TO SEE ALL EUROPE.

Cliff Baker Leaves for a Long Holiday Abroad.

HE WILL SEE THREE CONTINENTS.

Going as Far East as Damascus and Visiting St. Petersburg on His Return.

Mr. C. C. Baker, president of the Topeka street railway, left Topeka this afternoon for New York, from where he will in company with ex-Governor T. A. Osborne sail for the Old World.

In conversation with a STATE JOURNAL reporter about his prospective trip Mr. Baker said: "We are anticipating a great trip. We will go directly to the Mediterranean. Our tickets were purchased to Genoa as we understood our steamer would land there first before touching at Naples, but I have just learned that we touch at Naples first and the steamer stops at Genoa on its return trip. We will stop at Naples and after a short sojourn there will push on to Egypt. It is our plan to take a short trip up the Nile if we can arrange to go with an agreeable party. I don't want to go up the Nile just to say I have made the trip, but if we can find an agreeable company I want to make the trip. If we are to make that trip we must go there as soon as possible, as the Nile season closes in March.

From Cairo we will go to Jerusalem; from there to Damascus, then back to Constantinople and through Greece and Italy, stopping at Rome. We will then make all the points of interest in Spain; then visit France and Germany, and if the signs are right will go on to St. Petersburg.

"Will you shake hands with the czar?"

"Yes, and will take a snap shot of him with my kodak if I get a chance." Mr. Baker did not seem to fear that he might be taken for a nihilist and be the cause of an international difficulty. "I will take my kodak with me," he said, "and I expect to get some fine views before I come home. I am making arrangements to have my views placed on slides for a stereopticon, so I can show them on the wall. We have made arrangements to get our passports for our Russian trip and I am looking forward to that part of our tour with a great deal of expectation.

"I don't know just how long we will be away; that will largely depend on how the folks are at home, how we stand the trip and how much it costs.

"Our present plans are to go from St. Petersburg through Norway and Sweden and then visit the British Isles, making Ireland and Scotland just before we sail for home."

A FIGHT FOR PRINCIPLE.

Shall the County Clerk Who is Responsible Appoint His Own Clerks?

When the county commissioners meet tomorrow morning, they will be forced to consider the question of appointing an assistant to County Clerk McCabe.

County Clerk McCabe said this morning that he had retained Miss Kate McArthur for a few days to assist in getting on some work for which there was an urgent demand, but said he would be over this rush in a few days, and unless the commissioners decided to confirm an appointment satisfactory to him, he will issue an order forbidding Miss McArthur to touch the books of his office, and will then hire outside help to do the business.

It is understood that the commissioners have a technical right to appoint the assistants to the county clerk, and they have also the power to reduce his salary if they so choose, but as a matter of decency and precedent, the county clerk has always been allowed to select his own clerks.

When John M. Brown was county clerk an effort was made to have him retain an objectionable clerk in his office, and although the clerk was competent, Brown forced the commissioners to allow him to select his own clerks.

PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL.

Arrangements For Further Meetings at the First Church.

Special revival services were commenced in the First Presbyterian church nearly three weeks since. The first week meetings were held each week day evening at 7:30 and commencing one week ago last Monday morning a daily special pentecostal service was started lasting from 8 to 9 o'clock, persons coming and going during the hour as it suited their convenience. Many unconverted are being reached. These special meetings will be continued at least through this and next week, 8 to 9 a. m. and 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

As the day schools will not be in session next Saturday a meeting specially for the benefit of the young people will be held that morning from 8 to 9:30 and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance of the young people at that service.

An all day meeting for prayer and conference will be held Thursday, February 22nd.

The Chicago News Almanac.

The Chicago Daily News Almanac and Political Register for 1894 is a standard authority on matters treated of in the best publications of this kind, it needs no extended notice. Briefly it may be said that in addition to the usual statistical matter covering elections in every state, which has been compiled with great care, the present volume contains many articles of especial value to the American citizen who desires to keep posted on the leading political questions or events of the day. Among them are to be mentioned those on the Hawaiian difficulty, the Behring Sea arbitration, the dispute between France and Siam, farms and farm mortgages, modes of assessing and collecting taxes in each state of the Union, the national silver convention in Chicago, the repeal of the purchase clause of the Sherman act, and the international monetary conference. The Wilson tariff bill, as framed by the House Ways and Means committee, is compared, item by item, with the McKinley law. As a handy book of reference this complete and yet compact almanac is unexcelled. It will be sent by the Chicago Daily News to any address, postage prepaid, on the receipt of 25 cents.

Masquerade Ball.

AT THE THEATERS.

