BEADLE'S DIME NOVELS, No. 77.

QUINDARO;

OR, THE

HEROINE OF FORT LARAMIE.

An "ower true story" of the old fort, and its romantic history; introducing the reader to the wild Pawnee, and their implacable foes—the Western rangers; and embodying, also, the touching and powerful element of a mother's devotion. Like all of BEADLE'S DIME NOVELS it is good—VERY good.

ECONOMY IS WEALTH.

FRANKLIN, the greatest of Modern Philosophers, remarks that

"A PENNY SAVED IS A PENNY EARNED."

Instead of destroying your waste paper, preserve it, and receive its equivalent in cash, which we will pay for old newspapers of every description, whole or torn; old pamphlets of all kinds, old circulars, handbills, tickets, cards, catalogues, and old scrap-paper, in all its varieties, in quantities large or small. Also old writing paper, and school books, old blank books, ledgers, etc., of any size, it matters not how much they may be written on or mutilated.

A SONG FOR THE MILLION.

Philosophers and learned people say
That nothing in the world can be destroyed;
That all existing at the present day
Hereafter can be usefully employed.
And this is true, in fact as well as rhymes,
For papers, although old and out of date—
The Journal of Commerce, Herald, Tribune, Times—
We buy by hundreds at a liberal rate.

Thousands of volumes, although torn and old,
And books, once blank, with writing covered o'er,
At Ann-street, twenty-five, can now be sold,
For cash, by millions, be they less or more.
Then "waste not trifles," let your motto be—
Collect your books and papers, every size,
Give us a call, and you will quickly see
The price we give for what we advertise.

STOCKWELL & EMERSON,
No. 25 ANN-STREET.

READ THE FOLLOWING RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE PRESS.

TO CAREFUL HOUSEKEEPERS.—The attention of housekeepers and others who have rags, old papers and magazines stowed away in attics or closets, has probably been attracted by the poetical advertisement of Stockwell & Emerson, which has occupied a whole column of our paper for several days. It may not be generally known that every pound of old paper and rags sold by families not only puts money in their own purses, but reduces the price of paper. For this reason it is good economy to preserve the shreds of rags and all paper stock, and dispose of them. The price now paid for this material is probably higher than it will be a month hence, for the tendency of the market appears to be downward. The firm named is one of the most enterprising in the trade. It was established about 15 years ago in a basement down town, working upon a very small capital; but every year has required a larger space for the business which the energy of the partners has built up, and there are now branches in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago, while one of the members of the firm is at present in Europe to establish other connections there.—[Evening Post.

SAVE YOUR OLD NEWSPAPERS.—Stockwell & Emerson, No. 25 Ann-st., will buy them at the highest prices.—[N. Y. Daily Tribune.

THE LAST SENSATION.—One day last week we published the advertisement of a man in want of rubbish. This advertisement made one column in our paper, and cost the advertisers, Messrs. Stockwell & Emerson, $120. It was a rather loud call for old books, blank-books, newspapers and manuscripts—in short, for everything that is or can be paper. Nine cents per pound were offered for his old stuff.

That column has created a great sensation in society and out of it. It has filled the quietest households with the spirit of speculation and uproar. No greater excitement was created in Bagdad by the announcement that a certain merchant desired to take old lamps in exchange for new ones. Every old garret in town is suddenly found to teem with valuables, and our staid matrons are as eager as gold-hunters in Eldorado or Wall-st. All old wardrobes, closets, garrets, pantries, cupboards, drawers, trunks, and pin-cushions are ransacked and purged ruthlessly, and, since the truth must be told, even the book shelves are not spared. Yes, within the past seven days more than fifty per cent of the book cases have been weeded. They have been fined of all Patent Office reports and similar tomes classed as "Fine Books," infinite travels have come to an untimely end, and the excellence of voluminous authors has been much in question. It has been calmly debated whether or no Bancroft's History was worth more than seven cents a pound. And if this price continues, we tremble for Appleton's Cyclopædia—it is so very heavy. We have heard that an immense number of tragedies have finally found a purchaser, and that countless authors have gotten innumerable novels off their hands. Bohemia has begun to pay its board, and is radiant.

At the door of a certain savant, recently deceased, three hundred dollars were paid for two tuns of old paper—memoranda and scraps. Perhaps, like the transaction of the Bagdad merchant, it is a project to get hold of the projects, plans and ideas of some lately departed genius.

We hope that this excitement may continue, and go through the whole country as it has gone through this city. If it should, it will bring out an immense amount of the material whereof paper is made, and will be of great public benefit in bringing down the price of that necessary article.—[New-York Herald.

Let the readers of our paper follow the suggestion of Messrs. Stockwell & Emerson, whose advertisement appears in another column. By so doing, many will discover a new source of income, and it will tend to bring down that high-priced article, paper.—[New-York Independent.

