NO RECIPROCITY.

That Feature of McKinley Bill Abolished.

Income Tax Saddled on to Wilson Bill.

DEMOCRATS SO DECIDE

Secretary Carlisle Before House Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Only an amendment to the tariff bill of importance was adopted by the house yesterday, that repealing the reciprocity clause of the McKinley law. The entire day was consumed by the New York Democrats, who were filibustering against the income tax proposition, which they feared would be offered, along with other features of the internal revenue bill, as an amendment to the Wilson bill. As on Wednesday several Democratic speeches severely criticising the bill were delivered. The Democratic advocates of the income tax became so impatient over the course pursued by the New York members that they concluded the best way to settle the question would be by holding a caucus. This Mr. Wilson finally agreed to, and on his motion the house recessed at 5:10, and the fight was transferred from the open house to a secret caucus.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Internal Revenue and Income Tax Bill to Be Added to the Wilson Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—At a meeting of Democratic members of the house yesterday afternoon a resolution was carried that the internal revenue bill and the income tax be added as an amendment to the Wilson bill. The time for debate on the tariff bill was extended three days to give the time for discussion of the tax. Under this arrangement the final vote will be taken next Thursday. The meeting was animated. Mr. Holman occupied the chair, 104 Democratic members answering to roll call.

CARLISLE ON THE BOND ISSUE.

The Secretary Appears Before the House Judiciary Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—For the first time in this congress every member of the judiciary committee of the house attended its meeting yesterday, the magnet being Secretary Carlisle's statement of his position on the bond issue. The resolution of Representative Bailey of Texas, declaring it to be the sense of the house that the secretary has no authority to apply the proceeds of the bonds to any purpose but resumption, was before the committee.

Mr. Carlisle spoke in an informal manner for an hour and a half, and was questioned by several members of the committee. It was held by the secretary that the law conferred upon him the authority to issue bonds, although he stated frankly that until recently he had not entertained that opinion of the question. Great pressure has been brought to bear upon him, he said, for the bond issue, and, although he regretted the necessity for it, as the step did not seem to meet the unanimous approval of the party, yet it was plain to him the necessity was imperative at this time. A deficit of $48,000,000 would exist at the end of the fiscal year, he estimated under existing conditions, or as a result of proposed tariff legislation, unless congress gave relief to the treasury, which he hoped it would do.

A GOOD WORD FOR LIL.

Dr. Stalker Says She Is Not as Black as She Has Been Painted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Dr. M. Stalker of Des Moines, Iowa, was before the senate Hawaiian investigating committee yesterday. Dr. Stalker has never been a resident of the Hawaiian islands, but he spent the winter of 1892 and 1893 at Honolulu, and was there at the time of the revolution in January, and when the American flag was hoisted and the protectorate of the United States was declared on February 1. His testimony indicated from the start, that he considered the revolution as unjustified, and that he was of the opinion that but for the landing and presence of American troops the revolution would not have been successful.

Mr. Stalker said Queen Liliuokalani was not so black as she had been painted by her enemies. He says this is another case in politics in which it is not wise to accept the opposition delineation of a person actively engaged in a struggle.

McCreary's Hawaiian Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The resolution on the Hawaiian question introduced by Representative McCreary, Democrat, of Kentucky, on Monday was considered by the house committee on foreign affairs yesterday. By a strict party vote of 7 to 3 it was agreed that Chairman McCreary should report the resolution favorably to the house without change. The report of the minority will be prepared by Mr. Hitt of Illinois.

Those Five Per Cent Bonds.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Hawaiian resolutions were not considered in the senate yesterday. They were presented in the morning hour, but laid aside in order to give to Mr. Allen, the Nebraska Populist, an opportunity to deliver a legal argument against the authority of the secretary of the treasury to issue five per cent bonds.

Congressman Sibley Resigns.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Mr. Sibley, the Democratic congressman from Pennsylvania, has resigned his seat in congress. Criticism of his course on the tariff bill is said to be the cause of Mr. Sibley's action.
