"RARELY have we seen an abler work than this, or one which more vigorously interests us in the principal characters of its most fascinating story."—[London Press.

NOW READY,
THE NEW AND POWERFUL ENGLISH NOVEL,
GEORGE GEITH,
OF FEN COURT.
BY F. G. TRAFFORD,
Author of "Too Much Alone," etc.
One volume.....12mo.....Cloth.....555 pp.....Price $2

"This fine story, so rich in pathos, is not poor in humor. Its sadness does not tend to monotone, but is diversified by sketches of 'fine city ladies' and notable of city sociabilities, which are keenly witty and genuinely entertaining. It is a rare pleasure to read such a novel as 'George Geith of Fen Court'—a pleasure for whose recurrence it is vain to look except toward its author."

Beryl Moloyane, the witty, laughing girl of sense, who can mimic, and act, and jest, and govern a family, and smash pretense, and love devotedly.... We do not know when we have been so charmed as with that strange figure, so composite yet so real, or when we have read anything more touching than her relation to her husband whom Mr. Trafford, true to his theory of life, makes in his hour of victory a sick bankrupt."

NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE.—THE NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and contains all the Editorial articles, not merely local in character; Literary Reviews and Art Criticisms; Letters from our large corps of war correspondents; Foreign and Domestic Letters; Special and Associated Press Telegraphic Dispatches; a careful and complete Summary of Foreign and Domestic News; Exclusive Reports of the Proceedings of the Farmers' Club of the American Institute; Talks about Fruit, and other Horticultural and Agricultural Information; Stock, Financial, Cattle, Dry Goods and General Market Reports, which are published in THE DAILY TRIBUNE. It frequently contains articles which the great pressure of advertisements will not permit us to put in the Daily Edition. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the

BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS

by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book-form, would be from six to eight dollars. If purchased in the ENGLISH MAGAZINES from which they are carefully selected, the cost would be three or four times that sum. Nowhere else can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Those who believe in the principles and approve of the character of THE TRIBUNE can increase its power and influence by joining with their neighbors in forming clubs to subscribe for THE SEMI-WEEKLY Edition. It will in this way be supplied to them at the lowest price for which such a paper can be printed. Persons residing in the city can find no more valuable journal to send to their country friends.

Lectures and Meetings.

ANNA E. DICKINSON on "THE WORK AND WAGES OF WOMEN," at Cooper Institute, FRIDAY EVENING, March 10.
This will be a good opportunity for those who do not like Miss Dickinson's politics to hear her upon a theme having no partisan bearings. Of this lecture, after its recent delivery in Brooklyn, The World said: "It was a noble, earnest and eloquent plea in behalf of labor for women." The Independent said: "Having heard Miss Dickinson many times we are free to say that we never knew her to be more impressive, sympathetic and all-conquering than on this occasion. Certainly the most accomplished of public speakers might have been abundantly content with the charm and spell wrought by this young enchantress upon the large audience which laughed and wept at her discourse in Brooklyn. Such a speech, from such a speaker, was a salutary sermon; and we envy not the temper of mind of any man or woman in that audience who was not touched, quickened and bettered by that womanly appeal in behalf of woman's work and pay."
Tickets for reserved seats (reserved only till 8 o'clock), 50 cents; for other seats 25 cents. For sale (till 5 p. m. on Friday) at American News Company, No. 121 Nassau-st.; Fowler & Wells, No. 389 Broadway; James Miller's, No. 522 Broadway; Brentano's, No. 708 Broadway; Miller & Matthews, No. 767 Broadway; Mechanics', corner Broadway and Twenty-third-st.