TRADE IN REFUSE PAPER.—By reference to a column advertisement on the fourth page of The Express, it will be seen that Messrs. Stockwell & Emerson, No. 25 Ann-st., offer great inducements to citizens to bring to their establishment their refuse paper, old books, pamphlets, &c. This firm was established some ten or twelve years since, with a limited capital, but has grown, according to all accounts, to be one of the largest in the United States. They have branch houses in Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago; and one of the partners, Mr. Emerson, is now on the way to Europe to establish connections there. Save your waste paper. It is worth hundreds of thousands of dollars.—[New-York Express.

A MARKET FOR CONFEDERATE BONDS.—Mr. Davis and Mr. Memminger will be rejoiced to learn that there is at last a market open for the certificates of what The Charleston Mercury used to call "this most advantageous loan." Persons going along our streets may remark a handbill prominently posted up on dead walls, with the following promise—the like of which the Rebels have not probably seen anywhere in the Southern States:

"Cash paid for Confederate Bonds! No. 25 Ann-st."

If, however, the astonished reader looks a little further, he will find another announcement:

"Cash paid for old newspapers and pamflets, No. 25 Ann-st."

No. 25 Ann-st. is, in fact, the place of business of a purchaser of waste paper; and if Mr. Davis wants to sell his bonds, he can find a ready market for them there, at their just value, as waste paper.—[N. Y. Evening Post.

MATERIAL FOR PAPER.—Old newspapers, pamphlets, and whatever paper you have hitherto wasted, you may send to No. 25 Ann-st., where Stockwell & Emerson buy it, as they tell you in a long advertisement to-day.—[N. Y. Observer.

ECONOMY IS WEALTH.—Messrs. Stockwell and Emerson, paper dealers, No. 25 Ann-st., have made returns to the Internal Revenue Department of receipts to the amount of some $90,000. Pretty good for one year's sales of old papers. They commenced in a small way, and now they have a large establishment, and bid fair to take their stand among the millionaires of the land. They saw an immense amount of wealth thrown away or burnt up, and thus destroyed when it could be, if properly husbanded, made a source of income to individuals, a profitable business to themselves, and a saving to the nation generally; and forthwith they set to work through the press to urge upon the people the great economy that could be practiced in the saving of old newspapers and the scraps of paper to be found in every household and in public and private offices, while at the same time they proclaimed their readiness to purchase all such savings at very high prices. The consequence has been that hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property has been annually saved to the nation, by which the people have been made the richer, while they have built up for themselves a lucrative business of which they might well be proud.—[Police Gazette.

In one establishment, Stockwell & Emerson, of No. 25 Ann-st., over one ton and a half of newspapers and pamphlets is purchased daily at from eight to ten cents per pound. These are sent in bundles of eight hundred pounds to the mills in Massachusetts and other places to be remanufactured. In the bags may be seen a curious and heterogeneous mass of documents—all tumble-jumble—the writings indicating that extraordinary scarce commodity in these latter days—brains. One canvas receptacle contained, for instance, chirographic and printed works, among them the "Life of St. James," "Sermons against the Small-pox," "Diogenes' Courtship," "Calvin a Murderer," "Adventures of Larry O'Gaff," etc. Here is a strange mixture, created by the advanced price of paper. Old volumes of New-York papers which committed certain editors to measures they now denounce, also appeared in the bag, and the dealers put them at the bottom, as if ashamed of the transformations which time had effected in such ancient scribes.

The dealers, with Goth-like impunity, divest the books thus sold to them of their covers. How a connoisseur's heart would ache to see Sallust or the Praises of Hell, in their earliest dress, appearing in the mere nakedness of its red and black tufts—with its clasped parchment cast on a heap of rubbish, formed of scraps of posters and other materials, which a dozen of women are busily assorting for the mills. Yet, such is the sight which is hourly presented at the establishments of the paper dealer. The mills and the editors lack paper—and the tomes which are preserved in successive generations with fanatical fondness, must re-appear—undiscovered, and unmarked by the records of the past, or the thoughts and fancies of other ages, in order to enable us to print the battles, murders, outrages, etc., of our day. We advise, therefore, all who have a quantity of old paper on hand, to take it to Messrs. Stockwell & Emerson's now, as they will get a better price for it now than in ordinary times, when the supply of printing paper is abundant.—[N. Y. Express.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR OLD PAPER.—We would call the the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Stockwell & Emerson. They offer the highest prices for old newspapers, pamphlets, and all kinds of waste paper. This is good news to those who want to realize on their increasing stock of books and papers. Paper is pretty high just now, and old paper is worth a good price.—[Brooklyn Daily Times.

CAUTION TO ONE AND ALL.

BRING YOUR WASTE PAPER DIRECT TO NO. 25 ANN-ST., ONE DOOR FROM THE NORTH-WEST CORNER OF NASSAU-ST. LET NO SWINDLING RUNNERS STOP YOU ON YOUR WAY. WE HAVE NO RUNNERS, AND STEAL NO MAN'S TRADE. WE ADVERTISE OUR BUSINESS THOROUGHLY, AND BUT ASK A CONSIDERATE PUBLIC TO APPRECIATE OUR EXERTIONS AND GIVE US THE BENEFIT OF THEM. "A WORD TO THE WISE" IS SUFFICIENT.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.
A NEW AND GREAT INVENTION IN HOOP SKIRTS.
THE DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE) STEEL SPRING.
WESTS, BRADLEY & CAREY,
Successors to J. I. & J. O. WEST,
NO. 97 CHAMBERS-ST., NEW-YORK, are the owners of the Patent and Exclusive Manufacturers of this
J. W. BRADLEY'S
PATENTED "DUPLEX ELLIPTIC" STEEL SPRING SKIRT.

