NOTICE.—The public are respectfully informed that the canvass for this work is now in progress.
Persons doing business down town and residing in the upper part of the city are solicited to leave at their places of business and homes, full information respecting their business and places of business, &c. Where several individuals occupy one office, a list should be made out, with full particulars, and left for the canvassers. By this means the annoyance of repeated calls for information, and the greater one arising both to the compiler and the public, from errors and omissions, may be in a great measure avoided. The canvassers employed on this work are furnished with written authority, signed by Mr. H. Wilson. They are authorized to receive money for the insertion of names in capital letters, and for extra lines to be inserted in connection with the name, &c., but for no other purpose. They are instructed to leave receipts, with which they are furnished, for all amounts, however small, received by them. Payment for the book to be made on its delivery; for advertisements in front or back, or colored leaves, after publication, and on presentation of the order signed by the advertiser.