Lilly Clay's Company Entertains a Man Audience at the Grand.

Lilly Clay's gaiety girls, the "Queen Lil" of the gallery gods, kicked high the light fantastic last night at the Grand. Although Miss Clay died several years since, the evil that she did lives after her. Heretofore the Lilly Clay's performances here have been marked either with some good special scenery or a fairly good comedian, but no redeeming features were to be seen at the show last night.

It was a top-heavy house that witnessed the performance, and the less said about the merits of the company the better—for the company.

Hanlon Brothers "Fantasma," one of the very best pantomimic attractions on the road, will be given at the Grand tomorrow night, with its mirth and mystery, marvelous mechanism, handsome transformations and new costumes and scenery. From the moment the curtain rises the activity and motion on the stage is so perpetual as to have almost kaleidoscopic effect. "Fantasma" has been so changed for the better since last season as to be almost a new production.

The "Black Crook" will be given at the Grand next Wednesday and Thursday.

"Hunted Down" was given by the Starr's comedy company at the Crawford last night to a good house. The engagement continues throughout the week at popular prices.

SUFFERING IN LANE CO.

Healey, a Small Village on the Missouri Pacific Wants Help.

The state board of railroad commissioners has received a letter signed by three citizens of Healey, Lane county, a small town on the Missouri Pacific in which they appeal for aid.

They say the people of that section are out of coal and money and have not enough "cow chips to last three days." The letter was dated February 10 and was delayed by the blizzard, so that the people of Healey must have suffered badly during the blizzard. The commissioners will take immediate action to send these people some coal.

SNAP SHOTS AT HOME NEWS.

The woods are full of rabbits.

Every sleigh and bobsled in town was out last night.

Wichita is making an effort to secure the next state fair.

Dr. Eva Harding is sick. She is under the care of Dr. Menninger.

Fred Close is not only a crack shot, but he is an expert billiard player.

Bank Commissioner Breidenthal has gone to Greensburg, Kiowa county.

Receiver Wilson, of the Santa Fe, has been assigned the dover a private car.

There is a woman in Topeka so large she has trouble in getting inside a street car.

Frank Beck is now stenographer to Superintendent Davidson of the city schools.

Col. J. W. F. Hughes, will be a candidate for secretary of state, if the signs don't fail.

The Populist county central committee has resolved to conduct a middle of the road campaign.

John J. Ingalls has returned to Atchison, and declared to a Globe reporter that he was converted.

City Clerk McFadden will be subpoenaed to go to Lawrence as a witness in the sewer case this week.

A young woman who is employed in a Seventh street printing office walks in from Shorey every morning.

There is no need for the audiences to hiss actors off the stage at the Grand. The radiators pretty near do it.

A. L. Williams is in St. Louis, where he has gone to present the Union Pacific employes question to Judge Caldwell.

About $1,800 in personal taxes have been collected by Sheriff Bridges since the warrants were placed in his hands.

The Lucy Stone memorial services are the Topeka Equal Suffrage association is being held at Music hall this afternoon.

W. C. Jones has issued a call for a meeting of the Democratic state central committee to be held at the Throop February 27 at 2 p. m.

General Manager Frey has notified the state board of railroad commissioners that the Santa Fe will reopen its station at Buxton, Wilson county.

Ex-Mayor H. L. Cofran will start in about a week for Mexico. He is interested in Mexican land, and a firm believer in the future of the sister republic.

Probate Judge Elliott has issued marriage licenses to Henry Shaw and Pearl Yohey of Topeka; W. J. Zinn and Zorinda Durland of Meriden; Clarence J. McCord and Augusta Johnson of Silver Lake.

The Kansas agents of the Home Insurance company have been ordered to stop soliciting or receiving business until the trouble between the company and Superintendent Sandor is definitely settled.

The Kansas Academy of Science has secured possession of a small room adjoining the rooms of the State Agricultural society at the state house, and its collection of specimens is being arranged.

The spectacle of a soubrette doing a song and dance act on the Grand stage in a cloud of dust, is a novelty that can't be seen anywhere else. Soap and water applied frequently where it will do the most good, might remedy this.

LOCAL MENTION.

Charles P. Elliott has booked Richard Mansfield for a date at the Grand.

So much snow flew into the halls of the city school houses during the storm that it has taken A. F. Barker, the boss janitor, from Monday morning until 9 o'clock Wednesday afternoon with the help of the other janitors to get the snow out. A big wagon load was taken out of one loft.

The case of the state A. L. Snyder, charged with disturbing the peace of Dr. W. C. Hamilton, which was set for hearing this morning at Justice Grover's court, was again continued until Friday, February 23rd, at one o'clock. S. S. Urmy, the prosecuting attorney, is a witness in the Decker, Mullins & Berry case at Lawrence and could not be present.