This invention consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Steel Springs ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most elastic, flexible and durable Spring ever used, enabling the wearer in consequence of its great elasticity and flexibleness to place and fold the skirt when in use as easily and with the same convenience as a silk or muslin dress. It entirely obviates and silences the only objections to Hoop Skirts, viz: the annoyance to the wearer as well as the public, especially in crowded assemblies, carriages, railroad cars, church pews, or in any crowded place from the difficulty of contracting them and occupying a small space; this entirely removes the difficulty, while giving the skirt the usual full and symmetrical form, and is the lightest and most stylish and graceful appearance for the street, opera, promenade or house dress. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterward willingly dispense with the use of them. They are the best quality in every part, by far the lightest, most durable, comfortable and economical Skirt made. Merchants will be supplied as above, and ladies in most first-class retail stores in this city and throughout the different States.

NOTICE.—Our attention having been called to assertions and statements lately made in the public prints, with the design of detracting from the high repute enjoyed by our THREAD, we beg to state that our standard has never been changed during the past Thirty Years; and that now, as heretofore, no pains and expense are or will be spared to maintain for this Spool Cotton its present character.

The attention of Buyers and Consumers is drawn to the fact that most of the new Threads offered to the public, from No. 30 upward, are marked up,—and that the difference in the coarseness of numbers, supposed to correspond with our numbers, often varies from ten (10) to twenty (20) per cent.

THE COMING DRAFT.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

TO ALL WHO ARE ENROLLED AS

LIABLE TO DRAFT.

The New-York County Committee on Volunteering have reason to believe that a further call is likely soon to be made by the President for men.

Hitherto, great complaint has been made that the quotas demanded of the County of New-York have been excessive.

As all quotas are based upon the Enrollment, it is evident that no relief can be expected except by a reduction of the enrollment to its proper standard.

Although appeals have hitherto been made to citizens to correct the Enrollment, there has been little or no disposition shown by the public to discharge its duty in this particular.

It is evident that this duty must be performed by the public authorities, or it will not be performed at all.

By consent of the War Department and the advice of the Governor, the New-York County Committee on Volunteering has determined to undertake the herculean labor of correcting the Enrollment of the County.

No means will be spared to make this correction thorough and satisfactory both to the people and the Government.

Our only object is to correct the Enrollment and place it a proper standard, and every citizen owes it alike to himself and his neighbor to assist in this work.

In addition to other means which will be brought into requisition for the accomplishment of this object, a complete copy of the existing Enrollment of each Ward or Election District will be printed and furnished to every enrolled citizen of the Ward or Election District.

This will prevent the excuse which so many who are exempt have made, that they did not know they were enrolled, and hence did not attend to having their names taken from the roll.

It will also afford the opportunity for every man enrolled to see whether or not his neighbor is enrolled, and enable him to secure that those liable and not enrolled shall be put down.

Every person enrolled is requested to aid in the gigantic labor which we have undertaken, by complying with the following conditions:

I. Whenever a name appears of any person who is not enrolled but liable, notice of the fact should be given to the Provost-Marshal of the District, by any person who may be cognizant of the fact, in order that the same may be recorded.

II. Whenever a name appears of any person who has removed, notice of the fact should be given at the Provost-Marshal's office, that the name may be stricken from the roll of that District, and recorded where it properly belongs.

III. Whenever a name appears which is known to be fictitious, or any one is aware that the person indicated is not a resident as described, notice should be given at the Provost-Marshal's office, that the name may be stricken from the roll.

IV. Whenever cause of exemption exists for any reason, notice should be given to the Provost-Marshal of the District by the exempt person himself, that the name may be stricken from the roll.

The following are the recognized causes of exemption:

1. Over 45 years of age.
2. Under 20 years of age.
3. Being an alien, and never having voted.
4. Having furnished a Substitute in anticipation of the Draft.
5. Having been drafted and furnished a Substitute.
6. Having been drafted and paid commutation.
7. Having been drafted and received a certificate of permanent physical disability.
8. Being permanently physically disqualified.
9. Having served two years in the Army or Navy during the present War, and been honorably discharged.

In addition to this, so far as possible, every enrolled man will be waited upon personally by authorized agents, deputed to ascertain the liability of all enrolled men, to have those improperly enrolled taken off, and to add those not on, but who should be enrolled.

As this is an effort to correct and not to increase the enrollment, it is to the interest of every person to give correct and true answers to any and all questions which may be put to them, and any person declining to answer or giving false answers render themselves liable to arrest and impris
