PALFREY.
Volume III. and Last. 8vo., cloth, with Maps, $4. 3 volumes, $9.

The publishers are happy to announce the completion of this valuable work, rending the History of New-England down to the time of her First Revolution.

"Dr. Palfrey has written the History of New-England as it has never been written before. His fidelity, accuracy, thoroughness, and candor in investigation, the niceness of his learning and the breadth of his general culture, are qualities of the highest service in his undertaking. There is a freshness in the flow of his narrative, a terse sagacity in his cursory expressions of opinion, and a judicial summing up on points disputed or perplexed, which engage alike the liveliest interest and the fullest confidence of his readers."—[Boston Daily Advertiser.

"In respect to fullness, exactness, thoroughness of investigation, simplicity and dignity of style and clearness of narration, the work is eminently worthy of the theme, and worthy of the author's well-known scholarship. . . . We cannot doubt that the people of New-England, and those of New-England blood, in all parts of the world, will recognize this as the classic and standard work in its department. The remaining volumes will be expected with eager appetite."—[New-Englander.

"This is a noble theme; and it is fortunate that its treatment has fallen into the hands of a scholar of profound learning, elegant culture, and varied experience. . . . We have had an opportunity to know something of the extent and minuteness of Dr. Palfrey's investigations of the conscientious fidelity with which he is pursuing his labors; of his untiring pains to attain to that basis merit in a historian—without which a superstructure will be valueless—accuracy; and of his earnest desire to get at the fountain of New-England institutions, and to trace the springs of its progress. He is doing this con amore; and hence the public will have no piece of job work, but such a production as labor and time and the closest reflection only can produce."—[Boston Post.