Judge Caldwell will deliver the general address at the annual commencement of the Kansas Medical college on Tuesday, March 20th. Dr. J. C. McClintock will address the class and Judge Horton will confer the degrees. There are eight prospective graduates. Judge Guthrie has begun his course of lectures on medical jurisprudence. He delivers a lecture every Saturday from 8 to 4 p. m.

SACKETT STAYS HERE.

He Will Reside in Topeka For a Time.

DISCHARGED FROM CUSTODY TODAY.

Congratulated on His Escape from Justice by Prominent People.

Topeka is to have an addition to its criminal element, fortunately only for a short time it is hoped. Sackett is going to stay here.

Harry Ackley Sackett is a free man. When he appeared before Justice Furry this morning for his preliminary hearing the justice announced after a consultation with the attorneys involved, that the case against Sackett had been dismissed and Sackett was discharged.

Sackett is somewhat hard of hearing and he did not know what the judge said until his attorney, Aaron Jetmore, repeated it. Sackett said "Thank You," to the court and accompanied Lawyer Jetmore to his office.

He will not leave Topeka. He has been given too much free advertising not to take advantage of it. He will open up a stand at Burkhart's cigar store, 801 Kansas avenue, where he will make silhouette pictures at so much a picture, where he expects to do a big business with the curious people of Topeka.

Sackett said to a JOURNAL reporter shortly after his release:

"I have been twelve days in jail. That is a new experience to put down on my tab. I have no complaint to make, however. At the jail they gave me the best cell in the prison and I was treated pretty well.

"I think the papers of Topeka have been too severe in their statements of the case, but under the circumstances I have no kick coming. You may say I am going to open a stand at Burkhart's cigar store, where I will be glad to see the curious people of Topeka in a professional way."

"Do you know where Miss Davenport has gone?"

"I am reliably informed that she has been taken back to Illinois by her aunt. I suppose her friends will make an effort to show that she has gone to Denver or somewhere else to hide her identity as much as possible."

"What is the truth of these stories about your wife and family in Washington being destitute?"

"My wife is making about eight or ten dollars a day. That is more than I have been making lately, but you know there are women who want the earth. We separated by agreement and she kept the children because she wanted to."

"How do you account for none of the requisitions against you having materialized?"

"That was all bluster. I am not wanted for any offense back east. If I were wanted you must know that I would have sense enough not to use my own name and continue my profession as a silhouette artist."

After Sackett's discharge a large circle of people, many of them old settlers who remembered his father, pressed around him, shook his hands and offered their congratulations. Among those who did this were G. G. Gage and John T. Morton. Sackett had admitted to reporters and in fact everybody else, that he was guilty of criminal relations with Miss Frances Davenport, but as certain technical forms of law were not complied with he goes free. He is a foul scamp and the sooner he gets out of town the better for the town.

MISS DAVENPORT GONE.

The Family Sick of the Notoriety Given Them by the Affair.

Miss Davenport returned yesterday with her relatives, and she expresses herself as being very thankful for being rescued from the man Sackett. She was in the city, however, when Lawyer Jetmore made the charge that she had been "spirited away."

A conservator has been appointed over her property to protect her from the wiles of any other unprincipled adventurers who may try to get into her good graces on account of her wealth.

A relative of Miss Davenport says the reason Sackett was not taken back to Indiana is because the feeling against him there has run very high, and the threat had been freely made that he would be tarred and feathered, and they feared serious results from violence. This would have been very distasteful to her sisters, and they were sick and completely worn out with the excitement and notoriety caused by the unfortunate occurrence.

They were in Chicago on the night of the elopement, and had as high as 160 detectives and police officers on the search with photographs and descriptions. Every theatre and place of amusement was thoroughly searched.

Sheriff Crull of Elkhart county came here last week, with a requisition from the governor of Indiana, to take him back for trial there. The principal witness against him would have been the woman that Sackett took to Elkhart as his wife, and whom he deserted for Miss Davenport.

Sheriff Crull was in the court room when the case was up for hearing last Saturday. He sat next to Sackett and while in conversation and apparently sympathizing with him, he was studying the man pretty thoroughly for a future acquaintance.

