TO THE PUBLIC.

With this number the publication of the CRESCENT ceases. In making the announcement I respectfully tender my warmest thanks to the many friends upon whose favors I have relied with unwavering confidence during the last fifteen years. Conscious of having ever striven for the right during my journalistic career—although sometimes against the judgment of my friends—I cannot but express my regret at this close of agreeable relations that have so long existed.

The business and good-will of the CRESCENT having been transferred to the New Orleans TIMES, of which C. A. Weed, Esq., is publisher, I avail myself of this opportunity to assure my friends that to his hands their interests may be safely confided. He has become identified with the prosperity of New Orleans and Louisiana, and his views in relation to public affairs are such as may be acquiesced in by every true patriot. Having said this much I beg to state that all my journalistic interest will be hereafter blended with the TIMES, and in my new connection I trust that the same cordial and generous support of my friends will still be continued.

In supporting the TIMES they will best serve my interests and tend to lessen the regret inseparable from my farewell as Editor and Proprietor of the NEW ORLEANS CRESCENT.

Fresh Meat at All Times!!!

AT SEA,

IN THE CAMP, AND ON THE MARCH.

STABLER'S CANNED BEEF,

PUT UP WITHOUT BONE,

—AND—

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE.

The beef has fully stood the test of experience, and is offered to the public as the CHEAPEST and BEST SUBSTITUTE for fresh meat in the market. It is free from bone, packed in cans of a convenient size, and the cans packed in cases of about 90 pounds each.

For sea voyages it is superior to cooked canned beef, or salt meat, as it retains the JUICINESS and FLAVOR of fresh meat. When prepared and cooked according to the directions on the can, it will make a Soup, Stew or Hash, equal to fresh beef—fried or broiled, the best substitute for fresh meat known. This article possesses many advantages over other forms in which meat is prepared or packed for ships' use:

1st. It is cheaper than cooked, canned or salt beef.

2d. It is entirely free from bone, and being packed in cans, it is more conveniently and economically stowed.

3d. It being nearly equal to fresh meat, will prevent scurvy and other diseases produced by the constant use of salt meat.

4th. It will keep in any climate and any reasonable length of time.

A. C. PIERPONT & CO.,
General Agents, No. 15 New Levee St.

The attention of the public is respectfully directed to the accompanying documents:

NEW ORLEANS, April 17th, 1869.

We, the undersigned, who were present to-day at the lunch given by Messrs. A. C. Pierpont & Co., at the "Woods' House," with a view to testing the qualities of the Beef and Mutton packed by Messrs. Stabler & Co., of Indianola, Texas, by their new process; after having eaten of the several kinds of Beef and Mutton put up by them, take pleasure in stating that we found the articles even BETTER than we had been led to anticipate from the favorable remarks of the newspaper press of the city.

The Beef and Mutton proved perfectly fresh, sweet and without the unpalatable flavor usual with canned meats.

We therefore cordially recommend Messrs Stabler & Co.'s meats to the public. Respectfully, etc.,

J. W. Arthur & Co.; Richard Flower; McRoberts & Dick; W. G. Lyon & Co; Isaacson, Salzas & Co.; Block & Briston; Prudhomme & Grace; Jackson & Anderson.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17th, 1869.

In regard to the lunch we prepared for Messrs. A. C. Pierpont & Co., to-day, we certify that the only meats cooked by us and eaten at the said lunch, were those sent to us in cans by Messrs. Pierpont & Co., and we further certify that we strictly followed the printed directions on the cans in preparing them. GEO. SCHMEIDES, JR.,

The Picayune, of the 16th instant, contains articles wherein I am represented as a very conspicuous person in the alleged "Colson Swindle." I have never been approached by any person on earth to destroy a vessel in any shape, way or manner.

If Captain Baker was so employed, (which he acknowledges) he never hinted it to me. I have been advised by Captain Baker to leave the city for fear of arrest. Knowing my innocence in the matter, I court an early investigation, and patiently await the result.

To the Agents

CHARTER OAK AND BRILLIANT COOKING STOVES.

Gentlemen—Owing to the disagreement at the Fair on Monday last, by which you lost the opportunity of proving the superiority of your respective stoves and as you seemed so anxious to make the trial, now we, the undersigned, desiring to prove to the public by a fair and impartial trial which is the best Stove, challenge you to meet us at any time or place that may be agreed upon, within the next ten days.

To avoid controversy about the size of Stoves, we propose to use a No. 6; bake three loves of bread consecutively—one of ten pounds, one of nine pounds and one of eight pounds of dough—and to be baked in pans fourteen inches square; as we contend that any stove will bake biscuits, and that but few can bake bread. Each stove to be operated by one of its Agents, and none other.

The decision to be rendered in accordance with the following conditions: First—Best bread baked. Second—Least fuel. Third—Shortest time. All other rules and conditions to be agreed upon after this shall have been accepted.

To Travelers
—IN THE—
WESTERN AND SOUTHERN STATES.

As a means of neutralizing the deleterious proportions of unwholesome water, the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS,

Manufactured and Imported by

UDOLPHO WOLFE,

No. 28 Beaver Street, New York,

Is absolutely invaluable to the traveler, and residents of the Southern and Western States.

It will infallibly prevent the dysenteric and laxative disorders which attack strangers who use the waters of the Mississippi, the Ohio, the Alabama, and other Western and Southern rivers. Its moderate use will prevent Ague and Fever; it stimulates, in a moderate degree, the Digestive Organs, and enables the stomach to resist the otherwise disturbing influences of the varieties of water which travelers encounter on a journey.

Nor is this all. By the exposure in the World newspaper, published in New York, who had various liquors analysed which they purchased at the different hotels and drinking saloons in said city, went to show that nearly all were more or less adulterated, and could not be imbibed with safety. If that is the case in a large city like New York, what must it be in country hotels in remote parts of the country. In the Schnapps the traveler has a pure liquor, which is indorsed by the leading physicians of the United States.

Prof. Chas. A. Seeley, one of the first chemists in New York, and who was employed to analyze for the World, says: "I have been unable to discover in WOLFE'S SCHNAPPS any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others for medicinal purposes, as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin."

N. B.—The proprietor cautions the public against the spurious imitation and counterfeits which flood the whole Southern and Western States.

☞ The genuine is sold by all respectable grocers and druggists.