After he arrived on Friday night with the requisition, the attorneys thought it best to take a continuance in the case and in the meantime to send Crull to Wichita to get the signature of the governor to the warrant, and have it issued by him in preference to taking ing one that was signed by the governor and not issued by him in person. He was detained at Newton and Emporia by the snow blockade until Monday evening, when he returned. He learned that the relatives east wished to discontinue further proceedings. He remained here until yesterday afternoon in hope of a change in programme that would give him the pleasure of Mr. Sackett's company on his way home. He was sadly disappointed that he had to go home alone.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

There were no cases of any importance on the docket at the police court this morning. A drunk who had his case continued from yesterday morning until this morning, put up $5 for appearance and was released yesterday afternoon. He did not appear this morning and so forfeited the $5.

Another drunk who was arrested last night, pleaded guilty this morning and was fined $5.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

Last evening the marriage of Miss Pearl Yohey and Mr. Harry N. Stone was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, Dr. S. H. Alderson performing the ceremony at 9 o'clock.

The bridal party proceeded to the altar to the music of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. J. P. Rogers, and stood before a pyramid of palms, crowned with a blooming Easter lily.

The bride wore a gown of white china silk, cut low in the neck and a deep bertha of duchesse lace outlined with pearl trimming. The full puffed sleeves reached to the elbow and were met by white suede gloves, and her slippers were of white suede. A veil of tulle hung to the hem of her gown and was caught up with lilies of the valley. Sprays of the same were worn on her corsage and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

The bridesmaid, Miss Leni L. Yohey, wore white novelty cloth with pipings of satin and a princess bodice of white satin duchess. Her slippers and gloves were white and she wore La France roses.

Mr. C. J. Rolf acted as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Ira Owens of Chicago and Mr. James Crumrine. After the ceremony an informal reception was given to the immediate friends and relatives at the bride's home, the interior of which was made charming with palms and cut flowers. A luncheon was served at 10 o'clock, and Mrs. J. P. Rodgers and Miss Jessie Tipton entertained the guests with some delightful music.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone will go to housekeeping at once at 304 West Eighth street.

Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Higbee of Emporia and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Milham of Kansas City. Many handsome presents were received, among them some beautiful pieces of silver and cut glass.

The T. V. Club Entertains.

The members of T. V. club entertained their gentlemen friends at the home of Miss Emma Marmont last evening. It was a "valentine party," and crimson, silver and gold hearts, comic and pretty valentines were prominent in the decorations, mingled with bunches of violets. This was quite suggestive, as the name of the organization is the "Topeka Violet" club, and those not initiated were supposed to guess it.

A big heart covered with violet tissue paper served as a target to be shot at with bows and arrows, and partners for cards were found by means of the scores obtained in this manner.

Progressive hearts was the game and heart shaped score cards were tied with violet ribbon and a small bunch of the blossoms. Eleven games were played and Miss Emma Marmont and Mr. Seiler received prizes for winning the most. Miss Lillian Hatch and Mr. John Walmire were not so lucky in playing, and were consoled for their ill luck.

The refreshments were in keeping with the other details, and the ten young ladies received many compliments on the success of their first party.

A Pleasant Party.

Miss Lelia Green and Miss Mayberry gave a delightful party last evening for Miss Jessie Larimore of Newark, O., at 1514 West Tenth street. A peanut hunt afforded considerable amusement the force part of the evening and Miss Larimore received a bunch of bronze peanuts for finding the most.

In the test of senses which followed, Mr. L. Johnson was rewarded with a large valentine. Nice refreshments were served and the evening was a most pleasant one for Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Larimore, Mr. and Mrs. Brewster, Misses Yount, Larimore, Biddle, Eva Mayberry, Hackworth, Dailey, Miller, Stoner, Hanna, Brown, Johnson, Alloway; Messrs. Parsons, Hogaboom, Brown, Bozman, Houts, Frank Downing, Joe Booth, Will Johnston, L. W. Mayberry, Will Chaney, Geo. Miller, Bert Bair, and Will Shipman.

Sleighing Parties.

Sleighing parties may be considered in the list of "Lenten diversions," and "bob sleighs" are in constant demand. On Monday evening a jolly crowd was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bowman, and in it were Misses Jessie Small, Dib Phelps of Bloomington, Ill., Marguerite Bradley, Dora Furman, Henrietta Thompson, Franc Littlefield, Delia Parmalee, Messrs. Walter Nimis, Harry Valentine, Harry Weaver, C. M. and C. B. Merriam, Julius Weidling and Ned Osborne.

On Tuesday evening another consisted of Misses Jessie Shellabarger, Susie Wilder, Mabel Baker, Lela Hord, Olive Lewis and Messrs. David Lakin, Clarence Evans, Dick Rogers, Wilson and Allen Lauck.

Last evening Misses Stella Harding, Birdie Donnelly, Inez Hubbard, Will Petitt, Harry Porter, Sam Zimmerman and Fred Corven were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Harding.

Another crowd consisted of Misses Mollie and Anna Crane, Emily Black, Lulu Fordyce, Minnie Davis, Jessie Garwood, Bessie Moss, Lulu Cole and Messrs. W. J. Rudolff, Guy Hagar, Harry Tasker, Chas. Lagerstrom, Rob Frampton, Chas. Blakesley and Monte Gregg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison gave a reception and musicale on Tuesday evening, for the members of the Central Congregational church. About one hundred guests enjoyed their hospitality, and the musicians were Misses Pierce, Minnie Bishop, Belle Bonnett, Mary Harrison, and Messrs. Ed Epps, and Paul Torrington. Light refreshments were served.

A Surprise Party.

A number of friends suprised Miss Genie Mills at her home on Clay street, last evening. The evening was spent in games and music, and Miss Mills was assisted by Miss Leach and Miss Wingart. At about 11 o'clock refreshments were served to Misses Myrtle Naylor, Leona Sage, Wilano Leach, Grace Himmel, Maud Naylor, Ella Wingart, and Nellie Phillips; Messrs. Jesse Leach, Otis Dalton, John Harrison, Arthur Majors, Earle Anderson, Elmer Barnes and Frank Mills.

Another Surprise Party.

Master Charles Stolpe was given a surprise party last night by some of his schoolmates, and the affair was arranged by Miss Esther Foberg and Theresa Johnson. Among those present were Misses Ellen Foberg, Clara, Selma, and Ada Foberg, Laura Rudolff, Daisy Warner, Annie Christenson, Selma and Unila Johnson, Pearl Hayslip, Mabel Rosen, Annie Durent; Masters John Rudolff, Otto Foberg, Curtis Knowles, Will Hayslip, Joe Ramsey, Joe Johnson, Andrew and Chas. Schegel, and Clarence Gustafson.

General Social Notes.

Miss Myrtle Evarts gave a very pleasant party to a few of her friends at her home on Buchanan street last evening.

Miss Tressie Roach left yesterday for a six week's visit in St. Louis.

Mrs. E. Bennett will entertain on Friday afternoon.

Ed Gresser returned to Chicago yesterday.

The N. M. Club will meet this evening with Misses Vina and Dora Johnson.

Mrs. Douthard, of Carbondale, is visiting in the city.

Miss Jessie Larimore will return tomorrow to Newark, O.

Hiram Ray has returned from St. Joe.

Miss Minnie Carr will spend Sunday in Kansas City.

Miss Anna Nellis will entertain the Apollo club Saturday afternoon.

The Douze Whist club meets Saturday afternoon with Miss Blanche Dienst.

Miss Susie Wilder has issued cards for a party next Monday night.

WELL-DRESSED WOMEN.

HANDSOME GOWNS ARE NOT NECESSARILY THE MOST EXPENSIVE.

Diamond Dyes Make Possible Many Stylish Suits—Their Use Greatly Increased by Hard Times—Rich Colors That Will Not Fade, Crock or Wash Out.

"About the only thing the sale of which has been increased by the hard times are diamond dyes," said a Topeka druggist. "Women like to be well dressed, and they find that by the use of these handy home dyes they can make an old dress look like a new one, prevent the husband's clothes from getting shabby, and keep the children nicely clothed."

While there are fifty different colors in diamond dyes, the blacks (special kinds for wool, cotton, and silk and feathers) are the most popular, as any color can be dyed a handsome black with but little work or expense. The directions on the envelopes are so plain and explicit that the most inexperienced can do as well as the professional dyer.

In one of the ladies' papers, a story of real life was printed, telling how a winter wardrobe was made from partly worn clothing by the aid of diamond dyes. "A tan colored flannel dress was taken apart and washed and then dyed a beautiful brown with seal brown diamond dye. As it is made very plain it can be washed almost as easily as calico; for, like other colors produced by these dyes, it will never fade." It also tells of "a suit that was dyed a lovely shade of dark green," and other useful and handsome gowns, cloaks and hats that were colored over with diamond dyes. Try a ten cent package and see how easily a fast and beautiful color can be made over any kind of goods.

Trouble Over a Horse.

Some time ago a colored man named Levo, who lives nine miles south of town, lost a horse, which he had every reason to believe was stolen. He found the horse in the possession of a colored man in this city named Clark and brought suit against him for stealing the horse. Judgment was given in favor of Clark, however, and Levo had to pay the feed bill and expenses of keeping the animal. Porter Cook went on the replevin bond for Levo to get the horse back. Today at Justice Furry's court, Clark is bringing suit against Cook, on the replevin bond, for attorney fees.
